

Evening News Review.

18TH YEAR. NO. 154.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1901—TWELVE PAGES.

TWO CENTS.

SCREWS COMING DOWN TIGHT ON LOCAL SALOON KEEPERS

Mayor Davidson Becomes Aroused Over Flagrant Violations of Laws.

DREADED SCREEN ORDINANCE

Is to Be Put Into Effect Next Monday and Enforced to the Letter.

SUNDAY SELLING MUST STOP

Police Given Rigid Instructions to Watch Saloon Doors—Mayor Declares He Has Been Imposed On. Liquor League Taking No Action.

Harrassed to an unbearable point by the boldness of a number of saloon keepers of the city who have, it is alleged, been conducting their places of business on the "wide open" plan in violation of the state laws and city ordinances, Mayor Davidson proposes to take immediate measures, in calling a halt and some lively doings may be looked for.

Not only is it the mayor's intention to compel a rigid compliance with the laws regarding Sunday selling, but commencing with Monday morning the screen ordinance, which has been keeping the liquor dealers on the anxious seat for some time, will go into effect.

This decision on the part of the city executive is final and the chief and all members of the police force were fully instructed today as to what shall be expected of them in seeing that the ordinance is carried out to the letter. The officers were not only informed that the screen order is to be enforced, but were given doubly rigid instructions to watch saloons on Sundays.

"I propose to stop Sunday selling," said the mayor today, "if I have to station an officer at the door of every saloon in town. The boldness of some of the keepers of these places has become the talk of the town, but it shall no longer be tolerated while I am the mayor of the city. The police have been given orders to exercise the utmost vigilance in keeping drunken men off the streets on Sundays, and even if it is necessary to enlarge the jail, every intoxicated man that can be found will be promptly locked up."

The mayor spoke in a manner that left no doubt he meant to do as he said, and there is every reason to believe that saloon keepers who have shown a disposition to take advantage of him will be made to suffer unless their illegal practices are immediately stopped. Information that has recently come to the mayor from reliable citizens regarding the violations of the Sunday law has aroused him to action. He was not aware of these violations until informed of them, and much of the criticism that has been made by different citizens who have intimated that he was negligent in the performance of his duty was, therefore, wrongly placed.

"I am ever ready to carry out to the fullest limit what I am sworn to do," said the mayor, "but illegal practices of which I have no knowledge cannot justly be attributable to any failure in the line of duty on my part. However, I am now fully aware that many of the saloon keepers have been imposing on me, and I most certainly propose to call them to a speedy account."

It is indicative by the stand taken by Mayor Davidson that the saloon men have no one to blame but themselves for the enforcement of the much-dreaded screen ordinance. It is not only the intention to compel a removal of the screens from windows, but those back of the doors will also have to come down. Frosted glass and fancy painted windows must give way to plain ones, so that an unobstructed view of the interior may be had from the streets.

From October 1 to April 1 the screens must be removed at 9 o'clock p. m., city time, and remain down until 7 a. m. From April 1 to October 1 the hours regulating the screens are from 10 o'clock p. m., city time, to 7 a. m. The two-room and one-door clauses which were originally appended to the ordinance are not in force, having been declared illegal by the courts.

It had almost become a settled fact in the minds of the liquor dealers

that Mayor Davidson proposed to allow the screen law to fall by the wayside, but he says he will enforce it until it is either repealed or declared invalid.

Whether or not the liquor league will fight the measure is not definitely known at the present time. The matter was left in the hands of a committee at a recent meeting of the league, but as there was no indication that the ordinance was to go into effect the committee has as yet taken no action.

NARROW ESCAPE

PASSENGERS ON A CALCUTTA ROAD CAR SCARED.

A Brake Broke, But Motorman's Presence of Mind Prevented Accident.

The car on the Calcutta road line had another narrow escape this morning, and only for the coolness of Motorman Humble a terrible accident would doubtless have happened.

While descending the hill at a point near Wall street, the brake broke and the car started down the incline at great speed. Without losing his presence of mind the motorman brought the emergency brake into use and after much difficulty got the car under control.

Seventeen passengers were aboard at the time and all were badly frightened.

KILLED BY A TRAIN

FRANKLIN SQUARE MAN MET DEATH AT SALEM.

Was Badly Mangled and Survived His Injuries Four Hours.

Salem, December 14.—(Special)—John Greenawalt, 21 years old, living with his parents at Franklin Square, was trying to board a moving freight train here last night, when he fell and was badly mangled.

One leg was cut off, the other badly shattered and his head was cut and bruised. He died about four hours later.

BOLD ROBBERIES

HAVE AROUSED THE POLICE OFFICIALS OF THE STATE.

Chief Thompson Will Attend a Big Meeting at Columbus Next Month.

Mayor Julius Fleischmann and Chief of Police Dietrich, of Cincinnati, are at the head of a scheme to organize the marshals and chiefs of police of all Ohio towns and cities for the purpose of driving out robbers who have been operating in all parts of the state recently.

Chief Dietrich claims to have worked out a plan that will successfully thwart burglars and cracksmen and has called a meeting of all heads of police departments which will be held in Columbus some time next month.

The scheme is much favored by Mayor Davidson and it is the intention of the chief to attend the meeting.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER

The Verdict Against Leroy Evans, Who Killed Harry McGee.

Beaver, December 14.—The jury in the case of Leroy Evans, colored, on trial here before Judge J. Sharp Wilson for the murder of Harry W. McGee, at Bridgewater, November 24, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Supreme President Coming.

An important meeting of Stratton Lodge No. 40, Protected Home Circle, will be held next Thursday evening, December 19, at 8 o'clock, at the Supreme Hall, 111 E. C. Hall, of Sharon, will be present and deliver an address. The meeting will be held in Y. M. C. A. hall and promises to be well attended.

Taken to the Reformatory.

Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—T. S. Baker, guard of the Mansfield reformatory, conveyed David Howard and Newell Buzzard to that institution today. Howard is from Salem and is sentenced for larceny. Buzzard, from East Liverpool, sentenced for stealing a horse and buggy at Damascus.

KILNMEN'S UNION IS GROWING FAST

Interesting Meeting Held and Officers For Another Year Elected.

THE HOLIDAY SHUT DOWN

Will Be a Brief One at Most of the Local Plants—The Brotherhood And K. of L. Controversy—Interesting News From the Potteries.

The meeting of No. 9, kilnmen, held last evening, was the most interesting held by that organization in several years. The attendance was unusually large, showing that the interest is on the increase. Five applications for membership were received, coming from decorating kiln firemen and potters. Every workman in East Liverpool engaged in the kiln department is now affiliated with No. 9, and the organization has now turned its attention to the decorating kilnmen. It is safe to say this latter trade will have been gathered into the fold by the first of the year, at which time the initiation fee is to be increased 100 per cent.

Preparations are now under way for the smoker which the members of No. 9 propose to hold next Friday night. The regular business meeting will start at 7 o'clock sharp in order that the order of business may be gone through in time to begin the program at 8 o'clock. An effort is being made to eclipse all previous attempts in the way of social functions among the Brotherhood locals, and from present indications it will be successful. The smoker will be attended by the members and their friends.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. S. Coleman; vice president, Reuben Densmore; recording secretary, George Smith; corresponding secretary, C. C. Smith; financial secretary, T. H. Hodge; defense fund secretary, John Salling; treasurer, James Jamison; statistician, John T. Wood; inspector, John Mitchell; guard, Harvey Hayes; trustee, William Cuthbert.

At the meeting of the United States manufacturers, held at Pittsburgh this week, President C. H. Cook was interviewed with reference to the effect, if any, of the fight between the N. B. of O. P. and the K. of L. would have upon the industry in his locality. The gentleman stated that so far as the manufacturers were concerned very little attention was being paid to the fight. He said:

"When the attempt was made to enforce the uniform scale in our locality the eastern manufacturers gave the Brotherhood all the encouragement that lay in their power. Owing to the feeling against the organization on the part of a great many of the operatives, the effort was a failure, and with that all obligations which we might have owed the Brotherhood ceased. As to the seceders and their attempt to strengthen the K. of L. in the east I know very little. No, I was not aware that they contemplated enforcing an independent scale. It is doubtful if the manufacturers will take the matter seriously."

Local Union No. 52 at Ford City has elected the following officers, a number of whom are well known here: President, Reuben H. Smith; vice president, Edward Smock; recording secretary, John E. Martin; financial secretary, Ellis Shaw; one per cent secretary, M. E. Hagen; treasurer, John Hooen; inspector, Alfred Summers; guard, Alex. Black; trustee, William Jilney.

Local Union No. 52 at its last meeting.

Continued on Eighth Page.

HIS SECOND TERM AS A PRISONER

Thomas Rollins Goes to the Ohio Penitentiary For Two Years.

HE CUT A LISBON MAN

Pronounced Guilty By the Jury—In Toxication His Only Excuse—Once Before Sent Up for Connection With a Manslaughter Case.

Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—Thomas Rollins, colored, will serve two years in the Ohio penitentiary at hard labor. On October 6 Rollins, after having had trouble at the Lisbon opera house, started for home. On his way he encountered Dallas Morrison, with whom he was not on good terms. Without a word Rollins slashed at Morrison, grazing his side and back. Striking again with some sharp instrument, probably a knife, he cut a gash about three inches long from Morrison's left eye toward and a little above his ear.

Judge Wells, counsel for Rollins, appointed by Judge Hole, had very little ground on which to base an argument for the prisoner and devoted most of his attention to the liquor, which, he said, caused Rollins to become so violent. Rollins' testimony put the amount of whisky drunk at four glasses. The indictment was on two counts, one cutting with intent to kill, and the other, cutting with intent to wound.

Judge Hole charged the jury that the testimony proved Rollins' guilt and it remained only for the jury to say what was his intent. The jury was out only 25 minutes and found Rollins guilty of cutting with intent to kill. There was some surprise when the sentence was fixed at two years, as Rollins has served one term in the penitentiary. Some time ago he caused the death of a man named Sweet in a quarrel in Lisbon.

Rollins has more than an ordinary education. He draws a pension of $24 a month, having served in the Tenth United States cavalry.

HIS SUIT FAILED

Joseph Baughman's Futile Effort to Recover Value of a Lost Horse.

Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—The suit brought by Joseph Baughman, of Sallenville, against the Big Vein Coal company has been decided in favor of the defendant. Baughman and his son on July 3 last lost a horse while working for the company. In driving across the creek below the company's dam, an unusually strong current, due to recent rains, overcame the team and one horse was drowned. The plaintiff alleged that the dam broke at the west end. The defendant answered that the dam did not break at all and has not since broken. Baughman was accused of drunkenness on that day. The suit was for $300.

Rev. George Fowler, pastor of the Christian church of this city, who has served as a juror two days this week, was foreman of the jury which returned this verdict. Mr. Fowler is a Canadian, recently admitted to citizenship in this country.

DEPARTED FOR CANTON

Colonel Heistand Concluded His Visit in East Liverpool Today.

Colonel and Mrs. H. O. S. Heistand, of Washington, D. C., who have been the guests of Colonel and Mrs. John N. Taylor, departed this morning for Canton, where they will enjoy a brief sojourn and then proceed to Chicago. The officer is held in high esteem

DEATH HAS BROUGHT AN END TO A STRANGE LIFE-HISTORY

in military circles. He was inspector of volunteer troops during the Spanish war and inspected the Eighth Ohio, being largely instrumental in getting that regiment a new equipment of guns. He bore a distinguished part in China as General Chaffee's chief of staff.

Jeremiah E. Ormes, Born a Slave Once Worth a Large Fortune.

A PIONEER OIL OPERATOR

He Prospered Greatly Until He Lost Money By Over-Confidence.

HIS PARENTS ESCAPED SLAVERY

A Maryland Abolitionist Conveying Them to Beaver County Wilds via Underground Railroad—A Busy And Eventful Life Closed.

His Darling For Sure.

Miss Grace James was made the wife of Joseph Darling last evening by Justice McCarron. Both are from Steubenville.

ALL ARE IN EARNEST

PROTESTING TAXPAYERS' PLAN—NING REDRESS OF WRONGS.

Meeting Was Not Held Last Evening Owing to Absence of Mr. Brookes.

Prosecuting Attorney Jason H. Brookes was unable to dispose of his business at the county seat in time to reach this city last evening, and for that reason the meeting of taxpayers, which was scheduled for last night, was postponed until this evening.

Up to the very moment the word was received that Attorney Brookes could not be present last night, the leaders of the movement had been marshaling their forces and there would doubtless have been a very large attendance.

The idea now is to select representative property owners from among the dissatisfied ones and have them confer with Attorney Brookes tonight. The ground will be gone over and they will be made acquainted with the legal side of the question. It will be ascertained just how far the taxpayers can go, and what legal steps can be taken to right their wrongs.

That the chief agitators are thoroughly in earnest about the matter is evidenced by the deep interest being taken, and not a few have gone so far as to propose the circulation of a petition asking that council dismiss the entire equalizing board. If a sufficient number of signers can be secured there is no doubt the council will ask for the resignations of the members of the board. This would be one way to remedy the existing evils, they say, although it would afford no relief so far as this year's valuations are concerned.

MUMFORD-CORNS

A Wedding of Interest to Be Solemnized Next Tuesday Noon.

An event of Tuesday, December 17, will be the wedding of Mr. Albert Corns and Miss Clara Mumford. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's mother, on Second street, at high noon by Rev. Edwin Weary.

FELL DEAD IN A STORE

Young Man Died at Bayard While Lighting a Stogie.

John Shively, a young farmer living in Jefferson county, dropped dead yesterday afternoon in a grocery store at Bayard. Death was evidently due to heart trouble for upon entering the store he was apparently in the best of health. He was lighting a stogie when stricken down.

TAKEN TO JAIL

William Cox, Accused of Killing Enos Brains, Is a Prisoner.

Washingtonville, December 14.—William Cox, accused of the murder of Enos Brains, has been taken to the Mahoning county jail.

Reese Cured Him Quickly.

Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—Commissioner Bowman accompanied his grandson, Fred Bowman, to Youngstown to consult "Bonesetter" Reese. Fred had suffered a severe dislocation of the arm while working in Cleveland shops. Reese restored the arm to its proper place.

Wound May Be Serious.

Ira Finley is confined to his home as the result of an accident Thursday afternoon. He is an employee of the George F. Brunt company, and while at work in the stock room stepped on a rusty nail. The nail went through the foot and the wound may prove serious.

With the death of Jeremiah E. Ormes, who died last evening about 8 o'clock at his home, 282 Center alley, the curtain was rung down on a remarkable career. Mr. Ormes was born a slave on a Maryland plantation May 11, 1837, but when a year old was stolen with his parents and two brothers by John Whalen, a radical abolitionist, who ran a wagonmaker's shop at Fredericktown, Md.

Whalen was an uncle of their master, and by an "underground slave route" smuggled the colored family to Pittsburg, Pa. He pretended to people that they were his slaves, but on reaching Brush Run, in Beaver county, Pa., the family's freedom was recognized.

The family cleared the virgin timber for a farm at that place.

Jeremiah Ormes was an energetic and brilliant young man. When steam boating was in its palmy days he became a familiar figure on the river as a fireman and cook. Soon after the discovery of oil he took an interest in its development, witnessing men gathering the crude petroleum by laying flannel cloths on the water.

Mr. Ormes formed a partnership with another riverman and the two men piled up a good fortune for each. Mr. Ormes became worth over $100,000. They drilled several wells in Warrick, Spring Run and large flowing wells on Silver Ridge in 1866. They worked the Smith's Ferry territory when that field became a sensation in oil development.

The deceased, it is said, lost the bulk of his fortune by over-confidence in a rascally partner, whose bogus bookkeeping was Mr. Ormes' undoing. He persevered at his old vocation as an oil driller, working for the Economy Gas company from 1874 to 1877. There was oil excitement at Beaver Falls, but that vicinity failed to produce much of the coveted fluid. One well was sunk in the town, and put by Mr. Ormes to a depth of over 3,000 feet—being the deepest hole ever sunk in the field.

The deceased worked about Fairview, Pa., for various persons and firms as a driller, but about seven years ago fell from a barn on the Hummel farm, sustaining injuries that led ultimately to his death. His spine was hurt and paresis set in so that the closing years of his life were a blank.

For two years he has resided with his family in East Liverpool. A widow and three sons, Augustus Lincoln, George Wilson and William Pinkerton Ormes, survive. The father had his children carefully educated and was generally esteemed for his own traits of industry and honesty. He was a member of the A. M. E. church of New Brighton, Pa.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a. m. tomorrow from the residence of Rev. John Mason. The remains will be interred in the Ohioville cemetery of Beaver county, Pa.

SHOT BY A TRAMP

Niles, Chief of Police Seriously Wounded By a Vagrant.

Niles, December 14.—A tramp called at the home of Chief of Police Neithemier yesterday afternoon and demanded something to eat. The chief, who answered his knock, remonstrated with him for calling in an intoxicated condition, when, suddenly, the tramp pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot Neithemier, the bullet entering his side. The tramp then escaped.

The chief of police is in a critical condition.

SCREWS COMING DOWN TIGHT ON LOCAL SALOON KEEPERS

Mayor Davidson Becomes Anxious Over Niggard Warnings of Liquor.

DREADED SCREEN ORDINANCE

Is to Be Put Into Effect Next Monday and Enforced to the Letter.

SUNDAY SELLING MUST STOP

Police Given Rigid Instructions to Watch Saloon Doors—Mayor Declares He Has Been Imposed On, Liquor League Taking No Action.

Harrassed to an unbearable point by the boldness of a number of saloon keepers of the city who have, it is alleged, been conducting their places of business on the "wide open" plan in violation of the state laws and city ordinances, Mayor Davidson proposes to take immediate measures in calling a halt and some lively doings may be looked for.

Not only is it the mayor's intention to compel a rigid compliance with the laws regarding Sunday selling, but commencing with Monday morning the screen ordinance, which has been keeping the liquor dealers on the anxious seat for some time, will go into effect.

This decision on the part of the city executive is final and the chief and all members of the police force were fully instructed today as to what shall be expected of them in seeing that the ordinance is carried out to the letter. The officers were not only informed that the screen order is to be enforced, but were given doubly rigid instructions to watch saloons on Sundays.

"I propose to stop Sunday selling," said the mayor today, "if I have to station an officer at the door of every saloon in town. The boldness of some of the keepers of these places has become the talk of the town, but it shall no longer be tolerated while I am the mayor of the city. The police have been given orders to exercise the utmost vigilance in keeping drunken men off the streets on Sundays, and even if it is necessary to enlarge the jail, every intoxicated man that can be found will be promptly locked up."

The mayor spoke in a manner that left no doubt he meant to do as he said, and there is every reason to believe that saloon keepers who have shown a disposition to take advantage of him will be made to suffer unless their illegal practices are immediately stopped. Information that has recently come to the mayor from reliable citizens regarding the violations of the Sunday law has aroused him to action. He was not aware of these violations until informed of them, and much of the criticism that has been made by different citizens who have intimated that he was negligent in the performance of his duty was, therefore, wrongly placed.

"I am ever ready to carry out to the fullest limit what I am sworn to do," said the mayor, "but illegal practices of which I have no knowledge cannot justly be attributable to any failure in the line of duty on my part. However, I am now fully aware that many of the saloon keepers have been imposing on me, and I most certainly propose to call them to a speedy account."

It is indicative by the stand taken by Mayor Davidson that the saloon men have no one to blame but themselves for the enforcement of the much-dreaded screen ordinance. It is not only the intention to compel a removal of the screens from windows, but those back of the doors will also have to come down. Frosted glass and fancy painted windows must give way to plain ones, so that an unobstructed view of the interior may be had from the streets.

From October 1 to April 1 the screens must be removed at 9 o'clock p. m., city time, and remain down until 7 a. m. From April 1 to October 1 the hours regulating the screens are from 10 o'clock p. m., city time, to 7 a. m. The two-room and one-door classes which were originally appended to the ordinance are not in force, having been declared illegal by the courts.

It had almost become a settled fact in the minds of the liquor dealers

that Mayor Davidson proposed to allow the screen law to fall by the wayside, but he says he will enforce it until it is either repealed or declared invalid.

Whether or not the liquor league will fight the measure is not definitely known at the present time. The matter was left in the hands of a committee at a recent meeting of the league, but there was no indication that the ordinance was to go into effect the committee has as yet taken no action.

NARROW ESCAPE

PASSENGERS ON A CALCUTTA ROAD CAR SCARED.

A Brake Broke, But Motorman's Presence of Mind Prevented Accident.

The car on the Calcutta road line had another narrow escape this morning, and only for the coolness of Motorman Humble a terrible accident would doubtless have happened.

While descending the hill at a point near Wall street, the brake broke, and the car started down the incline at great speed. Without losing his presence of mind the motorman brought the emergency brake into use and after much difficulty got the car under control.

Seventeen passengers were aboard at the time and all were badly frightened.

KILLED BY A TRAIN

FRANKLIN SQUARE MAN MET DEATH AT SALEM.

Was Badly Mangled And Survived His Injuries Four Hours.

Salem, December 14.—(Special)—John Greenwalt, 21 years old, living with his parents at Franklin Square, was trying to board a moving freight train here last night, when he fell and was badly mangled.

One leg was cut off, the other badly shattered and his head was cut and bruised. He died about four hours later.

BOLD ROBBERIES

HAVE AROUSED THE POLICE OFFICIALS OF THE STATE.

Chief Thompson Will Attend a Big Meeting at Columbus Next Month.

Mayor Julius Fleischmann and Chief of Police Dietrich, of Cincinnati, are at the head of a scheme to organize the marshals and chiefs of police of all Ohio towns and cities for the purpose of driving out robbers who have been operating in all parts of the state recently.

Chief Dietrich claims to have worked out a plan that will successfully thwart burglars and cracksmen and has called a meeting of all heads of police departments which will be held in Columbus some time next month.

The scheme is much favored by Mayor Davidson and it is the intention of the chief to attend the meeting.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER

The Verdict Against Leroy Evans, Who Killed Harry McGee.

Beaver, December 14.—The jury in the case of Leroy Evans, colored, on trial here before Judge J. Sharp Wilson for the murder of Harry W. McGee, at Bridgewater, November 24, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Supreme President Coming. An important meeting of Stratton, Ohio No. 40, Protected Home Circle, will be held next Thursday evening.

Supreme President M. C. Hall, of Sharon, will be present and deliver an address. The meeting will be held in Y. M. C. A. hall and promises to be well attended.

Taken to the Reformatory.

Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—T. S. Baker, guard of the Mansfield reformatory, conveyed David Howard and Newell Buzzard to that institution today. Howard is from Salem and is sentenced for larceny. Buzzard, from East Liverpool, sentenced for stealing a horse and buggy at Damascus.

KILNMEN'S UNION IS GROWING FAST

Interesting Meeting Held and Officers For Another Year Elected.

THE HOLIDAY SHUT DOWN

Will Be a Brief One at Most of the Local Plants—The Brotherhood And K. of L. Controversy—Interesting News From the Potteries.

The meeting of No. 9, Kilnmen, held last evening, was the most interesting held by that organization in several years. The attendance was unusually large, showing that the interest is on the increase. Five applications for membership were received, coming from decorating kiln firemen and potters. Every workman in East Liverpool engaged in the kiln department is now affiliated with No. 9, and the organization has now turned its attention to the decorating kilnmen. It is safe to say this latter trade will have been gathered into the fold by the first of the year, at which time the initiation fee is to be increased 100 per cent.

Preparations are now under way for the smoker which the members of No. 9 propose to hold next Friday night. The regular business meeting will start at 7 o'clock sharp in order that the order of business may be gone through in time to begin the program at 8 o'clock. An effort is being made to eclipse all previous attempts in the way of social functions among the Brotherhood locals, and from present indications it will be successful. The smoker will be attended by the members and their friends.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. S. Coleman; vice president, Reuben Densmore; recording secretary, George Smith; corresponding secretary, C. C. Smith; financial secretary, T. H. Hodge; defense fund secretary, John Salling; treasurer, James Jamison; statistician, John T. Wood; inspector, John Mitchell; guard, Harvey Hayes; trustee, William Cuthbert.

At the meeting of the United States manufacturers, held at Pittsburg this week, President C. H. Cook was interviewed with reference to the effect, if any, of the fight between the N. B. of O. P. and the K. of L. would have upon the industry in his locality. The gentleman stated that so far as the manufacturers were concerned very little attention was being paid to the fight. He said:

"When the attempt was made to enforce the uniform scale in our locality the eastern manufacturers gave the Brotherhood all the encouragement that lay in their power. Owing to the feeling against the organization on the part of a great many of the operatives, the effort was a failure, and with that all obligations which we might have owed the Brotherhood ceased. As to the seceders and their attempt to strengthen the K. of L. in the east I know very little. No, I was not aware that they contemplated enforcing an independent scale. It is doubtful if the manufacturers will take the matter seriously."

Local Union No. 52 at Ford City has elected the following officers, a number of whom are well known here: President, Reuben H. Smith; vice president, Edward Smock; recording secretary, John E. Martin; financial secretary, Ellis Shaw; one per cent secretary, M. E. Hagen; treasurer, John Hooven; inspector, Alfred Summers; guard, Alex. Black; trustee, William Jinney.

Local Union No. 52 at its last meeting.

Continued on Eighth Page.

AN ANONYMOUS WRITER TRIES TO MAKE TROUBLE

Great indignation prevails among the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. P. church because of the contemptible work on the part of an unknown person whose purpose, it is believed, is to create trouble with a view to breaking up the society.

Several of the members are in receipt of anonymous letters and though every effort is being made to detect the writer, who is thought to be a woman, not the least clue leading to her identity can be found. Almost a dozen persons have received the letters, all of whom are prominent and respectable citizens.

Husbands as well as wives have received letters, all breathing a spirit of jealousy and some of a scandalous nature. The object appears to be to break up the society and homes. One lady read her letter to the society, and it was then discovered others had received similar ones. Every effort is being made to run down the author.

HIS SECOND TERM AS A PRISONER

Thomas Rollins Goes to the Ohio Penitentiary For Two Years.

HE CUT A LISBON MAN

Pronounced Guilty By the Jury—Intoxication His Only Excuse—Once Before Sent Up for Connection With a Manslaughter Case.

Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—Thomas Rollins, colored, will serve two years in the Ohio penitentiary at hard labor. On October 6 Rollins, after having had trouble at the Lisbon Opera house, started for home. On his way he encountered Dallas Morrison, with whom he was not on good terms. Without a word Rollins slashed at Morrison, grazing his side and back. Striking again with some sharp instrument, probably a knife, he cut a gash about three inches long from Morrison's left eye toward and a little above his ear.

Judge Wells, counsel for Rollins, appointed by Judge Hole, had very little ground on which to base an argument for the prisoner and devoted most of his attention to the liquor, which, he said, caused Rollins to become so violent. Rollins' testimony put the amount of whisky drunk at four glasses. The indictment was on two counts, one cutting with intent to kill, and the other, cutting with intent to wound.

Judge Hole charged the jury that the testimony proved Rollins' guilt, and it remained only for the jury to say what was his intent. The jury was out only 25 minutes and found Rollins guilty of cutting with intent to kill. There was some surprise when the sentence was fixed at two years, as Rollins has served one term in the penitentiary. Some time ago he caused the death of a man named Sweet in a quarrel in Lisbon.

Rollins has more than an ordinary education. He draws a pension of $24 a month, having served in the Tenth United States cavalry.

HIS SUIT FAILED

Joseph Baughman's Futile Effort to Recover Value of a Lost Horse.

Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—The suit brought by Joseph Baughman, of Sallenville, against the Big Vein Coal company has been decided in favor of the defendant. Baughman and his son on July 3 last lost a horse while working for the company. In driving across the creek below the company's dam, an unusually strong current, due to recent rains, overcame the team and one horse was drowned. The plaintiff alleged that the dam broke at the west end. The defendant answered that the dam did not break at all and has not since broken. Baughman was accused of drunkenness on that day. The suit was for $300.

Rev. George Fowler, pastor of the Christian church of this city, who has served as a juror two days this week, was foreman of the jury which returned this verdict. Mr. Fowler is a Canadian, recently admitted to citizenship in this country.

DEPARTED FOR CANTON

Colonel Heistand Concluded His Visit in East Liverpool Today.

Colonel and Mrs. H. O. S. Heistand, of Washington, D. C., who have been the guests of Colonel and Mrs. John N. Taylor, departed this morning for Canton, where they will enjoy a brief sojourn and then proceed to Chicago. The officer is held in high esteem

DEATH HAS BROUGHT AN END TO A STRANGE LIFE-HISTORY

In military circles. He was inspector of volunteer troops during the Spanish war and inspected the Mobil Ohio, being largely instrumental in getting that regiment a new equipment of guns. He bore a distinguished part in China as General Chaffee's chief of staff.

His Darling For Sure.

Miss Grace James was made the wife of Joseph Darling last evening by Justice McCarron. Both are from Steubenville.

ALL ARE IN EARNEST

PROTESTING TAXPAYERS' PLAN—NINE REDRESS OF WRONGS.

Meeting Was Not Held Last Evening Owing to Absence of Mr. Brookes.

Prosecuting Attorney Jason H. Brookes was unable to dispose of his business at the county seat in time to reach this city last evening, and for that reason the meeting of taxpayers, which was scheduled for last night, was postponed until this evening.

Up to the very moment the word was received that Attorney Brookes could not be present last night, the leaders of the movement had been marshaling their forces and there would doubtless have been a very large attendance.

The idea now is to select representative property owners from among the dissatisfied ones and have them confer with Attorney Brookes tonight. The ground will be gone over and they will be made acquainted with the legal side of the question. It will be ascertained just how far the taxpayers can go, and what legal steps can be taken to right their wrongs.

That the chief agitators are thoroughly in earnest about the matter is evidenced by the deep interest being taken, and not a few have gone so far as to propose the circulation of a petition asking that council dismiss the entire qualifying board. If a sufficient number of signers can be secured there is no doubt the council will ask for the resignations of the members of the board. This would be one way to remedy the existing evils, they say, although it would afford no relief so far as this year's valuations are concerned.

MUMFORD-CORNS

A Wedding of Interest to Be Solemnized Next Tuesday Noon.

An event of Tuesday, December 17, will be the wedding of Mr. Albert Corns and Miss Clara Mumford. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's mother, on Second street, at high noon by Rev. Edwin Weary.

FELL DEAD IN A STORE

Young Man Died at Bayard While Lighting a Stogie.

John Shively, a young farmer living in Jefferson county, dropped dead yesterday afternoon in a grocery store at Bayard. Death was evidently due to heart trouble for upon entering the store he was apparently in the best of health. He was lighting a stogie when stricken down.

TAKEN TO JAIL

William Cox, Accused of Killing Enos Brains, Is a Prisoner.

Washingtonville, December 14.—William Cox, accused of the murder of Enos Brains, has been taken to the Mahoning county jail.

Reese Cured Him Quickly. Lisbon, December 14.—(Special)—Commissioner Bowman accompanied his grandson, Fred Bowman, to Youngstown to consult "Bonesetter" Reese. Fred had suffered a severe dislocation of the arm while working in Cleveland shops. Reese restored the arm to its proper place.

Wound May Be Serious. Ira Finley is confined to his home as the result of an accident Thursday afternoon. He is an employee of the George F. Brunt company, and while at work in the stock room stepped on a rusty nail. The nail went through the foot and the wound may prove serious.

Jeremiah E. Ormes, Born a Slave Once Worth a Large Fortune.

A PIONEER OIL OPERATOR

He Prospered Greatly Until He Lost Money By Over-Confidence.

HIS PARENTS ESCAPED SLAVERY

A Maryland Abolitionist Conveying Them to Beaver County Wilds via Underground Railroad—A Busy And Eventful Life Closed.

With the death of Jeremiah E. Ormes, who died last evening about 8 o'clock at his home, 282 Center alley, the curtain was rung down on a remarkable career. Mr. Ormes was born a slave on a Maryland plantation May 11, 1837, but when a year old was stolen with his parents and two brothers by John Whalen, a radical abolitionist, who ran a wagonmaker's shop at Fredericktown, Md.

Whalen was an uncle of their master, and by an "underground slave route" smuggled the colored family to Pittsburg, Pa. He pretended to people that they were his slaves, but on reaching Brush Run, in Beaver county, Pa., the family's freedom was recognized.

The family cleared the virgin timber for a farm at that place.

Jeremiah Ormes was an energetic and brilliant young man. When steam boating was in its palmy days he became a familiar figure on the river as a fireman and cook. Soon after the discovery of oil he took an interest in its development, witnessing men gathering the crude petroleum by laying flannel cloths on the water.

Mr. Ormes formed a partnership with another riverman and the two men piled up a good fortune for each. Mr. Ormes became worth over $100,000. They drilled several wells in Warrick, Spring Run and large flowing wells on Silver Ridge in 1866. They worked the Smith's Ferry territory when that field became a sensation in oil development.

The deceased, it is said, lost the bulk of his fortune by over-confidence in a rascally partner, whose bogus bookkeeping was Mr. Ormes' undoing. He persevered at his old vocation as an oil driller, working for the Economy Gas company from 1874 to 1877. There was oil excitement at Beaver Falls, but that vicinity failed to produce much of the coveted fluid. One well was sunk in the town, and put by Mr. Ormes to a depth of over 3,000 feet—being the deepest hole ever sunk in the field.

The deceased worked about Fairview, Pa., for various persons and firms as a driller, but about seven years ago fell from a barn on the Hummel farm, sustaining injuries that led ultimately to his death. His spine was hurt and paresis set in so that the closing years of his life were a blank.

For two years he has resided with his family in East Liverpool. A widow and three sons, Augustus Lincoln, George Willson and William Pinkerton Ormes, survive. The father had his children carefully educated and was generally esteemed for his own traits of industry and honesty. He was a member of the A. M. E. church of New Brighton, Pa.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a. m. tomorrow from the residence of Rev. John Mason. The remains will be interred in the Ohioville cemetery of Beaver county, Pa.

SHOT BY A TRAMP

Niles, Chief of Police Seriously Wounded By a Vagrant.

Niles, December 14.—A tramp called at the home of Chief of Police Neithemier yesterday afternoon and demanded something to eat. The chief, who answered his knock, remonstrated with him for calling in an intoxicated condition, when, suddenly, the tramp pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot Neithemier, the bullet entering his side. The tramp then escaped.

The chief of police is in a critical condition.

STRANGE CAREER OF AN ABLE MAN

Dr. Howard, Who Has Been Lawyer, Minister, Editor and Convict.

OUT OF PRISON TO ANOTHER

Notorious on Both Sides of the Atlantic for His Swindling Operations—Kept Up His Nefarious Work While Posing as a Minister.

Columbus, Dec. 14.—(Special)—The board of penitentiary managers is holding its December session, and the most important matter before it has been the restoration of lost time to Rev. G. F. B. Howard, a federal prisoner from Tennessee, in order that he might be taken to Michigan to be tried for a crime committed when an escaped convict.

Rev. Dr. Howard is an educated man and has filled a number of pulpits in the south and is an attorney of more than ordinary ability. It is charged that he has swindled the people of several nations by claiming that they were heirs to large English estates.

Howard was convicted on some eight indictments for fraud and 22 or more for using the United States mails for fraudulent purposes.

Rev. Mr. Howard has a dozen aliases his present name being of the number. The victims of his swindling blandishments are scattered all over the country, one of them being Mr. Anton Pilger, a Columbus carpenter, who lives at 646 West Chapel street. He corresponded with Pilger under the name of William Lord Moore, giving his address as Shepherd's Bush, Ingersoll Road, London, England.

The celebrated convict is an Englishman, is about 48 years old, and is both a Baptist minister and a doctor of divinity, speaking a number of foreign languages and being generally well educated. His swindling consisted chiefly in conducting foreign estate claims business in Jackson, where he went under his present name. In New York and London he was E. Ross, Joseph Leger and William Lord Moore. He swindled people by getting them interested in his foreign estate business and by making them believe they were heirs to valuable lands, got their good money hand over fist.

He was once run out of London for swindling. Minister Robert T. Lincoln came near causing his arrest through a Scotland yard detective. He also narrowly escaped arrest in New York. He then went south and began plying his old trade, representing himself to be a railroad president. He made so much money at this that in an evil hour he went to the World's Fair and was there arrested on a telegram from Postoffice Inspector Little. He practiced law at one time in Georgia, and while so doing professed religion and joined church.

Howard moved at one time in the best social circles of Atlanta, and there he was married to Mrs. Burke, nee Cobbinness, a sister of Congressman Cobbinness and Editor Cobbinness of the Atlanta Journal. He there got into the ministry. He subsequently removed to Jackson, Tenn., and made several trips to Europe, all the time playing his nefarious trade. He continued his ministerial labors till 1891, when he went to New York ostensibly to practice law.

His trial consumed several weeks in the United States court, and it is claimed that his conviction cost the United States over $75,000. Howard was met at the prison door by Deputy Marshal Al Bauer, who escorted him to United States Commissioner Johnson's office and turned him over to Marshal Fagin. The marshal will escort him to Detroit, Mich., where he will be tried for using the mails with schemes to defraud. While in prison he edited the Penitentiary News.

DRILLING FOR OIL

Territory Near East Palestine Is Being Thoroughly Tested.

East Palestine, Dec. 14.—The oil territory in this section is going to be tested in the most thorough manner that cash and brains can develop it. Under the new management of C. E. Branner, of Zellenople, Pa., one of the strongest firms financially has taken up several leases in this section. They are drilling on the William Sheek farm about one and a half miles west.

Notice to the Public.

I, the undersigned, wish to publicly announce that after the legal publication of this notice, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Mabel Pickall.

143-3w JAMES F. PICKALL.

The News Review for all the news.

EAST END TO WIPE OUT DEBT

Second U. P. Church to Make Special Effort to Clear Off $1,400.

A congregational meeting was held last evening by the members of the Second United Presbyterian church, for the purpose of discussing the church debt which amounts to about $1,400. When the handsome brick edifice was completed several thousand has gradually become smaller, and an effort will be made to wipe out the $1,400.

A committee of five persons—three gentlemen and two ladies—was appointed to solicit subscriptions to go into the debt canceling funds. The Y. P. C. U. entertainment held Tuesday evening netted $31 and several other sums have been added lately to the treasury.

An unpleasant rumor that had its origin in a joke was recently started that the pastor, Rev. J. R. Greene, was about to tender his resignation. The relations of parson and flock have not been strained nor has any severing of the relationship been contemplated.

SCARLET FEVER

Its Presence in East End Families Causing Much Uneasiness.

The East End is much disturbed over the presence of scarlet fever. In the Douglass family in Dixonville, there are two children very sick with the malady. There is also a scarlet fever patient in the family of H. M. Beatty in Dixonville.

Every precaution is being taken by the physicians to hold the disease within bounds.

Permanent Cure Expected.

George McKinnon received a letter this morning from his son, Edgar McKinnon, who is at the Marion, O., sanitarium. He stated that he was improving from his locomotor ataxia ailment and believed that he would be permanently cured. The young man has been in poor health for several months.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Duane Rogers is afflicted with typhoid fever at his home near the flint mill.

A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bennett at their home on First avenue.

WHEELING TO FAIRPORT

A New Railroad Across Eastern Ohio Is Projected.

Cleveland, Dec. 14.—A syndicate of which Calvary Morris and Harry A. Garfield, of Cleveland, are the managers, has completed the details for the construction of a new coal road from Richmond, opposite Fairport, O., to Wheeling, W. Va.

The new road will be the consolidation of three existing roads, together with considerable new trackage. Large ore and coal docks will be constructed. The combined road will be known as the Lake Erie, Alliance and Wheeling, and will absorb the Alliance and Northern, the Ohio River and Lake Erie and the Cleveland and Wheeling. The new road will reach valuable coal lands.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of the disease is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. That remedy is used in this way by many thousands of mothers, and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon, and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop formation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad, with headaches and other aches. Your only need in few does of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Charles F. Craig's, Foutts Bldg., East Liverpool, O. Get Green's special almanac.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Places of Services and the Topics Which Will Be Discussed in Pulpits.

TIME OF SPECIAL MEETINGS

General Religious News of the City And Suburbs—A Conveniently Arranged Guide for Strangers And Those Interested in Churches.

It is the desire of the News Review to have this department, which is published every Saturday, complete and accurate. To that end the co-operation of pastors and church officers is invited. To insure publication, all notices intended for this department should reach this office by Friday evening.

Methodist Episcopal.

First M. E. church, Fifth and Jackson streets, Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor—9:30 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., preaching; 12 m., 2 p. m. and 6:15 p. m., class meetings; 4 p. m., Junior League; 6:15 Senior League.

Rev. Dr. W. F. Oldham, of Chicago, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. He is one of the ablest divines in the M. E. church. In the afternoon at 2:30 all the young people's societies of the city are invited to be present and hear an address by Dr. Oldham.

Sunday school at 2:30; preaching at 7:30 at Gardendale.

Erie Street M. E. church, Rev. George W. Orcutt, pastor: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; preaching, 11 a. m.; Junior Epworth League, 2 p. m.; S. S. Neville institute, 2:30 p. m.; Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.; evening service, 7:30.

A. M. E. church, Grant street, Rev. J. H. Mason, pastor.

No service in the morning. Sunday school at 2:30; preaching and communion at 3:30 p. m.; preaching at 7:30 by the presiding elder.

United Presbyterian.

First U. P. church, Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor—Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Second U. P. church, in the East End, Rev. J. R. Greene, pastor—Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

11 a. m., "The Roll Call of the Mighty."

7:30 p. m., "The Ones Left Out of the Parable of the Talents."

Southside U. P. chapel—Hour of service changed. Morning service, preaching, 11 a. m.; Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian church, Fourth street, between Washington and Market, Rev. C. G. Jordan, pastor—Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; Endeavor society at 6:15 p. m.; Junior C. E. at 3 p. m.

Special music.

Morning: "Suffering One of Man's Best Friends."

Evening: "Beware." The last of the series began some weeks ago.

West End chapel—John S. Hamilton, pastor—Sunday school at 3 p. m.; Sunday evening service.

Second Presbyterian church, Rev. N. M. Crowe, pastor—Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m.; Junior Society at 3 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.; preaching at 7:30 p. m.

11 a. m., "A Promise Broad Enough For All;" 7:30 p. m., "Times of Refreshing From the Presence of God."

Evangelical Lutheran.

St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor—Divine services in German at 10:30; in English at 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 2 p. m.

Advent services in German at 10:30 a. m.; in English at 7:30 p. m. Morning: "Blessed is he, whosever shall not be offended in Me;" evening: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

Sunday school and rehearsal of Christmas music at 2 p. m.; meeting of Luther society at 6:45 p. m.

Protestant Episcopal.

St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Rev. Edwin Weary, rector—Third Sunday in advent, 7:30 a. m., holy communion; 9:30 a. m., Sunday school and Bible class; 11 a. m., Morning prayer and sermon "Christ's Advent to the City;" 7:30 p. m., choral evensong and sermon "The Nation's Confession of Christ."

Catholic.

St. Aloysius' church, corner Fifth and Jefferson streets, Rev. T. M. Smyth, pastor; services at 8 a. m. and 10 a. m.

Baptist.

First Baptist church, Smith Fowler hall, Diamond, Oscar L. Owens, pastor—Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; morning service at 11 o'clock; B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.; evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

Morning: "The Office of Deacon." Evening: "Christ In Song and Prophecy," in series "The Man of Galilee."

Methodist Protestant.

First Methodist Protestant church, Rev. W. H. Gladden, pastor.

Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.; public worship, 11 a. m.; noonday class, 12; afternoon class, 2:15 p. m.; Junior Endeavor meeting, 3:30 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. prayer meeting, 6:15; evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Morning: "Strength Out of Weakness." Evening: "Is Jesus Model or Example."

Christian Church.

Christian church, corner Broadway and Fifth street, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, pastor—Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Bible school at 9:30 a. m.; Junior Endeavor at 2:30 p. m.; Senior Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Morning: "The Duty of Suffering Hardships in the Gospel."

Evening: The Christian Woman's board of missions will have charge of the evening service.

Free Methodist.

J. W. Howard, pastor—Preaching at 10:30 and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.

Chester Free Methodist.

Rev. Sarah E. Howard, pastor—Preaching at 10:45 and 7:30 p. m.

Salvation Army.

Hall on Fourth street, between Market and Jackson—10:30 holiness meeting; 1:30 Sunday school; 3:15 Hosanna; 7:45 Salvation.

WELLSVILLE CHURCHES.

Church of the Immaculate Conception—Rev. James H. Halligan, pastor. Daily mass at 7:45 a. m.; Sunday, first mass and sermon, 8 a. m.; Sunday school at 9 a. m.; high mass and sermon at 10 a. m.; vesper, sermon and benediction at 7 p. m. Rectory, Seventh and Front streets.

First Christian Church—Rev. W. T. Barnes, pastor. Preaching at 10:15 a. m., and 7 p. m. Bible school at 9 a. m. Junior Endeavor at 2 p. m. Christian Endeavor, 6 p. m. Wednesday evening, devotional service at 7 o'clock.

First M. E. Church—Rev. C. E. Clark, pastor. Bible school at 9 a. m.; W. A. Snediker, superintendent; preaching 10:15 and 7 p. m. Junior League at 2 p. m.; Epworth League at 6 p. m.

Protestant Episcopal—Church of the Ascension, Rev. R. H. Edwards, rector. C. W. Morris, superintendent of Sunday school. Sunday school at 9 o'clock; morning prayer at 10:15 o'clock; evening prayer with sermon at 8 o'clock.

First Presbyterian Church—Rev. D. Finley Laverty, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; church service at 10:45 a. m., and 7 p. m.; Jr. Y. P. S. C. E. at 4:30 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 p. m.

Second Presbyterian Church—Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.; preaching at 10:30 a. m., and 7 p. m.

Junior Endeavor 5 p. m.; Senior Endeavor 6 p. m.

United Presbyterian Church—Rev. W. M. Glasgow, pastor. Preaching 10 a. m., and 7 p. m., Sunday school at 11:15 usual program. Jr. C. E., at 5; Sr. C. E. at 6 p. m.

Methodist Protestant Church—Rev. L. C. Wells, pastor. Sunday school at 9 a. m.; preaching at 10:15 a. m., and 7 p. m.; Jr. Y. P. S. C. E. at 2 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 p. m.; mid-week prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

First Evangelical Church—Rev. W. A. Vandersall, pastor—Sabbath school at 9 a. m.; Sabbath school at mission at 2 p. m.; Young People's Alliance at 6:15 p. m. Gospel services at Mission every Friday night. Cottage prayer meeting every Monday night.

Fully Insured.

You and we are both insured against loss, for the manufacturers agree to refund the purchase price if you do not realize what they claim for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in cases of Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache or Stomach Troubles. Sold by W. & W. pharmacy.

To families—Never be without Moffat's Life Pills. They are warranted to cure sick headache which comes from a disordered stomach.

McGARRY'S Real Estate Agency

4 room cottage house in Edgewood, Sunnyside. Gas throughout the house. Water. Lot 45x92. A neat home. Price $1000.

5 room house on Fairview street. Gas and water in the house. A cheap home. Lot 40x90. Price $1250.

6 room new house on Michigan ave. near East End, near the Klondike Pottery. Lot 30x100. Price $1400.

6 room house at Ralston's Crossing. Water in house. Good cellar and in good repair. Lot 59 front by 110. Price $1600.

8 room double house on Pleasant street in a good location and will make a splendid investment. Is at present rented to two families. Price $1700.

5 room house on Pleasant street. House almost new. Water in house. A choice home. Price $1800.

5 room new house on Jennings avenue, located on street car line. Lot 34x102. Cistern on lot. A cheap home. Price $1600.

3 room cottage home on John street. Good cistern on lot. Lot 60x101. A cozy place and can be purchased on reasonable terms. Price $1000.

7 room house on Fifth street. Modern in every way. Bath room complete, hot and cold water, gas throughout the house. Good furnace in cellar. Cellar cemented. Porch on the front and rear of house. An elegant property. Choice place for a home. Price $2300.

8 room house on Seventh street with bath room fitted in modern up-to-date style. Inside closet. Gas throughout house. Hot and cold water. A number one cemented cellar. Good furnace. Street paved for sewer. Lot 27x130. It is a choice location and very desirable and gas in house. Good cellar with heater in same. A good home. Lot 30x70. Price $1900.

9 room house on Second street. Gas and water in house. Can be rented very conveniently to two families. Good cellar. Lot 30x130. Call and have us make you a price on this property.

7 room house with bath, hot and cold water upstairs and down, sewer, East End, near the Klondike Pottery. Lot 30x100. Price $1400.

6 room cottage house, good cellar, slate roof and in good repair. Situated on Oblique street, near West Market. Lot 60x97. Call and get price on this property.

6 room house on Bradshaw avenue. Good cellar under whole house. Fitted for gas throughout. Cabinet mantel in parlor. Front and back porch. Hot and cold water upstairs and down. Bath room fitted up with tub, wash stand and inside closet. Lot 30x100. A good home. Price $2500.

5 room house in Chester, situated on Indiana avenue, lot 40x140. Good cistern on lot. Gas in house. Good cellar. Will exchange for East Liverpool property. Price $1600.

7 room house on Penna avenue, East End. Bath fitted in modern style. Hot and cold water. Good cellar. Inside closet. Gas throughout. A beautiful home. Lot 35x100. Price $2300.

Good vacant lot on McKinnon avenue, in choice location. Size 52x73. Price $700.

12 room double house in West End. Gas and water in house. Rents for $26 per month. Lot 40x92. This is a splendid investment and would be glad to quote price to anyone looking for good property.

4 room house inside property. Water and gas in house. Good cellar with heater in same. A good home. Lot 30x70. Price $1900.

Office Open Evenings. Corner Fifth and Market Sts.

For the Little Folks

BROWNIE Cameras

$1 and $2.

LARKINS THE DRUG MAN.

Hot Air XXth Century Furnace

The Kind You Get From a Hot Air....

Is pure and good to breathe. A XXth Century FIRE POT is guaranteed for Five Years. Inquire about it at

ADAMS' HARDWARE,

218 Washington Street.

Special 10 Day DOLL SALE!

500 Dolls from 1c to $7.50. Your opportunity. Come this week while stock is full.

Kinsey's Wall Paper Store.

ICE ICE ICE

Have the best, let us serve you with Union Manufactured Ice.

Prompt attention to all orders.

The Crockery City Brewing Co.

FREE! * FREE! * FREE!

Free samples of home made Opera Carmels Saturday evening only.

Peanut and Cocomat Brittle, Strong Horehound Candy, Saturday only.....

7c lb.

GRAND OPENING OF HOLIDAY CANDIES. GIVE US A CALL.

GEM CANDY KITCHEN, 200 Market St.

STRANGE CAREER OF AN ABLE MAN

Dr. Howard, Who Has Been Lawyer, Minister, Editor and Convict.

OUT OF PRISON TO ANOTHER

Notorious on Both Sides of the Atlantic for His Swindling Operations—Kept Up His Nefarious Work While Posing as a Minister.

Columbus, Dec. 14.—(Special)—The board of penitentiary managers is holding its December session, and the most important matter before it has been the restoration of lost time to Rev. G. F. B. Howard, a federal prisoner from Tennessee, in order that he might be taken to Michigan to be tried for a crime committed when an escaped convict.

Rev. Dr. Howard is an educated man and has filled a number of pulpits in the south and is an attorney of more than ordinary ability. It is charged that he has swindled the people of several nations by claiming that they were heirs to large English estates.

Howard was convicted on some eight indictments for fraud and 22 or more for using the United States mails for fraudulent purposes.

Rev. Mr. Howard has a dozen aliases his present name being of the number. The victims of his swindling blandishments are scattered all over the country, one of them being Mr. Anton Pilger, a Columbus carpenter, who lives at 646 West Chapel street. He corresponded with Pilger under the name of William Lord Moore, giving his address as Shepherd's Bush, Ingersoll Road, London, England.

The celebrated convict is an Englishman, is about 48 years old, and is both a Baptist minister and a doctor of divinity, speaking a number of foreign languages and being generally well educated. His swindling consisted chiefly in conducting foreign estate claims business in Jackson, where he went under his present name. In New York and London he was E. Ross, Joseph Leger and William Lord Moore. He swindled people by getting them interested in his foreign estate business and by making them believe they were heirs to valuable lands, got their good money hand over fist.

He was once run out of London for swindling. Minister Robert T. Lincoln came near causing his arrest through a Scotland yard detective. He also narrowly escaped arrest in New York. He then went south and began plying his old trade, representing himself to be a railroad president. He made so much money at this that in an evil hour he went to the World's Fair and was there arrested on a telegram from Postoffice Inspector Little. He practiced law at one time in Georgia, and while so doing professed religion and joined church.

Howard moved at one time in the best social circles of Atlanta, and there he was married to Mrs. Burke, nee Cobbinness, a sister of Congressman Cobbinness and Editor Cobbinness of the Atlanta Journal. He there got into the ministry. He subsequently removed to Jackson, Tenn., and made several trips to Europe, all the time plying his nefarious trade. He continued his ministerial labors till 1891, when he went to New York ostensibly to practice law.

His trial consumed several weeks in the United States court, and it is claimed that his conviction cost the United States over $75,000. Howard was met at the prison door by Deputy Marshal Al Bauer, who escorted him to United States Commissioner Johnson's office and turned him over to Marshal Fagin. The marshal will escort him to Detroit, Mich., where he will be tried for using the mails with schemes to defraud. While in prison he edited the Penitentiary News.

DRILLING FOR OIL

Territory Near East Palestine Is to Be Thoroughly Tested.

East Palestine, Dec. 14.—The oil territory in this section is going to be tested in the most thorough manner that cash and brains can develop it. Under the new management of C. E. Branner, of Zellenople, Pa., one of the strongest firms financially has taken up several leases in this section. They are drilling on the William Sheek farm about one and a half miles west.

Notice to the Public.

I, the undersigned, wish to publicly announce that after the legal publication of this notice, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Mabel Pickall.

JAMES F. PICKALL.

The News Review for all the news.

EAST END

TO WIPE OUT DEBT

Second U. P. Church to Make Special Effort to Clear Off $1,400.

A congregational meeting was held last evening by the members of the Second United Presbyterian church, for the purpose of discussing the church debt which amounts to about $1,400. When the handsome brick edifice was completed several thousand has gradually become smaller, and an effort will be made to wipe out the $1,400.

A committee of five persons—three gentlemen and two ladies—was appointed to solicit subscriptions to go into the debt canceling funds. The Y. P. C. U. entertainment held Tuesday evening netted $31 and several other sums have been added lately to the treasury.

An unpleasant rumor that had its origin in a joke was recently started that the pastor, Rev. J. R. Greene, was about to tender his resignation. The relations of parson and flock have not been strained nor has any severing of the relationship been contemplated.

SCARLET FEVER

Its Presence in East End Families Causing Much Uneasiness.

The East End is much disturbed over the presence of scarlet fever. In the Douglass family in Dixonville, there are two children very sick with the malady. There is also a scarlet fever patient in the family of H. M. Beatty in Dixonville.

Every precaution is being taken by the physicians to hold the disease within bounds.

Permanent Cure Expected.

George McKinnon received a letter this morning from his son, Edgar McKinnon, who is at the Marion, O., sanitarium. He stated that he was improving from his locomotor ataxia ailment and believed that he would be permanently cured. The young man has been in poor health for several months.

EAST-END AFFAIRS.

Duane Rogers is afflicted with typhoid fever at his home near the flint mill.

A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bennett at their home on First avenue.

WHEELING TO FAIRPORT

A New Railroad Across Eastern Ohio Is Projected.

Cleveland, Dec. 14.—A syndicate of which Calvary Morris and Harry A. Garfield, of Cleveland, are the managers, has completed the details for the construction of a new coal road from Richmond, opposite Fairport, O., to Wheeling, W. Va.

The new road will be the consolidation of three existing roads, together with considerable new trackage. Large ore and coal docks will be constructed. The combined road will be known as the Lake Erie, Alliance and Wheeling, and will absorb the Alliance and Northern, the Ohio River and Lake Erie and the Cleveland and Wheeling. The new road will reach valuable coal lands.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of the disease is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. That remedy is used in this way by many thousands of mothers, and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon, and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop formation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad, with headaches and other aches. Your only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Charles F. Craig's, Foutts Bldg., East Liverpool, O.

Get Green's special almanac.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Places of Services and the Topics Which Will Be Discussed in Pulpits.

TIME OF SPECIAL MEETINGS

General Religious News of the City And Suburbs—A Conveniently Arranged Guide for Strangers And Those Interested in Churches.

It is the desire of the News Review to have this department, which is published every Saturday, complete and accurate. To that end the co-operation of pastors and church officers is invited. To insure publication, all notices intended for this department should reach this office by Friday evening.

Methodist Episcopal.

First M. E. church, Fifth and Jackson streets, Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor—9:30 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., preaching; 12 m., 2 p. m. and 6:15 p. m., class meetings; 4 p. m., Junior League; 6:15 Senior League.

Rev. Dr. W. F. Oldham, of Chicago, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. He is one of the ablest divines in the M. E. church. In the afternoon at 2:30 all the young people's societies of the city are invited to be present and hear an address by Dr. Oldham.

Sunday school at 2:30; preaching at 7:30 at Gardendale.

Erie Street M. E. church, Rev. George W. Orcutt, pastor: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; preaching, 11 a. m.; Junior Epworth League, 2 p. m.; S. S. Neville institute, 2:30 p. m.; Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.; evening service, 7:30.

A. M. E. church, Grant street, Rev. J. H. Mason, pastor.

No service in the morning. Sunday school at 2:30; preaching and communion at 3:30 p. m.; preaching at 7:30 by the presiding elder.

United Presbyterian.

First U. P. church, Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor—Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Second U. P. church, in the East End, Rev. J. R. Greene, pastor—Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

11 a. m., "The Roll Call of the Mighties."

7:30 p. m., "The Ones Left Out of the Parable of the Talents."

Southside U. P. chapel—Hour of service changed. Morning service, preaching, 11 a. m.; Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian church, Fourth street, between Washington and Market, Rev. C. G. Jordan, pastor—Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; Endeavor society at 6:15 p. m.; Junior C. E. at 3 p. m.

Special music.

Morning: "Suffering One of Man's Best Friends."

Evening: "Beware." The last of the series began some weeks ago.

West End chapel—John S. Hamilton, pastor—Sunday school at 3 p. m.; Sunday evening service.

Second Presbyterian church, Rev. N. M. Crowe, pastor—Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m.; Junior Society at 3 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.; preaching at 7:30 p. m.

11 a. m., "A Promise Broad Enough For All;" 7:30 p. m., "Times of Refreshing From the Presence of God."

Evangelical Lutheran.

St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor—Divine services in German at 10:30; in English at 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 2 p. m.

Advent services in German at 10:30 a. m.; in English at 7:30 p. m. Morning: "Blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in Me;" evening: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

Sunday school and rehearsal of Christmas music at 2 p. m.; meeting of Luther society at 6:45 p. m.

Protestant Episcopal.

St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Rev. Edwin Weary, rector—Third Sunday in advent, 7:30 a. m., holy communion; 9:30 a. m., Sunday school and Bible class; 11 a. m., Morning prayer and sermon "Christ's Advent to the City;" 7:30 p. m., choral evensong and sermon "The Nation's Confession of Christ."

Catholic.

St. Aloysius' church, corner Fifth and Jefferson streets, Rev. T. M. Smyth, pastor; services at 8 a. m. and 10 a. m.

Baptist.

First Baptist church, Smith Fowler hall, Diamond, Oscar L. Owens, pastor—Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; morning service at 11 o'clock; B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.; evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

Morning: "The Office of Deacon." Evening: "Christ In Song and Prophecy," in series "The Man of Galilee."

Methodist Protestant.

First Methodist Protestant church, Rev. W. H. Gladden, pastor.

Sunday school 9:30 a. m.; public worship, 11 a. m.; noonday class, 12; afternoon class, 2:15 p. m.; Junior Endeavor meeting, 3:30 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. prayer meeting, 6:15; evening service, 7:30 p. m.

Morning: "Strength Out of Weakness." Evening: "Is Jesus Model or Example."

Christian Church.

Christian church, corner Broadway and Fifth street, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, pastor—Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Bible school at 9:30 a. m.; Junior Endeavor at 2:30 p. m.; Senior Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Morning: "The Duty of Suffering Hardships in the Gospel."

Evening: The Christian Woman's board of missions will have charge of the evening service.

Free Methodist.

J. W. Howard, pastor—Preaching at 10:30 and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.

Chester Free Methodist.

Rev. Sarah E. Howard, pastor—Preaching at 10:45 and 7:30 p. m.

Salvation Army.

Hall on Fourth street, between Market and Jackson—10:30 holiness meeting; 1:30 Sunday school; 3:15 Hosanna; 7:45 Salvation.

WELLSVILLE CHURCHES.

Church of the Immaculate Conception—Rev. James H. Halligan, pastor. Daily mass at 7:45 a. m.; Sunday, first mass and sermon, 8 a. m.; Sunday school at 9 a. m.; high mass and sermon at 10 a. m.; vespers, sermon and benediction at 7 p. m. Rectory, Seventh and Front streets.

First Christian Church—Rev. W. T. Barnes, pastor. Preaching at 10:15 a. m., and 7 p. m. Bible school at 9 a. m. Junior Endeavor at 2 p. m. Christian Endeavor, 6 p. m. Wednesday evening, devotional service at 7 o'clock.

First M. E. Church—Rev. C. E. Clark, pastor, Bible school at 9 a. m.; W. A. Snediker, superintendent; preaching 10:15 and 7 p. m. Junior League at 2 p. m.; Epworth League at 6 p. m.

Protestant Episcopal—Church of the Ascension, Rev. R. H. Edwards, rector. C. W. Morris, superintendent of Sunday school. Sunday school at 9 o'clock; morning prayer at 10:15 o'clock; evening prayer with sermon at 8 o'clock.

First Presbyterian Church—Rev. D. Finley Lavery, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; church service at 10:45 a. m., and 7 p. m.; Jr. Y. P. S. C. E. at 4:30 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 p. m.

Second Presbyterian Church—Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.; preaching at 10:30 a. m., and 7 p. m.

Junior Endeavor 5 p. m.; Senior Endeavor 6 p. m.

United Presbyterian Church—Rev. W. M. Glasgow, pastor. Preaching 10 a. m., and 7 p. m., Sunday school at 11:15 usual program. Jr. C. E., at 5; Sr. C. E. at 6 p. m.

Methodist Protestant Church—Rev. L. C. Wells, pastor. Sunday school at 9 a. m.; preaching at 10:15 a. m., and 7 p. m.; Jr. Y. P. S. C. E. at 2 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 p. m.; mid-week prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

First Evangelical Church—Rev. W. A. Vandersall, pastor—Sabbath school at 9 a. m.; Sabbath school at mission at 2 p. m.; Young People's Alliance at 6:15 p. m. Gospel services at Mission every Friday night. Cottage prayer meeting every Monday night.

Fully Insured.

You and we are both insured against loss, for the manufacturers agree to refund the purchase price if you do not realize what they claim for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in cases of Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache or Stomach Troubles. Sold by W. & W. pharmacy.

To families—Never be without Moffat's Life Pills. They are warranted to cure sick headache which comes from a disordered stomach.

McGARRY'S Real Estate Agency

4 room cottage house in Edgewood, Sunnyside. Gas throughout the house. Water. Lot 45x92. A neat home. Price $1000.

5 room house on Fairview street. Gas and water in the house. A cheap home. Lot 40x90. Price $1250.

6 room new house on Michigan ave. near East End, near the Klondike Pottery. Lot 30x100. Price $1400.

6 room house at Ralston's Crossing. Water in house. Good cellar and in good repair. Lot 59 front by 110. Price $1600.

8 room double house on Pleasant street in a good location and will make a splendid investment. Is at present rented to two families. Price $1700.

5 room house on Pleasant street house almost new. Water in house. A choice home. Price $1800.

5 room new house on Jennings avenue, located on street car line. Lot 34x102. Cistern on lot. A cheap home. Price $1600.

3 room cottage home on John street. Good cistern on lot. Lot 60x101. A cozy place and can be purchased on reasonable terms. Price $1000.

7 room house on Fifth street. Modern in every way. Bath room complete, hot and cold water, gas throughout the house. Good furnace in cellar. Cellar cemented. Porch on the front and rear of house. An elegant property. Choice place for a home. Price $3200.

8 room house on Seventh street with bath room fitted in modern up-to-date style. Inside closet. Gas throughout house. Hot and cold water. A number one cemented cellar. Good furnace. Street paved and sewer. Lot 27x130. It is a choice location and very desirable property. Ask for the particulars on this property at our office.

9 room house on Second street. Gas and water in house. Can be rented very conveniently to two families. Good cellar. Lot 30x130. Call and have us make you a price on this property.

7 room house with bath, hot and cold water upstairs and down, sewer. Gas throughout the house. Good cellar under whole house. Also a 3 room cottage house, good cellar, slate roof and in good repair. Situated on Oblique street, near West Market. Lot 60x97. Call and get price on this property.

6 room house on Bradshaw avenue. Good cellar under whole house. Fitted for gas throughout. Cabinet mantel in parlor. Front and back porch. Hot and cold water upstairs and down. Bath room fitted up with tub, wash stand and inside closet. Lot 30x100. A good home. Price $2500.

5 room house in Chester, situated on Indiana avenue, lot 40x140. Good cistern on lot. Gas in house. Good cellar. Will exchange for East Liverpool property. Price $1600.

7 room house on Penna avenue, East End. Bath fitted in modern style. Hot and cold water. Good cellar. Inside closet. Gas throughout. A beautiful home. Lot 35x100. Price $3000.

Good vacant lot on McKinnon avenue, in choice location. Size 52x73. Price $700.

12 room double house in West End. Gas and water in house. Rents for $26 per month. Lot 40x92. This is a splendid investment and would be glad to quote price to anyone looking for good property.

4 room house inside property. Water and gas in house. Good cellar with heater in same. A good home. Lot 30x70. Price $1900.

Office Open Evenings. Corner Fifth and Market Sts.

For the Little Folks

BROWNIE Cameras

#1 and #2.

LARKINS THE DRUG MAN.

Hot Air XXth Century Furnace

The Kind You Get From a Hot Air....

Is pure and good to breathe. A XXth Century FIRE POT is guaranteed for Five Years. Inquire about it at

ADAMS' HARDWARE,

218 Washington Street.

Special 10 Day DOLL SALE!

500 Dolls from 1c to $7.50. Your opportunity. Come this week while stock is full.

Kinsey's Wall Paper Store.

ICE ICE ICE

Have the best, let us serve you with Union Manufactured Ice.

Prompt attention to all orders.

The Crockery City Brewing Co.

FREE! FREE! FREE!

Free samples of home made Opera Carmels Saturday evening only.

Peanut and Coconut Brittle, Strong Horehound Candy, Saturday only.....

7c lb.

GRAND OPENING OF HOLIDAY CANDIES. GIVE US A CALL.

GEM CANDY KITCHEN, 200 Market St.

DEWEY BACKS SCHLEY

The Other Officers of the Court of Inquiry Condemn Him.

NEITHER CHARGE COWARDICE.

Two Reports Made—Further Action Not to Be Taken—Secretary Long May Merely Sign the Reports. Schley Apparently Satisfied.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The report of the Schley court of inquiry was promulgated by Secretary Long last night. There are two reports. Admirals Benham and Ramsey concur in the first, which is signed by Admiral Dewey also as a matter of form. Admiral Dewey makes a separate report, although he agrees with the findings of facts subscribed to by the others. The majority report condemns Admiral Schley on 11 points, while Admiral Dewey sustains him in most particulars. The majority opinion finds in brief that Admiral Schley should have proceeded with the utmost dispatch to Cienfuegos and maintain a close blockade; that he should have endeavored to have obtained information of the Spanish squadron there; that he should not have made the retrograde movement; that he should have obeyed the department's orders; that he should have endeavored to capture the Spanish vessels in Santiago; that he did not do his utmost to destroy the Colon; that he caused the squadron to lose distance in the loop of the Brooklyn; that he thereby caused the Texas to back; that he did injustice to Hodgson; that his conduct in the campaign was characterized by vacillation, dilatoriness, lack of enterprise; that his official reports on the coal supply were misleading and inaccurate; that his conduct during the battle was self-possessed, and that he encouraged in his own person his subordinate officers and men.

Dewey Upholds Schley.

Admiral Dewey in his report says that the passage to Cienfuegos was made with all dispatch; that in view of his coal supply the blockade of Cienfuegos was effective; that he allowed the Adula to enter Cienfuegos to get information; that his passage to Santiago was with as much dispatch as possible, keeping the squadron together; that the blockade of Santiago was effective, and, finally, that he was the senior officer off Santiago, in absolute command, and entitled to the credit due for the glorious victory which resulted in the total destruction of the Spanish ships.

Both reports are signed by George Dewey, president, and by Samuel C. Lemley as judge advocate. This is a form said to be recognized in all courts of inquiry, the signatures of the other members not being necessary. But it is explained that Admiral Dewey signed the second report, a minority report, to express his qualification of or dissent from the views expressed by the court, comprising, beside himself, Admirals Benham and Ramsay, in the first report.

It is said at the navy department that there will be no further proceedings in this celebrated case on the department's initiative. Secretary Long and Judge Advocate Lemley positively decline to discuss the findings in any phase. The secretary received the reports about 5 o'clock last evening and last night he had not yet acted upon them. It is probable that he will simply append his signature, with the word "approved," to the whole record. The court itself recommends no further proceedings, owing to the lapse of time.

A representative of the Associated Press conveyed the first intimation of the findings of the court to Admiral Schley. He was seated in the public reception room of a hotel, chatting with friends and several newspaper men, and evinced no signs of nervousness over the outcome.

Schley Showed Pleasure.

When the conclusions of Admiral Dewey were read to him Admiral Schley showed his pleasure, and it was evident from his manner that he regarded the statement from Admiral Dewey as a vindication of his cause.

Men Happier Than Women

By Mme. SARAH GRAND

AN, AS A RULE, IS HAPPIER THAN WOMAN. HE UNDERSTANDS BETTER HOW TO ENJOY LIFE AND IS LESS GIVEN TO THE HABIT OF WORRYING. It is a mistake to think that the women have any sort of a monopoly of this world's happiness.

In the average normal human being the chances of being happy far outweigh the chances of being unhappy. The great pleasures, it is true, are rare, but there are many minor happinesses that in the aggregate make up a pleasant life.

No one, no matter how cynical he may be, can be absolutely unhappy. Even if he chooses to be miserable he is happy in the exercise of that choice. The greatest reason for unhappiness lies in the indifference to the happiness of others. Every one possesses the power to be disagreeable, but the ability to charm cannot be put on and off like a garment.

PEOPLE WHO WOULD BE HAPPY SHOULD CULTIVATE REGULAR HABITS OF WORK AND PLAY. RESTLESSNESS IS A GREAT CAUSE OF MISERY. SOME WOMEN TRY TO RID THEMSELVES OF THIS UNPLEASANT AFFLICTION BY PLUNGING INTO POLITICS; OTHERS RELY UPON CIGARETTES. WORK AND CARE FOR THE HAPPINESS OF OTHERS ARE THE ONLY REAL WAY OUT OF THE DIFFICULTY.

Happiness is very much a matter of discipline. It may be likened to a fragrant flower that only blooms under careful cultivation.

He declined to make any statement concerning the court's findings, and excusing himself from the little company which had gathered about him, went to his apartments, where Mrs. Schley had been anxiously awaiting to hear the court's decision. Later the official copy was brought to the hotel by a messenger from the navy department.

Admiral Dewey was seen last night and declined to make any statement concerning the court's findings. He said that the court was not dissolved and that he was still bound to his oath of secrecy.

BUSINESS WAS NOT INJURED.

Vagaries of Speculation Not Always Deleterious—Some Points of Dun's Review.

New York, Dec. 14.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

It is most fortunate that the vagaries of speculation are not always deleterious to legitimate business. Railway stocks fell sharply, yet full returns for November show that earnings were 11.5 per cent greater than in the same month last year, and 18.1 per cent over those of 1899. Industrial and traction shares were even more violently disturbed, yet the manufacturing plants of the nation were never more fully occupied. Numerous labor controversies have been settled, and the rate of wages is at the highest point ever attained. Retail distribution is of massive proportions, with dealings in holiday goods the conspicuous feature. This class of business so far surpasses all previous records that it alone gives an unmistakable indication of the nation's prosperity, even if other more definite measures were not available.

Conditions Strikingly Promising.

Conditions in the leading industry are still most strikingly promising. Despite the full engagement of most of the steel mills well into next year, the week has brought a large amount of new business, particularly in railway equipment. Stability of prices continues the best feature, inflation being wisely prevented by controlling interests. Reports from the great iron centers during the closing week of November dwell on the scarcity of cars and motive power, implying that furnaces could not secure coke and were going out of blast, while pig iron could not be moved from the yards to the mill. Hence, it was generally expected that the output would show a material decrease, while furnace stocks of iron were thought to be somewhat augmented. Instead, the Iron Age has issued a most encouraging report of 266 furnaces in blast on Dec. 1, with a capacity of 324,761 tons weekly. Thus a new record was attained under circumstances which appeared anything but propitious. It must be appreciated, however, that since the month opened there has been more interruption, and the present rate of yield is probably much lighter. Furnace stocks of pig iron decreased 49,789 tons during November, to only 223,402 tons.

Wool is readily taken at unchanged prices. Mills here are busy and fall lines of overcoatings have opened satisfactorily.

Conditions of Corn and Wheat.

Western grain producers and dealers have expressed great faith in the future of prices, many announcing their intention to hold their supplies until spring, when the scarcity would be marked and quotations reach a more profitable point. Speculative operators, as usual, anticipated this tendency of legitimate business and inaugurated a vigorous campaign. The upward movement of option prices culminated on Monday, when May deliveries at this city commanded 88 1/2 cents. Exports of wheat, including flour, from all parts of the United States, were 8,663,611 bushels during the last two weeks, against 7,517,205 last year, and 7,362,279 two years ago. Fancy prices have not yet materially restricted foreign buying, but there is evidence that western holders are being tempted to part with their supplies; in two weeks interior receipts have been 14,787,817 bushels, against 10,844,834 bushels last year and 8,925,725 bushels two years ago. Corn at 73 1/2 was a new high point for nearly a decade, exceeding the price a year ago by 60 per cent, and approaching close to the quotation commanded by wheat last year, when the yield was short. Naturally, exports are insignificant, from Atlantic ports for two weeks amounting to but 856,018 bushels, against 10,499,661 bushels last year.

Failures for the week numbered 273 in the United States, against 240 last year, and 17 in Canada, against 25 last year.

STOCKS SCORED RECOVERY.

Closing Steady, Fraction Below Top Level, Friday.

New York, Dec. 14.—Stocks scored quite a notable recovery in Friday's market. The market was very irregular during the early portion of the day and distinctly weak in spots. This was due to the residue of uneasiness coming over from Thursday's events, and the fear that money stringency would develop during the day incident to the carrying over of loans until Monday. Borrowers on call paid as high as 8 1/2 per cent early in the day, but they had no difficulty in obtaining accommodations at the prevailing rates. There was no further calling of loans by the banks or forcing of liquidation in consequence, as was the case Thursday. The call loan rate yielded as the larger demands were satisfied and fell below 6 per cent at the close. Perceiving the course things were taking, the bears began to buy to cover their short contracts, which had been considerably extended in Thursday's decline. There was some buying also by inside interests in the various stocks, especially during the morning, for the purpose of support. Under these influences prices began to recover and touched the high level of the day during the afternoon. This level was not fully maintained, but the closing was steady and dull and only a fraction below the top level.

Bonds were irregular and only moderately active. Total sales, par value, $2,935,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Considered Carnegie's Offer.

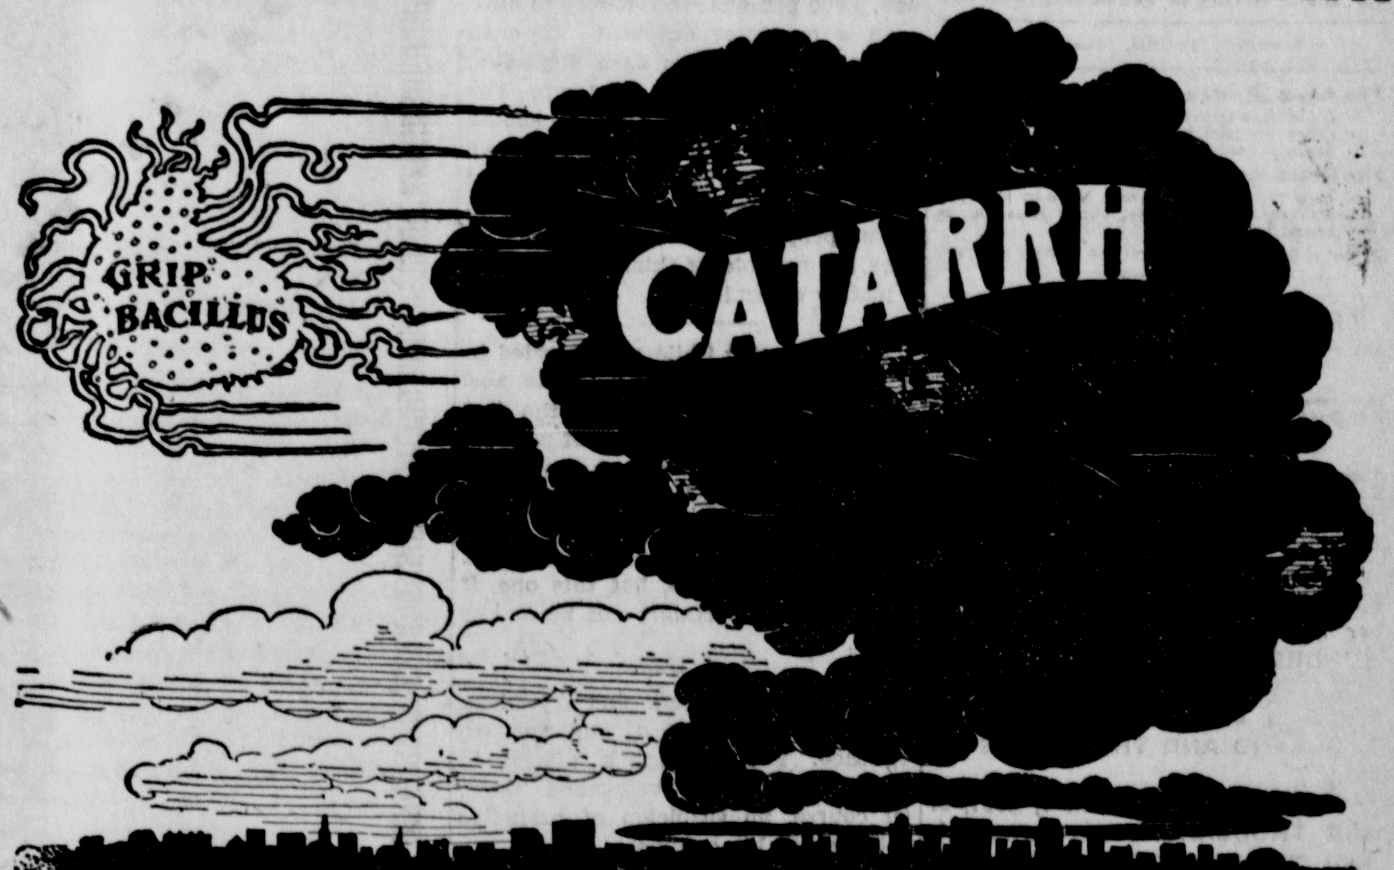

Washington, Dec. 14.—The acceptance of Mr. Andrew Carnegie's gift of $10,000,000 for educational purposes was discussed informally at the cabinet meeting, but no definite conclusion was reached in regard to it, and probably will not be for several days. Other matters were considered.

Celery.

To revive limp celery, put it into boiling water for a second or so and then into a bowl of cold water, allowing the water to run on it for some time. This will make it quite fresh and crisp for the table.

What Disease Produces Most Misery. If the amount of misery caused by different diseases could be estimated it would be found the portion caused by headache would outweigh any other, and perhaps equal all combined. Immediate relief is afforded by Clinie Headache Wafers, perfectly safe, easily taken and do not depress. 10 cents at all druggists.

AFTER THE GRIP COMES CATARRH.

LIKE A TERRIBLE CYCLONE grip bacillus has passed over our country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, leaving behind it a dark cloud of anguish and despair.

Catarrh follows grip as effect follows cause.

A multitude of catarrh victims will spring up in the trail of the awful epidemic of grip that has just passed over our fair country.

The hope to these people is Peruna. Most people know this already.

Everyone who has had the least touch of grip, should not fail to take a course of treatment with Peruna.

Peruna eradicates every vestige of the disease and leaves the system in a normal condition.

Hon. Joseph B. Crowley, Congressman from Illinois, writes from the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"After giving Peruna a fair trial I can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with coughs, colds, la grippe and all catarrhal complaints."—J. B. Crowley.

Hon. George H. White, Congressman from North Carolina, writes:

"I am more than satisfied with Peruna, and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family, and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."—George H. White.

Hon. J. P. McGrew, Superintendent U. S. Capital Police Force, of Washington, D. C., says:

"Having suffered from the grip, I was advised by a friend to use your Peruna.

I also used it for my catarrh, and I can now cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone who is suffering from the grip and catarrh."—J. P. McGrew.

Miss Anna Russell, Past Worthy Counselor, Loyd Mystic Legion, 203 Endicott Building, St. Paul, Minn., writes:

"For years I have unfortunately found my system in a peculiarly receptive condition for catarrh when I was exposed in any way to inclement weather. At those times I would be severely afflicted with la grippe and its unpleasant consequences.

"Now for the past year and a half I have used Peruna in such cases and have found that it not only cures me quickly, but it also cleanses my blood and renders me less liable to catch cold. It is the finest preventative of colds that I know of and a very superior tonic."—Anna Russell.

Miss Emily Milburne, President of the Westside Young Woman's Club, No. 152 West Congress street, Chicago, Ill., writes of several members of the club of which she is president, who have had the Grip and have been quickly restored to health by Peruna.

Mr. Nicolas F. Rossiter, of 463 Norwood avenue, Cleveland, O., had a severe attack of the Grip, was very sick and under the physician's care. He, like many others, passed the acute stage but did not receive strength. Peruna not only quickly restored him to his former health, but to much better health than he has had for years. He gives Peruna all the praise.

Hon. Max J. Forges, Alderman of the Eighth District, residing at 36 Rivington street, New York, suffered with the Grip. Two bottles of Peruna cured him. He also writes that he knows a large number of people who have been cured of the Grip by Peruna.

Hon. Charles W. Calkin, Alderman of the Seventh Assembly District of the Borough of Manhattan, residing at 45 Eighth avenue, New York, writes that he was laid up several days with the Grip. On the fifth day he was advised to try Peruna. He did so and found himself better within twenty-four hours. This remedy soon restored him to his usual vigorous health.

Mr. Martin Edwards, President of the County Clare Men's Benefit Society, 622 West Forty-Ninth street, New York, writes that he was cured of the Grip by a short course of treatment with Peruna.

Miss Blanche Dumont, President of the Athenia Club, 4110 Aldrich avenue North, Camden Place, Minneapolis, Minn., says she was cured of the Grip. Nothing helped her until she tried Peruna. Felt better next day after beginning its use. Was able to be out of bed the third day. She also tells of others who were cured by Peruna.

La Grippe is epidemic catarrh. Peruna cures catarrh, hence Peruna is a specific for la grippe.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

John M. Welker, formerly of Salem, is dead at Gardner, Kan.

Allen E. Albright has been reappointed postmaster at Sebring. His salary is now $1,500.

Edward Bonstall, aged 87, died at his home near New Albany, O. He was a prominent Quaker.

Joseph Bentley, of Beaver Falls, 60 years old, was assaulted by a burglar and had his nose and ankle broken.

Newton L. Ingledue, of Salem, has been bound over to the grand jury on a charge of assault and battery on his wife.

A Lorain and Wheeling passenger train at Bridgeport struck a buggy, fatally injuring Mrs. Thomas Goff and hurting her children.

The right of way has been secured by the Stark County Electric Railway company for the projected line between Canton and Alliance.

Rolla Hawkins, of Newton Falls, indicted of second degree murder for shooting his wife, who was faithless, pleaded guilty to manslaughter.

Milo Wagner, aged 57, a well known railroad man and a veteran of the civil war, is dead at his home in Alliance. Paralysis was the cause.

William Pastors, of Wayne township, Jefferson county, 78 years old, died at the Jefferson county infirmary, where he had been for 23 years.

Dora Milton, aged 15, took poison at Canton because her mother scolded her. A doctor saved the girl's life with the aid of a stomach pump.

While companions were fooling with a revolver at McKee's Rocks, George Devanney, of New Brighton, a P. & L. E. brakeman, was shot and seriously wounded.

The Alliance board of trade expects to land a newly incorporated manufacturing plant with a capital of $200,000. Heavy machinery will be made by the concern.

A large amount of heavy ship timber is being loaded on Erie cars at Lisbon to be shipped to England. It will be used in the construction of war ships. The timber was cut in this county.

Cracksmen blew open the safe in the office of the Massillon Paper company, but secured only $5 in change. They also broke into the flour mill of Warwick & Justus, but secured nothing of value.

The stock in Salem township which was bitten by a mad dog that made a raid in that section three weeks ago, is beginning to show symptoms of rabies and a sheep belonging to Martin Farmer has died of the disease.

Circled Eyes.

Dark circles under the eyes are often produced by an insufficiency of sleep.

Teing.

Teing may be whitened by the use of lemon juice, given a pink tint by using strawberry or cranberry juice or yellow by using the grated rind of an orange strained through a cloth.

The First Directory.

Philadelphia was the first city to issue a directory, its first edition coming out in the year 1785.

Calcutta University.

The University of Calcutta is said to be the largest educational corporation in the world. Every year it examines over 10,000 students.

Sensitive.

A country postman in Belgium was so overcome with grief and shame at missing the mail train that he went straight from the station to the nearest water and drowned himself.

THE OHIO VALLEY BUSINESS COLLEGE

A PROFESSIONAL PENMAN of 14 years experience gives instruction in Penmanship. Students receive

Individual Instruction in Arithmetic and other Common Branches

Large classes in Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting and Rapid Calculations are in attendance.

If you want a practical education attend the

OHIO VALLEY BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Day and Night Sessions. East Liverpool, O. Bell Phone 160-1. Col. Co. Phone 176.

PIANOS

The man that has had the experience knows what he is selling much better than the man that is buying. We know from experience that we have some of the best Pianos made and sell them at the lowest possible price.

GABLER

New York. OUR PRICE—Cash or Easy Payments.

The Smith & Phillips Music Co., East Liverpool, Ohio.

Call and see our stock of Gablers, Sohmer, Briggs, Behning, Colby, etc.

He Doesn't Forget the Horse

In his rounds at Christmas time. Ready to supply anything in the line of

Harness, Whips, Robes, Blankets, Brushes, Storm Covers,

and many other articles that only need to be seen to be fully appreciated.

A. TROTTER & SON,

East Market Street. East Liverpool, Ohio.

MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS

They overcome Weakness, irregularity and omissions, increase vigor and banish "pains of menstruation." They are "LIFE SAVERS" to girls at womanhood, aiding development of organs and body. No known remedy for women equals them. Cannot do harm—life becomes a pleasure. $1.00 PER BOX BY MAIL. Sold by druggists. DR. MOTT'S CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio. Sold by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and W. & W. Pharmacy.

DEWEY BACKS SCHLEY

The Other Officers of the Court of Inquiry Condemn Him.

NEITHER CHARGE COWARDICE.

Two Reports Made—Further Action Not to Be Taken—Secretary Long May Merely Sign the Reports. Schley Apparently Satisfied.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The report of the Schley court of inquiry was promulgated by Secretary Long last night. There are two reports. Admirals Benham and Ramsey concur in the first, which is signed by Admiral Dewey also as a matter of form. Admiral Dewey makes a separate report, although he agrees with the findings of facts subscribed to by the others. The majority report condemns Admiral Schley on 11 points, while Admiral Dewey sustains him in most particulars. The majority opinion finds in brief that Admiral Schley should have proceeded with the utmost dispatch to Cienfuegos and maintain a close blockade; that he should have endeavored to have obtained information of the Spanish squadron there; that he should not have made the retrograde movement; that he should have obeyed the department's orders; that he should have endeavored to capture the Spanish vessels in Santiago; that he did not do his utmost to destroy the Colon; that he caused the squadron to lose distance in the loop of the Brooklyn; that he thereby caused the Texas to back; that he did injustice to Hodgson; that his conduct in the campaign was characterized by vacillation, dilatoriness, lack of enterprise; that his official reports on the coal supply were misleading and inaccurate; that his conduct during the battle was self-possessed, and that he encouraged in his own person his subordinate officers and men.

Dewey Upholds Schley.

Admiral Dewey in his report says that the passage to Cienfuegos was made with all dispatch; that in view of his coal supply the blockade of Cienfuegos was effective; that he allowed the Audula to enter Cienfuegos to get information; that his passage to Santiago was with as much dispatch as possible, keeping the squadron together; that the blockade of Santiago was effective, and, finally, that he was the senior officer off Santiago, in absolute command, and entitled to the credit due for the glorious victory which resulted in the total destruction of the Spanish ships.

Both reports are signed by George Dewey, president, and by Samuel C. Lemley as judge advocate. This is a form said to be recognized in all courts of inquiry, the signatures of the other members not being necessary. But it is explained that Admiral Dewey signed the second report, a minority report, to express his qualification of or dissent from the views expressed by the court, comprising, beside himself, Admirals Benham and Ramsay, in the first report. It is said at the navy department that there will be no further proceedings in this celebrated case on the department's initiative. Secretary Long and Judge Advocate Lemley positively decline to discuss the findings in any phase. The secretary received the reports about 5 o'clock last evening and last night he had not yet acted upon them. It is probable that he will simply append his signature, with the word "approved," to the whole record. The court itself recommends no further proceedings, owing to the lapse of time.

A representative of the Associated Press conveyed the first intimation of the findings of the court to Admiral Schley. He was seated in the public reception room of a hotel, chatting with friends and several newspaper men, and evinced no signs of nervousness over the outcome.

Schley Showed Pleasure.

When the conclusions of Admiral Dewey were read to him Admiral Schley showed his pleasure, and it was evident from his manner that he regarded the statement from Admiral Dewey as a vindication of his cause.

Men Happier Than Women

By Mme. SARAH GRAND

AN, AS A RULE, IS HAPPIER THAN WOMAN. HE UNDERSTANDS BETTER HOW TO ENJOY LIFE AND IS LESS GIVEN TO THE HABIT OF WORRYING. It is a mistake to think that the women have any sort of a monopoly of this world's happiness.

In the average normal human being the chances of being happy far outweigh the chances of being unhappy. The great pleasures, it is true, are rare, but there are many minor happinesses that in the aggregate make up a pleasant life.

No one, no matter how cynical he may be, can be absolutely unhappy. Even if he chooses to be miserable he is happy in the exercise of that choice. The greatest reason for unhappiness lies in the indifference to the happiness of others. Every one possesses the power to be disagreeable, but the ability to charm cannot be put on and off like a garment.

PEOPLE WHO WOULD BE HAPPY SHOULD CULTIVATE REGULAR HABITS OF WORK AND PLAY. RESTLESSNESS IS A GREAT CAUSE OF MISERY. SOME WOMEN TRY TO RID THEMSELVES OF THIS UNPLEASANT AFFLICTION BY PLUNGING INTO POLITICS; OTHERS RELY UPON CIGARETTES. WORK AND CARE FOR THE HAPPINESS OF OTHERS ARE THE ONLY REAL WAY OUT OF THE DIFFICULTY.

Happiness is very much a matter of discipline. It may be likened to a fragrant flower that only blooms under careful cultivation.

He declined to make any statement concerning the court's findings, and excusing himself from the little company which had gathered about him, went to his apartments, where Mrs. Schley had been anxiously awaiting to hear the court's decision. Later the official copy was brought to the hotel by a messenger from the navy department.

Admiral Dewey was seen last night and declined to make any statement concerning the court's findings. He said that the court was not dissolved and that he was still bound to his oath of secrecy.

BUSINESS WAS NOT INJURED.

Vagaries of Speculation Not Always Deleterious—Some Points of Dun's Review.

New York, Dec. 14.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

It is most fortunate that the vagaries of speculation are not always deleterious to legitimate business. Railway stocks fell sharply, yet full returns for November show that earnings were 11.5 per cent greater than in the same month last year, and 18.1 per cent over those of 1899. Industrial and traction shares were even more violently disturbed, yet the manufacturing plants of the nation were never more fully occupied. Numerous labor controversies have been settled, and the rate of wages is at the highest point ever attained. Retail distribution is of massive proportions, with dealings in holiday goods the conspicuous feature. This class of business so far surpasses all previous records that it alone gives an unmistakable indication of the nation's prosperity, even if other more definite measures were not available.

Conditions Strikingly Promising.

Conditions in the leading industry are still most strikingly promising. Despite the full engagement of most of the steel mills well into next year, the week has brought a large amount of new business, particularly in railway equipment. Stability of prices continues the best feature, inflation being wisely prevented by controlling interests. Reports from the great iron centers during the closing week of November dwell on the scarcity of cars and motive power, implying that furnaces could not secure coke and were going out of blast, while pig iron could not be moved from the yards to the mill. Hence, it was generally expected that the output would show a material decrease, while furnace stocks of iron were thought to be somewhat augmented. Instead, the Iron Age has issued a most encouraging report of 266 furnaces in blast on Dec. 1, with a capacity of 324,761 tons weekly. Thus a new record was attained under circumstances which appeared anything but propitious. It must be appreciated, however, that since the month opened there has been more interruption, and the present rate of yield is probably much lighter. Furnace stocks of pig iron decreased 49,789 tons during November, to only 223,402 tons.

Wool is readily taken at unchanged prices. Mills here are busy and fall lines of overcoatings have opened satisfactorily.

Conditions of Corn and Wheat.

Western grain producers and dealers have expressed great faith in the future of prices, many announcing their intention to hold their supplies until spring, when the scarcity would be marked and quotations reach a more profitable point. Speculative operators, as usual, anticipated this tendency of legitimate business and inaugurated a vigorous campaign. The upward movement of option prices culminated on Monday, when May deliveries at this city commanded 88 1/2 cents. Exports of wheat, including flour, from all parts of the United States, were 8,663,611 bushels during the last two weeks, against 7,517,205 last year, and 7,362,279 two years ago. Fancy prices have not yet materially restricted foreign buying, but there is evidence that western holders are being tempted to part with their supplies; in two weeks interior receipts have been 14,787,817 bushels, against 10,844,834 bushels last year and 8,925,725 bushels two years ago. Corn at 7 1/2 was a new high point for nearly a decade, exceeding the price a year ago by 60 per cent, and approaching close to the quotation commanded by wheat last year, when the yield was short. Naturally, exports are insignificant, from Atlantic ports for two weeks amounting to but 856,018 bushels, against 10,499,661 bushels last year.

Failures for the week numbered 272 in the United States, against 240 last year, and 17 in Canada, against 25 last year.

STOCKS SCORED RECOVERY.

Closing Steady, Fraction Below Top Level, Friday.

New York, Dec. 14.—Stocks scored quite a notable recovery in Friday's market. The market was very irregular during the early portion of the day and distinctly weak in spots. This was due to the residue of uneasiness coming over from Thursday's events, and the fear that money stringency would develop during the day incident to the carrying over of loans until Monday. Borrowers on call paid as high as 8 1/2 per cent early in the day, but they had no difficulty in obtaining accommodations at the prevailing rates. There was no further calling of loans by the banks or forcing of liquidation in consequence, as was the case Thursday. The call loan rate yielded as the larger demands were satisfied and fell below 6 per cent at the close. Perceiving the course things were taking, the bears began to buy to cover their short contracts, which had been considerably extended in Thursday's decline. There was some buying also by inside interests in the various stocks, especially during the morning, for the purpose of support. Under these influences prices began to recover and touched the high level of the day during the afternoon. This level was not fully maintained, but the closing was steady and dull and only a fraction below the top level.

Bonds were irregular and only moderately active. Total sales, par value, $2,935,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Considered Carnegie's Offer.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The acceptance of Mr. Andrew Carnegie's gift of $10,000,000 for educational purposes was discussed informally at the cabinet meeting, but no definite conclusion was reached in regard to it, and probably will not be for several days. Other matters were considered.

Celery.

To revive limp celery, put it into boiling water for a second or so and then into a bowl of cold water, allowing the water to run on it for some time. This will make it quite fresh and crisp for the table.

What Disease Produces Most Misery.

If the amount of misery caused by different diseases could be estimated it would be found the portion caused by headache would outweigh any other, and perhaps equal all combined. Immediate relief is afforded by Clinic Headache Wafers, perfectly safe, easily taken and do not depress. 10 cents at all druggists.

AFTER THE GRIP COMES CATARRH.

LIKE A TERRIBLE CYCLONE grip bacillus has passed over our country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, leaving behind it a dark cloud of anguish and despair.

Catarrh follows grip as effect follows cause.

A multitude of catarrh victims will spring up in the trail of the awful epidemic of grip that has just passed over our fair country.

The hope to these people is Peruna. Most people know this already.

Everyone who has had the least touch of grip, should not fail to take a course of treatment with Peruna.

Peruna eradicates every vestige of the disease and leaves the system in a normal condition.

Hon. Joseph B. Crowley, Congressman from Illinois, writes from the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"After giving Peruna a fair trial I can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with coughs, colds, la grippe and all catarrhal complaints."—J. B. Crowley.

Hon. George H. White, Congressman from North Carolina, writes:

"I am more than satisfied with Peruna, and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family, and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."—George H. White.

Hon. J. P. Megrew, Superintendent U. S. Capital Police Force, of Washington, D. C., says:

"Having suffered from the grip, I was advised by a friend to use your Peruna.

I also used it for my catarrh, and I can now cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone who is suffering from the grip and catarrh."—J. P. Megrew.

Miss Anna Russell, Past Worthy Counselor, Loyd Mystic Legion, 233 Endicott Building, St. Paul, Minn., writes:

"For years I have unfortunately found my system in a peculiarly receptive condition for catarrh when I was exposed in any way to inclement weather. At those times I would be severely afflicted with la grippe and its unpleasant consequences.

"Now for the past year and a half I have used Peruna in such cases and have found that it not only cures me quickly, but it also cleanses my blood and renders me less liable to catch cold. It is the finest preventative of colds that I know of and a very superior tonic."—Anna Russell.

Miss Emily Milburne, President of the Westside Young Woman's Club, No. 152 West Congress street, Chicago, Ill., writes of several members of the club of which she is president, who have had the Grip and have been quickly restored to health by Peruna.

Mr. Nicolas F. Rossiter, of 463 Norwood avenue, Cleveland, O., had a severe attack of the Grip, was very sick and under the physician's care. He, like many others, passed the acute stage but did not receive strength. Peruna not only quickly restored him to his former health, but to much better health than he has had for years. He gives Peruna all the praise.

Hon. Max J. Porges, Alderman of the Eighth District, residing at 36 Rivington

street, New York, suffered with the Grip, two bottles of Peruna cured him. He also writes that he knows a large number of people who have been cured of the Grip by Peruna.

Hon. Charles W. Calkin, Alderman of the Seventh Assembly District of the Borough of Manhattan, residing at 45 Eighth avenue, New York, writes that he was laid up several days with the Grip. On the fifth day he was advised to try Peruna. He did so and found himself better within twenty-four hours. This remedy soon restored him to his usual vigorous health.

Mr. Martin Edwards, President of the County Clare Men's Benefit Society, 622 West Forty-Ninth street, New York, writes that he was cured of the Grip by a short course of treatment with Peruna.

Miss Blanche Dumont, President of the Athenia Club, 4110 Aldrich avenue North, Camden Place, Minneapolis, Minn., says she was cured of the Grip. Nothing helped her until she tried Peruna. Felt better next day after beginning its use. Was able to be out of bed the third day. She also tells of others who were cured by Peruna.

La Grippe is epidemic catarrh. Peruna cures catarrh, hence Peruna is a specific for la grippe.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

John M. Welker, formerly of Salem, is dead at Gardner, Kan.

Allen E. Albright has been reappointed postmaster at Sebring. His salary is now $1,500.

Edward Bonstall, aged 87, died at his home near New Albany, O. He was a prominent Quaker.

Joseph Bentley, of Beaver Falls, 60 years old, was assaulted by a burglar and had his nose and ankle broken.

Newton L. Ingledue, of Salem, has been bound over to the grand jury on a charge of assault and battery on his wife.

A Lorain and Wheeling passenger train at Bridgeport struck a buggy, fatally injuring Mrs. Thomas Goff and hurting her children.

The right of way has been secured by the Stark County Electric Railway company for the projected line between Canton and Alliance.

Rolla Hawkins, of Newton Falls, indicted of second degree murder for shooting his wife, who was faithless, pleaded guilty to manslaughter.

Milo Wagner, aged 57, a well known railroad man and a veteran of the civil war, is dead at his home in Alliance. Paralysis was the cause.

William Pastors, of Wayne township, Jefferson county, 78 years old, died at the Jefferson county infirmary, where he had been for 23 years.

Dora Milton, aged 15, took poison at Canton because her mother scolded her. A doctor saved the girl's life with the aid of a stomach pump.

While companions were fooling with a revolver at McKee's Rocks, George Devinney, of New Brighton, a P. & L. E. brakeman, was shot and seriously wounded.

The Alliance board of trade expects to land a newly incorporated manufacturing plant with a capital of $200,000. Heavy machinery will be made by the concern.

A large amount of heavy ship timber is being loaded on Erie cars at Lisbon to be shipped to England. It will be used in the construction of war ships. The timber was cut in this county.

Cracksmen blew open the safe in the office of the Massillon Paper company, but secured only $5 in change. They also broke into the flour mill of Warwick & Justus, but secured nothing of value.

The stock in Salem township which was bitten by a mad dog that made a raid in that section three weeks ago, is beginning to show symptoms of rabies and a sheep belonging to Martin Farmer has died of the disease.

Circled Eyes.

Dark circles under the eyes are often produced by an insufficiency of sleep.

Teing.

Teing may be whitened by the use of lemon juice, given a pink tint by using strawberry or cranberry juice or yellow by using the grated rind of an orange strained through a cloth.

The First Directory.

Philadelphia was the first city to issue a directory, its first edition coming out in the year 1785.

Calcutta University.

The University of Calcutta is said to be the largest educational corporation in the world. Every year it examines over 10,000 students.

Sensitive.

A country postman in Belgium was so overcome with grief and shame at missing the mail train that he went straight from the station to the nearest water and drowned himself.

THE OHIO VALLEY BUSINESS COLLEGE

A PROFESSIONAL PENMAN of 14 years experience gives instruction in Penmanship. Students receive

Individual instruction in Arithmetic and other Common Branches

Large classes in Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting and Rapid Calculations are in attendance.

If you want a practical education attend the

OHIO VALLEY BUSINESS COLLEGE

Day and Night Sessions East Liverpool, O. Bell Phone 160-2. Col. Co. Phone 176.

He Doesn't Forget the Horse

In his rounds at Christmas time. Ready to supply anything in the line of

Harness, Whips, Robes, Blankets, Brushes, Storm Covers,

and many other articles that only need to be seen to be fully appreciated.

A. TROTTER & SON,

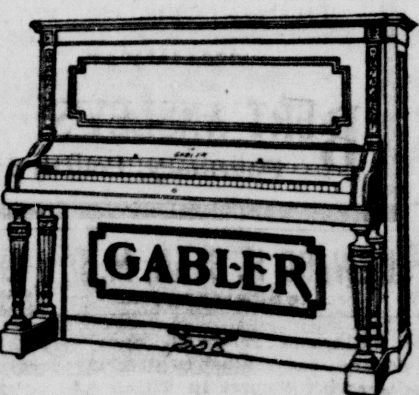

East Market Street. East Liverpool, Ohio.

MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS

They overcome Weakness, irregularity and omissions, increase vigor and banish "pains of menstruation." They are "LIFE SAVERS" to girls at womanhood, aiding development of organs and body. No known remedy for women equals them. Cannot do harm—life becomes a pleasure. $1.00 PER BOX BY MAIL. Sold by druggists. DR. MOTT'S CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio. Sold by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and W. & W. Pharmacy.

PIANOS

The man that has had the experience knows what he is selling much better than the man that is buying. We know from experience that we have some of the best Pianos made and sell them at the lowest possible price.

GABLER
New York

OUR PRICE—Cash or Easy Payments.

The Smith & Phillips Music Co.,
East Liverpool, Ohio.

Call and see our stock of Gablers, Sohmer, Briggs,
Behning,
Colby, etc.

The News Review

Published Daily Except Sunday by THE EAST LIVERPOOL PUBLISHING COMPANY

LOUIS H. BRUSH, Manager.

The News Review, Daily, established 1884.
By mail, one year, $5.00; six months, $3.00; three months, $1.75; by carrier, $5.00; ten cents per week.

The Saturday Review, Weekly, established 1879. By mail, one year, $1.00 in advance; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

Special Papers of the city of East Liverpool and Columbiana County.

OFFICE 196 WASHINGTON STREET.

Telephone Numbers.

Business Office, No. 122

Editorial Room, No. 122

Columbiana County Telephone.

Business Office, No. 122

Editorial Room, No. 122

CIRCULATION STATEMENT.

The sworn paid circulation of the EVENING NEWS REVIEW September 17, 1901, TWO THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED (2,100.)

The average circulation since the statement of August 1, 1901, TWO THOUSAND AND THIRTY-FIVE (2, 035.)

A net gain since March 1, 1901, of
ONE THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY-THREE (1,223) subscribers.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1901.

TWELVE PAGES.

The report of the court of inquiry, convened at the request of Admiral Schley, has been made public. Two opinions are submitted. That of the majority, Admirals Benham and Reinsey, is rather severe upon the alleged mistakes of the man who fought the battle of Santiago. But it will be observed that even in this report the gravest charge—that of cowardice—is not sustained. The minority report is signed by Admiral Dewey alone and will carry most weight. Certainly, if expert opinion is to be accepted as final, there can be no question that Dewey is the man to speak with authority. His candor, honesty and good judgment are worth more than all the views of officers without his experience or knowledge. Dewey finds that Schley showed no cowardice, and he concludes that Schley did his whole duty fearlessly and well. All American except a small coterie of jealous naval men will accept this decision as conclusive. To be sustained by the hero of Manila Bay is glory enough for any officer. Experto crede! is a maxim which the people will readily follow in this case.

The directors of the West Virginia penitentiary have wrestled with the convict labor problem to some purpose. Acting upon the recommendation of the recent national prison congress, they have bought a farm of 65 acres near the penitentiary, which will be worked by short term convicts and is expected to produce all the farm and garden products that are needed by the institution. This sort of convict labor will compete so little with free labor that the effect will not be felt by the latter. It is far better that the convicts should be made to contribute to their own support than that the burden should fall wholly on the state. The same principle would apply equally well to jail prisoners in a city like East Liverpool. A municipal stone pile, at which short-termers could work, preparing material for the improvement of the streets, instead of resting in comfort and idleness, would be beneficial in more ways than one. It would decrease the number of arrests, lessen the city's burdens and help forward needed public improvements.

The McKinley National Memorial association is now fully organized and diligently at work through auxiliary organizations, soliciting funds for the monument that is to mark the late president's last resting place at Canton. There is no question of the universal desire of the American people to honor this great man's memory and testify their appreciation of his great work for the nation by an appropriate memorial. It is most fitting that the greatest of the many McKinley monuments that are to be built should be upon Ohio soil and in his home city. East Liverpool people have already done something to swell the Canton memorial fund. They can, and doubtless will, do more. An organized effort in that direction should be made forthwith.

The efforts of the Salvation Army to provide Christmas cheer for those whom Santa Claus is likely to overlook in his distribution of gifts are most commendable and worthy of the heartiest encouragement. A good Christmas dinner or the present of a few toys in homes in which such things are rare will bring joy out of all proportion to the value of the gift. Especially is the effort to brighten young lives a noble work, which the busy world is much to prone to neglect.

Over in Uniontown, Pa., the other day, 1,600 persons are reported to have seen a murderer executed. In most civilized communities such degrading spectacles are almost unknown. For the credit of Pennsylvania it should be stated that public executions have gradually been abandoned throughout that commonwealth. What the Uniontown people are thinking of, if they are capable of thinking at all, is a matter of conjecture.

Argentina and Chile are reported in a fighting mood. That is their normal condition but this time the war preparations are on a scale of unusual magnitude. For a strip of waste land which is in dispute, each nation is preparing to spend ten times its value, to say nothing of the sacrifice of life. There are just wars, but this one, if it comes, will certainly not be one of them.

French roadmasters find American railroad locomotives of superior excellence. Yet an English official in India has roundly condemned them. Of course no suspicion of prejudice attaches to his opinion.

Dewey knows. He was the only member of the Schley court who ever commanded a fleet in action.

OBITUARY

Miss Ada Laughlin, whose home was near the Klondike pottery, died Wednesday, of consumption. She was 18 years old. Her friends at Sebring, where she formerly worked in a pottery, sent magnificent floral tributes. The funeral was held yesterday, interment at Georgetown.

Mrs. John H. Potter.
Mrs. Hannah Margaret Potter, aged 65, wife of Justice of the Peace John R. Potter, of New Castle, died Thursday night. Mrs. Potter was born at Columbiana, O., and was the daughter of John and Margaret Flood. Five children survive her.

AT THE THEATER

The attraction at the new Grand next Monday night will be the well known rural comedy, "Alvin Jolson." Although this familiar play has been before the public for years, yet it seems to have lost none of its popularity. There is something about it that appeals to all classes of theatergoers and pleases both old and young. In fact, it is a like Uncle Alvin's homespun trousers, inasmuch as it will never wear out. All the familiar scenes are faithfully represented by new and special scenery, prominent among which may be mentioned the Brooklyn bridge and East river by moonlight, the Grand Central depot, a thieves' den in Baxter street and a typical Bowery concert hall. A number of new and novel specialties will be introduced.

"Just One Girl" was presented to a good house at the Grand last evening. The play is a very amusing one and the company a clever one. Excellent music and specialties were introduced between the acts. Geo. H. Adams, the old-time clown, figured to great advantage in these. Frank M. Wells, in the leading role, made a great hit as "Dr. Pills," ably assisted by Miss Mamie Fleming and a well-balanced cast.

Al G. Field's minstrels come to the opera house Tuesday night larger and better than ever. The stage settings are on a greater scale than any that have been seen here in years. The first part is particularly fine with its bright and scintillating Buffalo exposition features. The show will no doubt be greeted by one of the largest houses of the season.

Harpes repaired at the Buckeye shop, East Market street. 154-5-b

Spray top atomizers at Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-1

PHOTOGRAPHS MAKE GOOD CHRISTMAS PRESENTS. ALL SITTINGS MADE BEFORE DEC. 18 WILL BE FINISHED BY CHRISTMAS. MRS. EDMONSTON, PHOTOGRAPHER, FOURTH STREET. 150-11

Kodaks—We are headquarters for Kodaks, Films and Supplies. The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

Candy! Candy!
Greatest assortment of fine candies to sell at 10 cents a pound in the city. HILL & YATES. 153-1

FINE LINE OF EBENOID ATOMIZERS, PERFUMES, BRUSHES, POCKET BOOKS, ARTISTS' MATERIALS, ETC., ETC., AT ALVIN BULGER'S. 150-11

Silver, Art and Cutlery Department

WE have just completed the placing in this department one of the finest show cases made, for the display of Silverware, Art Ware, Cut Glass, etc. We are showing in this department the finest and choicest designs of Sterling Goods, as made by the leading Silversmiths, Gorham Mfg. Co., Reed & Barton and International Silver Co. Our line of Spoons is not equaled even by the large cities.

We would also call your special attention to the Rookwood Pottery Co's new line of Iris ware. This is their latest production and you will find no two pieces alike.

Our stock of genuine Libbey Cut Glass is larger than ever. There is no better glass made. Every piece has their trade mark on it.

We have just added to this department a complete line of Quadruple Plate Hollow Ware, Candleabras, fancy Shades for same, etc. Also a new line of Art Glass. This is surely worthy of your inspection.

We have been able to secure a few pieces of genuine Kayzer Zinn Ware, and hope to have more within a few days.

If you are hunting for a Wedding, Birthday or Christmas Present, we can certainly show you a line as complete as found in any city store. We handle nothing but strictly high class goods. We cordially invite you to see us.

The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO SEE US.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Alvin Rosser left this morning for Cleveland.

Miss Etta Summit is visiting friends in Canton.

Mrs. George P. Ikert was a Pittsburg visitor today.

John Shrader is transacting business in Pittsburg.

Mrs. J. B. Carden is visiting relatives at Salineville.

Mrs. William Brunt, Sr., visited Pittsburg yesterday.

S. P. Ransford and wife are spending the day in Pittsburg.

John Summit made a business pilgrimage to Steubenville today.

G. B. Hawkins went to New Cumberland this morning to remain over Sunday.

George Phillips and wife went to Pittsburg today to witness the production of "Ben Hur."

Miss June Arnold left this morning for Zanesville, where she will spend a week with her sister.

Mrs. Clifford Dawson went to Sebring this morning to spend Sunday with her brother, Robert Salsbury.

Miss Laura Palmer has returned to Blairsville, Pa., after a few days' visit at the residence of P. G. Cranford, No. 542 Railroad street.

Dr. W. F. Oldham, who will preach at the First M. E. church tomorrow morning and evening, is expected in the city tonight. He will be the guest of Hon. David Boyce.

Mrs. O. P. Andrews, of Kossuth street, has been seriously ill with heart trouble. Her sisters, Mrs. W. C. Bunting and Miss Bowers, of Wells-ville, are nursing her.

A FARMER'S ASHES

At His Last Request Are to Be Scattered Over His Farm.

Windham, O., December 14.—Lawrence Brown, a pioneer of Portage county, and a noted spiritualist, is dead, aged 82. His last request was that his body be sent to Cleveland to be cremated, and that his ashes be sown over his farm. His family will do as he requested.

Dainty perfumes, assorted odors put up in Christmas style.

Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-1

Get the best—the Evening News Review.

DECIDED FOR THE GOULDS.

Judge Refused to Advance Castellane Case.

New York, Dec. 14.—The appellate division of the supreme court announced a decision in the case of Dittmar against the Gould trustees—the De Castellane case. On behalf of the plaintiff Samuel J. Untermeyer moved some time ago to advance the case upon the December calendar of the appellate division, so the appeal might be immediately heard, and, if decided, placed upon the new court of appeals calendar.

The motion was opposed by counsel for the Gould trustees, Charles A. Gardner, and the court denied plaintiff's motion and refused to advance the appeal. The result is that the appeal must take its regular course and cannot be placed on the new calendar of the court of appeals.

TO INVITE HAY FOR

MCKINLEY MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The joint committee of the two houses of congress appointed to make the necessary arrangements for a memorial service in honor of the late President McKinley held a meeting and decided to invite Secretary of State Hay to be the orator whenever the proposed services shall be held.

Entertained at White House.

Washington, Dec. 14.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained at dinner at the White House last night Secretary Root, Senator Hoar, Senator and Mrs. Hansbrough, Senator and Mrs. Tallafiero, Senator Gamble, Mrs. Hobson, Miss Root and Miss Roosevelt.

Serviceable Sponges.

You will find sponges of all grades at our store. Large sheep wool sponges and dainty silk toilet sponges, all shapes and sizes. Our sponges are well selected and we have taken special care to secure only the best. Stock always complete.

For cold days we have

FROST KING

Chamois Vests for Men and Boys, made of chamois lined with flannel.

FROST QUEEN

Chamois Vests for Women and Girls, made of chamois covered with French flannel.

You will never buy any garments which for genuine comfort and as guards to health will give you the service and satisfaction you can get in these. They are tailor-made, snug-fitting, neat, light, pliable and best of all. They keep you warm as toast on the coldest days and protect your lungs and throat. Price, $3.00.

Children's sizes, $2.00.

For sale by

C. G. ANDERSON, Druggist,

Cor. 4th and West Market Sts.

GLASGOW

Glasgow, Dec. 14.—R. O. Bell is ill at his home, threatened with typhoid fever.

The pupils of the Alderlick school will have a spelling match and literary entertainment next Friday evening.

A small child of John Leatherberry fell from the back of a chair one day last week and fractured her arm.

A. F. McIntosh, who has been suffering from a severe cold, is convalescent.

John Cameron went to a hospital at Pittsburg Wednesday. His friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Jack Chettle, of Highlandtown, was in this vicinity one day last week, saying goodbye to his friends, preparatory to an extended visit in the west.

IRONDALE

Irondale, December 14.—Dr. E. H. Rea was called to the southern part of the county last week by the serious illness of his father. He returned Monday and reported him much better.

C. O. Burger, agent for the Pennsylvania company, has been transferred to the agency at Toronto. R. J. Minsinger, of Empire, succeeds him here.

Rev. J. H. Conkle is conducting a series of meetings at Inverness.

Misses Margaret Williams and Gertrude Lawson lately visited Steubenville friends.

Rev. T. V. Milligan did not fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here Sunday on account of sickness.

Rev. David Hargest passed through here en route to Zear.

The foundations for the East Ohio sewer pipe works are about completed and the work of erecting the buildings will soon commence.

Richard Caddick has secured a position in the tin plate works at Waynesburg, Pa.

The tin plate works are running full in all departments and prospects for a steady run for the remainder of the year are said to be very good.

B. D. Hays, who has been living at J. A. Bailey's place, is moving to Beloit.

Display—See our special window display tonight, at The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

Exquisite pocketbook for ladies, at Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-1

TO GET ALL THE NEWS

Buy the Evening News Review—List of Those Who Sell It.

Job R. Manley's, Cor. Sixth and Franklin Streets.

Pierce & Cartwright, 276 Eighth Street.

John H. Peake, 304 Eighth Street.

Bagley's, 153 Second Street.

John Peake's, Market and Second Streets.

Ryan Bros., 289 East Market Street.

Wilson's, Fifth Street.

Rose's Cigar Store, Washington Street.

Gill's Grocery, Calcutta Road.

Harrison News Stand, 143 Mulberry St., East End.

C. T. McCutcheon, Drug Store, Southside.

Marshall News Stand, First Street, Chester, W. Va.

SEE OUR

Holiday Line

—OF—

Packages of Perfumes, Atomizers, Cut Glass Perfume Bottles with Sprinkler top, Pocketbooks, Brush and Comb Sets, Military Brushes, Cigars, etc. etc.

BERT ANSLEY'S

Pharmacy, Fourth St.

HOWARD H. BEAN, M. D., Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

SPECIALIST—Fits and Throat.

Cataracts removed, eyes straightened, deafness and catarrh in all forms successfully treated. Expert in fitting and adjusting SPECTACLES and EYE GLASSES. Corner 6th and Diamond, EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

R. S. DANLEY,

BARBER SHOP AND BATH ROOMS.

Hot and Cold Baths. Rooms always ready. No waiting. Corner 4th and Washington Street, Opposite Post Office.

Makes
Hot Breads Wholesome

Makes delicious hot biscuit, griddle cakes, rolls,
and muffins.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST. NEW YORK.

SOUTH SIDE

RAIN DELAYED WORK

Tin Mills Will Not Resume Before
Middle of Next Week.

The three mills of the American Tin Plate company will not be started next Monday, as expected. The delay is due to the weather which has stopped all work on the elevated track. A large force of men have been ardently trying to finish it, but have only half of it done.

With settled weather work will be resumed Monday morning, and it is expected that the track will be completed by Wednesday night and the mills in operation Thursday morning.

Work on the mills not finished is being rapidly pushed and no doubt everything will be in working order by Jan. 1. The structural iron work of the building to be used as the finishing department is completed, and a car of sheeting for roofing was received this morning. The walls of the building are to be brick.

ANOTHER GOOD WELL

A 20-Barrel Producer Struck in the Vicinity of New Cumberland.

E. C. Baxter has returned from a business visit in New Cumberland. He is interested in the oil fields of that vicinity and reports that another producer was struck Wednesday on the Williams farm. The well will yield 20 barrels per day.

He said also that a number of post-office officials arrived in New Cumberland last night and that they intend establishing a rural mail delivery.

$5,000 FOR A LEASE

Of a Hundred Acres of Oil Territory
in the Turkeyfoot
Fields.

As evidence that the oil operators have confidence in the Turkeyfoot territory, Lacount & Merritt, of Marietta, have paid Luther and Mrs. Amanda Carson the sum of $5,000 bonus for a lease of 100 acres. This lease joins the Murray & Miller leases and runs close to their No. 3, one of the best producers.

NEW CHURCH FOR CHESTER

Proposed Organization of Christian Denomination Next Week.

An invitation has been extended to

Of Interest To Mill Workers

We have about 20 houses in Chester which we can sell you at prices and terms to suit, and can give you possession in 30 days. All of these houses are complete in every particular, with all modern conveniences. Prices from $1650 upwards. For further information, call or address

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,

General Insurance and
Real Estate Agents.

Offices—First National Bank Building, East Liverpool, Ohio.
Opposite Rock Springs Park
entrance, Chester, W. Va.
Both Phones 49.

WELLSVILLE TO ABOLISH THE OFFICE

SCHEME TO DISPENSE WITH WATER SUPERINTENDENCY.

Plan to Elect No Successor to Davidson, in Interests of Economy.

Supt. D. A. Davidson gives the information that the water works trustees will likely hold a meeting tonight in the city hall for the purpose of accepting his resignation. From reliable sources it is learned that there is much doubt as to who will be appointed to succeed Mr. Davidson.

A scheme is on foot, which, if carried out, will do away with a water works superintendent. This plan is to place the work upon the city engineer, but at no increase of salary to that gentleman. A councilman yesterday said he thought the proposal all foolishness and would vote strongly against it.

Supt. Davidson has been apprised of the scheme and does not feel kindly toward its promoters. He has always done his work well and labored industriously, and feels that his efforts have not been appreciated, for if they had, no move would be made to dispense with a superintendent.

UNDETERRED BY THREATS

Rev. Lemoine C. Wells Will Talk
Temperance Again Sunday
Evening.

Rev. Lemoine C. Wells, who has gained at least a state reputation during the past three weeks for his bold attack upon the saloonists, officeholders and evil doers of Wellsville, will again deliver a sermon in the Methodist Protestant church Sunday evening, which will no doubt be the subject of conversation for the coming week. His theme will be: "Fig-Leafed Aprons as a Covering for Sin."

Mr. Wells stated yesterday that this sermon will be partially for the benefit of a certain local paper in which there appeared an editorial last week censuring him for his stand on the temperance question. He said he was well aware that his sermon caused much controversy and that threats were being made daily which, if executed, would result in his receiving bodily injury. "But," said Rev. Mr. Wells, "I weigh well my words and will retract nothing. I have told my members that the pulpit is nearly six feet in length and at least one yard of it is back bone."

A large congregation will likely be present at the church tomorrow evening.

To Wed Christmas Eve.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of John Houser and Miss May Blinnie, to take place in Pittsburgh on the evening of December 24. Mr. Houser is the blacksmith in the C. & P. shops, West End, and a worthy young man. Miss Blinnie is a winsome young lady of Fourteenth street.

New Alternating System.

Supt. Thompson, of the Wellsville Electric Light company, stated this morning that the arc attachments for the new alternating system had arrived and that men are now at work placing in the system. He expects to

HOLIDAY GOODS At Popular Prices.

THE LEADER,
Washington Street.

We had sold all our Parlor Cabinets

and thought we would have to disappoint many buyers who wanted cabinets for their friends. Fortunately however we have received a lot we did not expect would get here in time so now can supply you. As we have them from $9 to $36 you can have a great selection.

HARD'S

THE BIG STORE.

OUR FINE CAPITOL

MANY CHANGES MADE IN THE NA-TION'S BUILDING.

House of Representatives Much Improved and Seating Capacity Enlarged—Handsome New Committee
Rooms—Other Improvements.

Not in years has the capitol in Washington gone through such a course of reconstruction and adornment as during the last recess of congress, and all that brawn and muscle and architects can do has been done to make the big domed structure fit for the country's statehouse. The last congress appropriated considerably over a quarter of a million dollars for this purpose, including $53,000 for the reconstruction of the roofs of the supreme court chamber and statutory hall. The capitol today shows that no part of it has been missed by the hand of the decorator, and a profusion of colors of all shades has been applied to the interior. It is agreed on all sides that the building was never in as fine order, and the improvements have received nothing but praise from senators and representatives.

In the house the large panels in the wall have been redone in gray figured damask, the seating capacity increased and a new carpet and floor laid. New desks of handsome mahogany have also been put in, and during a dry speech a representative can now tilt himself back and take a nap in a fourteen dollar mahogany chair.

What is probably appreciated more than any other of the improvements in the house is the new system of ventilation which has been installed. The matter of securing proper ventilation for the house of parliament has given English engineers years of worry and trouble, but Mr. Woods, who had this affair in hand for the capitol, believes he has solved the problem. By the new arrangement fresh air comes up through the desk legs and is distributed evenly through the chamber.

In making ready to decorate the ceilings and skylights of the house of representatives it was found necessary to apply soap and water in liberal quantities, and even a third washing was necessary to remove the last of the smoke stains. As the ceilings and skylights of the senate simply needed dusting it is plain that the representacorners of the hall, and an electric push button on each member's desk connects with an annunciator on a table and calls the boys.

The new committee rooms which occupy the space vacated by the library of congress have been handsomely decorated and furnished, and the work on the corridors leading to them has been done in most lavish style. In order to harmonize with this new construction the main stairway leading into the rotunda from the west entrance of the capitol was reconstructed in white marble, with marble panelings on the sides, making it the most attractive stairway in the building. The new elevators have been put in for the use of senators and representatives in the new section, and the twenty-eight rooms forming this addition to the committee space of congress will virtually make a colony by itself.

One of the most important and expensive of the various improvements was the roof work of the capitol. The roofs of the small domes were in a state of collapse, and to put on new ones necessitated a large number of changes in the building.

Improvements in the senate have been limited to the gliding of the marble room and the corridors and to extensive improvements in the document room and library. The documents, which have heretofore been stowed away in nooks and corners, are now arranged in an array of steel file cases commodious and easy to manipulate.

POLICE CAPTAIN SUSPENDED

Result of Important Raid Against Gambling, in New York.

New York, Dec. 14.—Police Captain Cooney, in whose precinct private agencies raided rooms in which it is alleged, were the headquarters of the policy gambling in New York, was suspended by Police Commissioner Murphy and ordered to appear for trial Dec. 17. Cooney will be accused of neglect of duty in permitting the policy gamblers to do business in his precinct.

When the contents of the safes captured in the raid were examined, account books were found which showed that the receipts from policy slips sold Monday and Tuesday of this week aggregated $23,000.

SOME NEWS IN BRIEF

The body of Frank McCadden, who was killed and thrown from his train in a collision Wednesday night, was found in the Allegheny river.

A boy and girl placed an obstruction on the tracks of the Jamestown and Franklin branch of the Lake Shore railroad near Kinsman. A northbound engine and caboose struck it. The tie was carried several car lengths before it cleared the tracks. The children said they wanted to see a wreck.

Governor Stone returned to war department warrant for $102,000 received in part payment of Spanish-American war claims. Reason stated to be that the government refused to pay portions of the claims.

Thieves raided Footville, O., post-office, Massillon Paper company and Warwick and Justus flour mills, Massillon, O., and Pennsylvania depot, Warren, O.

Governor White, of West Virginia, has appointed Samuel L. Cooper assistant state mine inspector to serve out the unexpired term of W. J. Presce, who was one of the eight men who lost their lives in the Baby mine at Pocahontas recently.

Fancy Lamps—Special sale of lamps and globes. Our stock has never been so large or handsome. The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-cod

JUST AS GOOD PICTURES MADE
IN CLOUDY WEATHER AS IN SUN-SHINE AT EDMONSTON, PHOTO-
GRAPHER'S, FOURTH STREET.

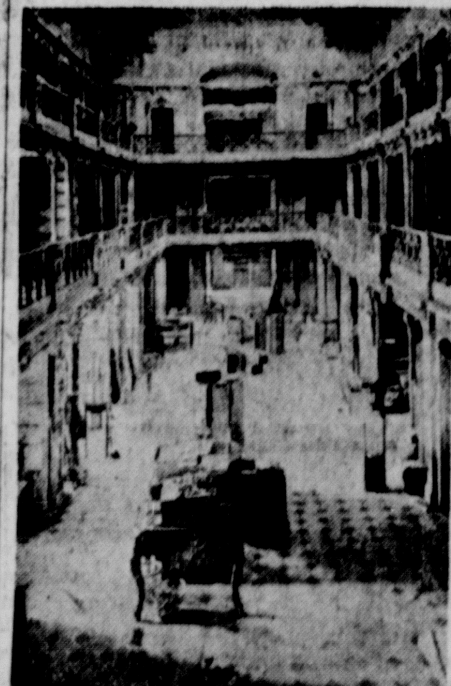

150 tf

Artists' Supplies.
NEW STOCK.

Everything you need.

Hodson's Drug Store

Cor. 5th and Broadway.

OLD CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY, NOW USED AS COMMITTEE ROOMS.

tives are either the harder smokers or smoke the poorest cigars. Brighter colors have been used all around, and some of the walls and ceilings look almost as gay as those of a theater. It was an old idea that somberness and dignity went together.

In the general changes the cloak-rooms have been reduced somewhat in size, but at the same time they have been improved. The big old-fashioned wood fireplaces have been removed, and six modern grates with marble mantels take their place. The barber shops which occupied the corner cloak-rooms on both the Republican and Democratic sides have been placed in the basement, and in the new shops an eight foot high wooden partition is all that separates the members of the two great political parties as they meekly submit to the "pull of the razor." The house pages now sit in the two rear

MINOR NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.

John Schuman is quite sick.
Mrs. J. Hal Aten is quite sick.
Mrs. C. B. Cummins, Main street, is ill.

Andy Kincaid is very sick with the fever.

Attorney Wells is at Cleveland on legal business.

Brail De Voe, of Pittsburg, visited his parents yesterday.

Will Dumlevy has accepted a position with W. C. Lewis.

Miss Beulah Williamson is sick and unable to attend school.

Morley Starrett is home from a visit with friends at Scioto.

Joe Harris, of Baltimore, was the guest of friends yesterday.

Dallas Pittinger was a business visitor in Steubenville yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph L. Shanks, Front street, is recovering from a sick spell.

Milton Mannis is home from New York city, visiting his parents.

Frank Fox left last evening for a visit with relatives in Ft. Wayne.

Thomas Stevenson, of Kansas, is visiting his uncle, George Merriman.

Mrs. Harry Deem, Center street, is reported sick, also Harry Allerman.

Walter Ashley, Railroad street, is seriously ill with an attack of fever.

Mrs. M. V. Cusick left yesterday for Steubenville to make relatives a visit.

Miss Edna Fitzpatrick left yesterday for a visit with relatives at Keatington.

John Myers has left for Norwalk to superintend the erection of a water tank.

Miss Jeannette Kelly returned this morning for a short visit in Pittsburg.

Ralph and Arthur sons of Perry Castle, are recovering from diphtheria.

Mrs. C. F. Russell is home from a pleasant visit with Hammondville friends.

Mrs. A. H. Sanford, of Avalon, is the pleasant guest of relatives in the West End.

Miss Collie Clark, Front street, is off duty from Butler & Howe's on account of sickness.

Nathan Henthorne has bought the Smith property on Nevada street. He and family moved into it yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Workman, in this city attending the funeral of Mrs. John Workman, returned to Canton yesterday.

The Sabbath school scholars of the First Methodist church are preparing for Christmas exercises to be given in the church.

William Parker strongly denies that he was discharged from a Pittsburg mill for allowing a piece of iron to go through the rolls. He says he did not work in that department of the mill.

Robert L. Alexander departed yesterday for San Antonio, Tex., where he will remain until spring in the hope of recovering from a long illness.

Officer Madden is in receipt of a full blooded hound from Long Reach. He is very proud of the dog and anticipates much sport with him next season.

William H. Hollar, of Philadelphia, was in the city this morning, meeting old acquaintances. Mr. Hollar was formerly a resident of Wellsville, but now holds a fine position with an eastern safe company.

ROYAL ARCANUM

A List of New Officers Who Are to
Be Installed in January.

At a meeting of the Royal Arcanum lodge, No. 772, the following officers were elected:

Regent, William Devon; vice regent, W. H. Davidson; past regent, Cyrus Bailey; orator, Timothy Hickey; secretary, J. C. Orr; collector, C. H. Blazer; treasurer, Leon Rich; chaplain, J. H. Harmon; guide, W. H. Hackworth; warden, George Pickering; sentry, John Bennett; trustee, W. M. McClure; representative to grand council, C. H. Blazer; alternate, James Bloor.

The officers will be installed on the second Thursday evening in January. The grand council meets in Columbus in April.

Makes
Hot Breads Wholesome

Makes delicious hot biscuit,
griddle cakes, rolls,
and muffins.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST. NEW YORK.

SOUTH SIDE

RAIN DELAYED WORK

Tin Mills Will Not Resume Before
Middle of Next Week.

The three mills of the American Tin Plate company will not be started next Monday, as expected. The delay is due to the weather which has stopped all work on the elevated track. A large force of men have been ardently trying to finish it, but have only half of it done.

With settled weather work will be resumed Monday morning, and it is expected that the track will be completed by Wednesday night, and the mills in operation Thursday morning.

Work on the mills not finished is being rapidly pushed and no doubt everything will be in working order by Jan. 1. The structural iron work of the building to be used as the finishing department is completed, and a car of sheet-iron for roofing was received this morning. The walls of the building are to be brick.

ANOTHER GOOD WELL

A 20-Barrel Producer, Struck in the Vicinity of New Cumberland.

E. C. Baxter has returned from a business visit in New Cumberland. He is interested in the oil fields of that vicinity and reports that another producer was struck Wednesday on the Williams farm. The well will yield 20 barrels per day.

He said also that a number of post-office officials arrived in New Cumberland last night and that they intend establishing a rural mail delivery.

$5,000 FOR A LEASE

Of a Hundred Acres of Oil Territory
In the Turkeyfoot
Fields.

As evidence that the oil operators have confidence in the Turkeyfoot territory, Lacount & Merritt, of Marietta, have paid Luther and Mrs. Amanda Carson the sum of $5,000 bonus for a lease of 100 acres. This lease joins the Murray & Miller leases and runs close to their No. 3, one of the best producers.

NEW CHURCH FOR CHESTER

Proposed Organization of Christian Denomination Next Week.

An invitation has been extended to

Of Interest To Mill Workers

We have about 20 houses in Chester which we can sell you at prices and terms to suit, and can give you possession in 30 days. All of these houses are complete in every particular, with all modern conveniences. Prices from $1050 upwards. For further information, call or address

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,

General Insurance and
Real Estate Agents.

Offices:—First National Bank Building, East Liverpool, Ohio.
Opposite Rock Springs Park
entrance, Chester, W. Va.
Both Phones 49.

WELLSVILLE

TO ABOLISH THE OFFICE

SCHEME TO DISPENSE WITH WATER SUPERINTENDENCY.

Plan to Elect No Successor to Davidson, in Interests of Economy.

Supt. D. A. Davidson gives the information that the water works trustees will likely hold a meeting tonight in the city hall for the purpose of accepting his resignation. From reliable sources it is learned that there is much doubt as to who will be appointed to succeed Mr. Davidson.

A scheme is on foot, which, if carried out, will do away with a water works superintendent. This plan is to place the work upon the city engineer, but at no increase of salary to that gentleman. A councilman yesterday said he thought the proposal all foolishness and would vote strongly against it.

Supt. Davidson has been apprised of the scheme and does not feel kindly toward its promoters. He has always done his work well and labored industriously, and feels that his efforts have not been appreciated, for if they had, no move would be made to dispense with a superintendent.

UNDETERRED BY THREATS

Rev. Lemoine C. Wells Will Talk
Temperance Again Sunday
Evening.

Rev. Lemoine C. Wells, who has gained at least a state reputation during the past three weeks for his bold attack upon the saloonists, officeholders and evil doers of Wellsville, will again deliver a sermon in the Methodist Protestant church Sunday evening, which will no doubt be the subject of conversation for the coming week. His theme will be: "Pig-Leafed Aprons as a Covering for Sin."

Mr. Wells stated yesterday that this sermon will be partially for the benefit of a certain local paper in which there appeared an editorial last week censuring him for his stand on the temperance question. He said he was well aware that his sermon caused much controversy and that threats were being made daily which, if executed, would result in his receiving bodily injury. "But," said Rev. Mr. Wells, "I weigh well my words and will retract nothing. I have told my members that the pulpit is nearly six feet in length and at least one yard of it is back bone."

A large congregation will likely be present at the church tomorrow evening.

To Wed Christmas Eve.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of John Houser and Miss May Binnie, to take place in Pittsburgh on the evening of December 24. Mr. Houser is the blacksmith in the C. & P. shops, West End, and a worthy young man. Miss Binnie is a winsome young lady of Fourteenth street.

New Alternating System.

Supt. Thompson, of the Wellsville Electric Light company, stated this morning that the arc attachments for the new alternating system had arrived and that men are now at work placing in the system. He expects to

HOLIDAY GOODS At Popular Prices.

THE LEADER,
Washington Street.

We had sold all our Parlor Cabinets

and thought we would have to disappoint many buyers who wanted cabinets for their friends. Fortunately however we have received a lot we did not expect would get here in time so now can supply you. As we have them from $9 to $36 you can have a great selection.

HARD'S

THE BIG STORE.

have the new lights burning next Monday night.

MINOR NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.

John Schuman is quite sick.
Mrs. J. Hal Aten is quite sick.
Mrs. C. B. Cummins, Main street, is ill.

Andy Kincaid is very sick with the fever.

Attorney Wells is at Cleveland on legal business.

Brail De Voe, of Pittsburgh, visited his parents yesterday.

Will Dunlevy has accepted a position with W. C. Lewis.

Miss Beulah Williamson is sick and unable to attend school.

Morley Starrett is home from a visit with friends at Scio.

Joe Harris, of Baltimore, was the guest of friends yesterday.

Dallas Pittinger was a business visitor in Steubenville yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph L. Shanks, Front street, is recovering from a sick spell.

Milton Mannis is home from New York city, visiting his parents.

Frank Fox left last evening for a visit with relatives in Ft. Wayne.

Thomas Stevenson, of Kansas, is visiting his uncle, George Merriman.

Mrs. Harry Deem, Center street, is reported sick, also Harry Allerman.

Walter Ashley, Railroad street, is seriously ill with an attack of fever.

Mrs. M. V. Cusick left yesterday for Steubenville to make relatives a visit.

Miss Edna Fitzpatrick left yesterday for a visit with relatives at Kensington.

John Myers has left for Norwalk to superintend the erection of a water tank.

Miss Jeannette Kelly returned this morning for a short visit in Pittsburgh.

Walter and Arthur, sons of Perry Castle, are recovering from diphtheria.

Mrs. C. F. Russell is home from a pleasant visit with Hammondsville friends.

Mrs. A. H. Sanford, of Avalon, is the pleasant guest of relatives in the West End.

Miss Collie Clark, Front street, is off duty from Butler & Howe's on account of sickness.

Nathan Henthorne has bought the Smith property on Nevada street. He and family moved into it yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Workman, in this city attending the funeral of Mrs. John Workman, returned to Canton yesterday.

The Sabbath school scholars of the First Methodist church are preparing for Christmas exercises to be given in the church.

William Parker strongly denies that he was discharged from a Pittsburgh mill for allowing a piece of iron to go through the rolls. He says he did not work in that department of the mill.

Robert L. Alexander departed yesterday for San Antonio, Tex., where he will remain until spring in the hope of recovering from a long illness.

Officer Madden is in receipt of a full blooded hound from Long Reach. He is very proud of the dog and anticipates much sport with him next season.

William H. Hollar, of Philadelphia, was in the city this morning, meeting old acquaintances. Mr. Hollar was formerly a resident of Wellsville, but now holds a fine position with an eastern safe company.

ROYAL ARCANUM

A List of New Officers Who Are to
Be Installed in January.

At a meeting of the Royal Arcanum lodge, No. 772, the following officers were elected:

Regent, William Devoy; vice regent, W. H. Davidson; past regent, Cyrus Bailey; orator, Timothy Hickey; secretary, J. C. Orr; collector, C. H. Blazer; treasurer, Leon Rich; chaplain, J. H. Harmon; guide, W. H. Hackworth; warden, George Pickering; sentry, John Bennett; trustee, W. M. McClure; representative to grand council, C. H. Blazer; alternate, James Bloor.

The officers will be installed on the second Thursday evening in January. The grand council meets in Columbus in April.

OUR FINE CAPITOL

MANY CHANGES MADE IN THE NA-TION'S BUILDING.

House of Representatives Much Improved and Seating Capacity Enlarged—Handsome New Committee
Rooms—Other Improvements.

Not in years has the capitol in Washington gone through such a course of reconstruction and adornment as during the last recess of congress, and all that brawn and muscle and architects can do has been done to make the big domed structure fit for the country's stately use. The last congress appropriated considerably over a quarter of a million dollars for the purpose, including $53,000 for the reconstruction of the roofs of the supreme court chamber and statutory hall. The capitol today shows that no part of it has been missed by the hand of the decorator, and a profusion of colors of all shades has been applied to the interior. It is agreed on all sides that the building was never in as fine order, and the improvements have received nothing but praise from senators and representatives.

In the house the large panels in the wall have been receded in gray figured damask, the seating capacity increased and a new carpet and floor laid. New desks of handsome mahogany have also been put in, and during a dry speech a representative can now tilt himself back and take a nap in a four-teen dollar mahogany chair.

What is probably appreciated more than any other of the improvements in the house is the new system of ventilation which has been installed. The matter of securing proper ventilation for the house of parliament has given English engineers years of worry and trouble, but Mr. Woods, who had this affair in hand for the capitol, believes he has solved the problem. By the new arrangement fresh air comes up through the desk legs and is distributed evenly through the chamber.

In making ready to decorate the ceilings and skylights of the house of representatives it was found necessary to apply soap and water, in liberal quantities, and even a third washing was necessary to remove the last of the smoke stains. As the ceilings and skylights of the senate simply needed dusting it is plain that the representatives are either the harder smokers or smoke the poorest cigars. Brighter colors have been used all around, and some of the walls and ceilings look almost as gay as those of a theater. It was an old idea that somberness and dignity went together.

OLD CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY, NOW USED AS COMMITTEE ROOMS.

In the general changes the cloak-rooms have been reduced somewhat in size, but at the same time they have been improved. The old-fashioned wood fireplaces have been removed, and six modern grates with marble mantels take their place. The barber shops which occupied the corner cloak-rooms on both the Republican and Democratic sides have been placed in the basement, and in the new shops an eight foot high wooden partition is all that separates the members of the two great political parties as they meekly submit to the "pull of the razor." The house pages now sit in the two rear corners of the hall, and an electric push button on each member's desk connects with an annunciator on a table and calls the boys.

The new committee rooms which occupy the space vacated by the library of congress have been handsomely decorated and furnished, and the work on the corridors leading to them has been done in most lavish style. In order to harmonize with this new construction the main stairway leading into the rotunda from the west entrance of the capitol was reconstructed in white marble, with marble panelings on the sides, making it the most attractive stairway in the building. The new elevators have been put in for the use of senators and representatives in the new section, and the twenty-eight rooms forming this addition to the committee space of congress will virtually make a colony by itself.

One of the most important and expensive of the various improvements was the roof work of the capitol. The roofs of the small domes were in a state of collapse, and to put on new ones necessitated a large number of changes in the building.

Improvements in the senate have been limited to the gliding of the marble room and the corridors and to extensive improvements in the document room and library. The documents, which have heretofore been stored away in nooks and corners, are now arranged in an array of steel file cases commodious and easy to manipulate.

POLICE CAPTAIN SUSPENDED

Result of Important Raid Against Gambling in New York.

New York, Dec. 14.—Police Captain Cooney, in whose precinct private agencies raided rooms in which, it is alleged, were the headquarters of the policy gambling in New York, was suspended by Police Commissioner Murphy and ordered to appear for trial Dec. 17. Cooney will be accused of neglect of duty in permitting the policy gamblers to do business in his precinct.

When the contents of the safes captured in the raid were examined, account books were found which showed that the receipts from policy slips sold Monday and Tuesday of this week aggregated $23,000.

SOME NEWS IN BRIEF.

The body of Frank McCadden, who was killed and thrown from his train in a collision Wednesday night, was found in the Allegheny river.

A boy and girl placed an obstruction on the tracks of the Jamestown and Franklin branch of the Lake Shore railroad near Kinsman. A northbound engine and caboose struck it. The tie was carried several car lengths before it cleared the tracks. The children said they wanted to see a wreck.

Governor Stone returned to war department warrant for $102,000 received in part payment of Spanish-American war claims. Reason stated to be that the government refused to pay portions of the claims.

Thieves raided Footville, O., post-office, Massillon Paper company and Warwick and Justus' flour mills, Massillon, O., and Pennsylvania depot, Warren, O.

Governor White, of West Virginia, has appointed Samuel L. Cooper assistant state mine inspector to serve out the unexpired term of W. J. Prease, who was one of the eight men who lost their lives in the Baby mine at Pocahontas recently.

Fancy Lamps—Special sale of lamps and globes. Our stock has never been so large or handsome. The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-rod

JUST AS GOOD PICTURES MADE
IN CLOUDY WEATHER AS IN SUN-
SHINE AT EDMONSTON, PHOTO-
GRAPHER'S, FOURTH STREET.
150-rr

Artists' Supplies.

NEW STOCK.

Everything you need.

Hodson's Drug Store

Cor. 8th and Broadway.

Chas. F. Craig,

DRUGS AND TOILET GOODS

Corner Market and Fifth Street.

Our prices are low for the quality we give you.

COLLEGE ATHLETES.

Strength and Endurance the Result of Proper Training.

Blood Wine—Used at Principal Universities—Improves General Health of Students.

The interest in college athletics is undoubtedly growing. This is due to several causes. Probably the first reason is that of making a name for oneself—which goes down in history and becomes a monument to one's memory—respected and honored by the succeeding generations and constituents of the several institutions of learning.

The fact that athletics, as now indulged in throughout the country, has been a means of turning sickly, puny men into sturdy specimens of manhood is also a very great inducement, and serves to arouse athletic instincts in thousands of young fellows, who would otherwise have no aspirations in that direction.

The training of a college athlete is a good example for everyone to follow throughout life.

FRANK J. KEENS.

Where can you find any better representatives of good health, good dispositions, good cheer and good citizenship?

These fellows are made what they are. Proper food, good hours, careful medical examinations, and advice enable them to rid their systems of disease and supplant weakness with strength. How many deaths take place in our large colleges? Few, not as many as in towns with half the population. "Blood Wine" is used in nearly all of the great colleges. It is one of the essentials when in training. It makes muscle and sinew because it contains ingredients that separate the nutrition from the waste in our food and turn it right into the vital substances of the system. It differs from anything else ever prescribed, simply because it was made to do just that very thing. College professors of Materia Medica and chemistry in advising their students to use "Blood Wine" recognize in it this peculiar property not to be found elsewhere in a medicine all prepared and ready to take. No injurious drugs or opiates enter into its composition.

"Blood Wine" is certainly the most potent of any medicine ever used while training. It seems to correct the wrong activity of every organ of your system. I take it right along—I wouldn't be without it—because I believe it as much a food as a germ killer and I have yet to see the first day that it hasn't kept me feeling fine. I find that nearly all college men take it and meet with the same results. FRANK J. KEENS, Capt. Georgetown Varsity Crew.

If you have a cough, a cold, if your lungs are affected or you have kidney troubles, rheumatism, dyspepsia, lameness of your joints, pains in your back or chest, if you don't sleep well, can't relish a good meal or are pale or losing flesh, "Blood Wine," just as sure as gospel, will help you, because it begins at the bottom. It makes new blood of old. Investigate it for yourself, go to the druggist and get a free sample, read the literature and bear in mind always that "Blood Wine" represents not an old but a new, modern method of treating disease. It contains no wine or opiates. Get it or your sample at Will Reed and Edson's drug stores.

Providing For a Wayward Son.

Lord Chesterfield gave advice to his son in sundry letters, which might or might not be followed, but in his will he took good care that "my godson, Philip Stanhope," should have strong inducement to follow his advice on at least one point. All the bequests are subject to the condition that if Philip should keep race horses or hounds or stay one night at Newmarket, "that infamous seminary of iniquity and ill manners," during the course of the races there, or should lose on any one day by betting or gaming as much as £500, then in such case he shall forfeit £5,000 to the dean and chapter of Westminster for every such offense.—All the Year Round.

Know Your Own Capacity.

If the people about you are carrying on their business or their benevolence at a pace which draws the life out of you, resolutely take a slower pace; be called a laggard, make less money, accomplish less work than they, but be what you are meant to be and can be. You have your natural limit of power as much as an engine—ten horsepower or twenty or a hundred. You are fit to do certain kinds of work, and you need a certain kind and amount of fuel and a certain kind of handling.—George S. Merriam.

Cleaning Jewels.

With the exception of pearls jewels may be washed with warm water and pure soap. They should then be put in a boxwood sawdust to dry. If this is done, polishing will be unnecessary. As boxwood sawdust is very fine, it will not scratch, and as it absorbs moisture rapidly it helps to give jewels a high polish. It can be procured from any dealer in jeweler's supplies or ordered through a jeweler.

WIDOWS OF OUR... PRESIDENTS

WHY THEY USUALLY MAKE THEIR HOMES IN WASHINGTON

Washington might well be called a city of famous widows. Whatever the attraction may be, certain it is that many a woman whose husband has shone at the capital as statesman or soldier, no matter where her home used to be, drifts back to Washington eventually to live in the city of her former glory. This desire is only natural enough, and it seems especially natural that widows of our presidents should make their homes in Washington, a city which must mean so much enza, and was obliged to leave Washington to recuperate along the Florida coast.

While in Washington Mrs. Garfield always spends her time with her daughter Mollie, now Mrs. Stanley Brown. She is in most congenial company, for the home life of the Stanley Browns carries out Mrs. Garfield's idea of what home should be. Her grandchildren are courteous and well behaved and were reared in accordance with the rules for the children in their grandmother's home.

Mrs. Garfield's entire life has been a lofty example of the American woman, wife and mother. The martyred president's repeated testimony to her love and affection for him given when he was dying forms one of the most pathetic yet beautiful chapters in the history of American presidents.

After the assassination of her husband it seemed for a time that she would make Cleveland her home, but she gave up her place of residence there when she went on a visit to Europe. When she returned to the United States, it was to go to the Garfield home at Mentor, O., where she still lives when not in Washington. But for the visits of her children Mrs. Garfield is almost alone in the great house at Mentor. She is too busy to be lonely, however, for the management of her large estate involves much labor. Charitable works, too, occupy her mind. Like Mrs. Grant, she was voted a pension. In addition, a popular subscription for her benefit was started which brought $363,000 in cash. Judicious investments of this have made her very wealthy, and from her large resources she contributes liberally to educational and philanthropic institutions.

She also gives much to the needy and to churches and takes a deep interest in missionary work. When she lived in Cleveland, she was president of the McCall Association Auxiliary in that city. Unostentatious in her private to them. It will not be at all surprising should Mrs. McKinley follow the example of so many and some day take up her permanent residence there.

MRS. U. S. GRANT.

One of the most famous widows living in the capital is Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant. Her house on Massachusetts avenue is one of the handsomest as well as one of the best known residences in Washington. She purchased it from ex-Senator Edmunds, and it was the house that Richard Olney occupied when he entered official life. It is a structure of about fifteen rooms, is built of pressed brick and is trimmed in brownstone. The interior is as handsome as the exterior. The furnishings are mostly historic, and Mrs. Grant delights to recall the associations that belong to certain things, like rugs and vases, that are gifts from foreign personages.

President Grant's widow is now in her seventy-fifth year. Small in stature, she is bent with advancing years, but her interest in people and events has not been dimmed by age. Much of her personal supervision is given to the dinners and receptions held at her home. Every afternoon she rests a few hours, and when she comes down stairs to welcome visitors she looks fresh and attractive. She attributes her health largely to the restful way in which she spends her summers. Each year she leaves Washington at the approach of warm weather and goes to Coburg, a delightful little Canadian town on the north shore of Lake Ontario. There she and her daughter, Mrs. Sartoris, live together during the summer months, splendidly entertained by the Canadians, with whom both are very popular.

Mrs. Grant is devoted to her family, her children and her grandchildren and carefully cherishes her love for the dead president. In speaking of him she always refers to him as "the general." No married couple ever lived closer to each other than did the Grants. To her he was always the dashing young lieutenant who wooed and won her before the past century had attained its meridian. She was perhaps his only confidant. The two were one in almost everything. She was by his side through all the hardships of their early career, and when his fatal illness came those qualities which had at first endeared her to him became more and more nationally known, winning the unstinted admiration of the people.

Mrs. Grant draws an annual pension of $5,000, but her income is far more, for the royalties accruing from the sale of the general's memoirs are reported to have passed the half million mark. Although practically deprived of her sight, she is still devoted to writing, her secretary, an orphan girl, whom she calls "my eyes" and who is known to Mrs. Grant's friends as "Miss Mary," doing the manual part of the labor. The feminine world will be delighted to learn that she is rapidly nearing the conclusion of her own memoirs. She is an earnest, graceful writer, with a keen sense of humor and a happy knack of condensation.

Mrs. James A. Garfield is another president's widow who prefers Washington as a winter home. Indeed she is never so happy as when there and, with the exception of last winter, has enjoyed her best health in the District of Columbia. Last year she was attacked by the prevailing malady, influ-

MRS. BENJAMIN HARRISON.

life and disliking any publicity, she especially abhors any ostentatious living.

There is but one other widow of a president, and that is Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, who was never the first lady of the land, as she was married after Mr. Harrison's term had expired and when he was simply a citizen of Indiana. While Mrs. Harrison does not as yet make Washington her home, there is a well defined rumor that she intends to buy a house in the capital in order that her little daughter Elizabeth may be educated in the city where her father lived while chief executive.

If Mrs. Harrison does go to Washington, it will not be as a stranger, for as niece of the president's first wife she used to be very prominent in society there. When the general was inaugurated president, she was a widow, living in Washington with her mother and grandfather, who was the first Mrs. Harrison's father. After her mother's death she went with her grandfather to the White House and lived there nearly as long as the Harrison family occupied it, acting as Mrs. Harrison's secretary.

General Harrison's second wedding, which took place in New York in 1896, was a very quiet one. After the honeymoon the general and Mrs. Harrison returned to his Indianapolis home, where they were living at the time of his death.

Like Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. Harrison is very fond of home life. The house in Indianapolis is one of the old fashioned square brick style, which makes it inconspicuous among the more elegant residences along that part of North Delaware avenue. The furnishings reflect Mrs. Harrison's subdued taste. The drawing room is even somber in its hues. The oiled floor has coverings of dull tinted rugs, and the tapestry hangings and upholstery are of the same tone. Teatables, however, evidence the hostess's inclination for a cozy chat over the cup that cheers.

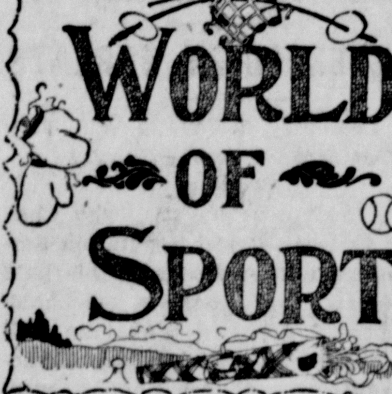

WE ARE GOING TO

THE SLEEPLESS SHOE CO.,

IN THE DIAMOND

To Get Our Christmas SHOES and SLIPPERS.

One of the interesting and significant features in the arena of sport at the present time is the revival and development of dog coursing. The racing of specially bred and specially trained dogs is an attractive, soul stirring pastime. A few years ago Americans were enthusiastic patrons of the sport, and various racing courses proved very profitable to their owners. For some unknown reason, however, the fleet footed dogs dropped from a pinnacle of prominence, and not until very recently did prospects for a boom assume definite form.

Whippets are the favorite dogs for short distance speeding. The steel muscled, game but nervous little creatures cover the ground in marvelously rapid fashion, fighting fiercely for every inch of the course like a thoroughbred race horse. Indeed, a whippet of good blood has every bit as much of that undefinable something termed spirit as the champion of a great equine racing stable has.

Professional as well as amateur breeders are taking advantage of the rise of whippet stock in popularity and are securing control of all available dogs. Several well appointed courses are to be constructed in or near certain of the large cities, and all indications point to the establishment of the recreation on a flourishing basis.

The movement recently originated in New York to bring to the United States a team of representative English schoolboy athletes for the purpose of matching them against our youthful academic aspirants for fame is one that deserves the loyal support of every American sportsman. Contests of this nature have never yet been held, and the innovation would undoubtedly lead to decidedly beneficial results. Many valuable lessons were derived from the international intercollegiate athletic carnivals, and a similar exhibition by boys in the preparatory institutions would attract much attention.

RACING WHIPPETS HELD IN LEASH.

Terry McGovern's defeat at the hands of "Young Corbett" of Denver was the means of placing a thoroughly estimable family "on easy street." The westerner's family is not particularly blessed with the world's goods, and now that the plucky, stocky young son has placed himself in touch with thousands of dollars they will be enabled to derive more pleasure from living. Rothwell ("Young Corbett's" name when in private life) has been deluged with offers from managers in behalf of their ambitious charges. The Denverite is just beginning to realize what the world's featherweight championship means to its possessor, and if the press of attention continues "Terrible Terry's" conqueror will be forced to engage the services of a corps of private secretaries.

EAST LIVERPOOL BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

The Fryett Art Co.
5th and Broadway
Are making fine Platino Photographs, 12 on Mantello Cards, one extra one on 8x10 Mounts, all for $2.00.
Gallery open every evening.

BURNS & McQUILKIN,
LIVERY AND UNDERTAKING.
262 West Market Street.
Both Phones 10

ABRAHAM BURLINGAME,
Wucherer's Addition.
Up-to-date Carpet Cleaning, latest improved machinery. Will take up, clean and relay carpet at reasonable rates.

FURNISHED Rooms For Rent with Use of Bath.
—THE—
ANDERSON HOUSE,
Cor. Walnut and Robinson Sts.

Oysters served in every style.
J. B. Rowe
RESTAURANT AND DINING PARLOR
QUICK LUNCH.
Cor. Third and Washington Sts.

C. N. MILLER,
176 West Sixth street.
Successor to J. D. West.
Livery and Undertaking.
Latest methods of Embalming. Lady Assistant.
Both Phones No. 38.

JUMBO COAL
The Best Grade Furnished by the Pittsburgh Coal Co., for sale by
J. F. BILLINGSLEY,
Lincoln Ave. and East Market Street.
Col. Co. Phone 142. Bell 308-3.

Try a News Review
"Want" Ad. if you want best results at once

Terry's anxiety to don the mitts in the ring again with "Corbett" is what might well be alluded to as affecting. The "Brooklyn Whirlwind" was the most independent piece of humanity that ever hit a punching bag during the happy days when he held the title. His arguments that the Denverite grant him a return match before even the smoke of the last sad battle has cleared away shows the former champion up in rather an inconsistent light.

The annual meetings of the National and American leagues cleared the baseball atmosphere somewhat, but there is still considerable fog on the horizon. The National has before it a fight for its very existence. Ban Johnson is marshaling his forces into formidable battle array, and there will be "something doing all the while."

The capture of another bunch of National stars was a hard blow to the older organization. The places of Delahanty and Wolverton of Philadelphia, Heldrick, Burkett and Donovan of St. Louis, Green of Chicago and so on down the list cannot readily be filled. The public is fond of watching games in which top notch players appear, and the National will lose many hundreds of dollars from their receipts by reason of the American's action.

The Alps.
The Alps cover a space of 90,000 square miles. In them rivers have their source flowing into the North sea, Black sea and Mediterranean.

Tools in the House.
Expense, inconvenience and nervous irritation can be saved by having in the house a few tools such as are used in doing what may be called "small jobs," provided their possession is accompanied by some knowledge of how to use them.

Lemons.
Lemons should be kept in water until they are wanted for use, and the skin will not only be kept from hardening, but their flavor will be improved.

Tobacco.
The world's tobacco crop of 850,000 tons is grown on 2,250,000 acres of land.

It became necessary for an Emsworth papa to chastise mildly his small son the other evening. Some time later, wishing to negotiate for a favor, the chastised one stated his wishes and as an inducement added:

"Papa!"
"Well, James?"
"If you'll do this, papa, I'll excuse you for that whipping you gave me."
Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

LOTS FOR SALE

In the Thomas F. Starkey, 1st Addition.

Why climb hills when you can buy Lots within three squares of the Diamond on easy terms.

Inquire of
THOS. F. STARKEY,
137 Sheridan Ave.

By opening a "bank account" with Care and Worry you save the necessity of keeping accounts, as every check which you issue is a receipt to be returned to you every time your bank book is balanced.

Citizen's National Bank
East Liverpool, Ohio.

More new readers of the News Review every day. It is the favorite home paper.

COLLEGE ATHLETES.

Strength and Endurance the Result of Proper Training.

Blood Wine—Used at Principal Universities—Improves General Health of Students.

The interest in college athletics is undoubtedly growing. This is due to several causes. Probably the first reason is that of making a name for oneself—which goes down in history and becomes a monument to one's memory—respected and honored by the succeeding generations and constituents of the several institutions of learning.

The fact that athletics, as now indulged in throughout the country, has been a means of turning sickly, puny men into sturdy specimens of manhood is also a very great inducement, and serves to arouse athletic instincts in thousands of young fellows, who would otherwise have no aspirations in that direction.

The training of a college athlete is a good example for everyone to follow throughout life.

FRANK J. KERNS.

Where can you find any better representation of good health, good disposition, good cheer and good citizenship?

These fellows are made what they are. Proper food, good hours, careful medical examinations and advice enable them to rid their systems of disease and supplant weakness with strength. How many deaths take place in our large colleges? Few, not as many as in towns with half the population. "Blood Wine" is used in nearly all of the great colleges. It is one of the essentials when in training. It makes muscle and sinew because it contains ingredients that separate the nutrition from the waste in our food and turn it right into the vital substances of the system. It differs from anything else ever prescribed, simply because it was made to do just that very thing. College professors of Materia Medica and chemistry in advising their students to use "Blood Wine" recognize in it this peculiar property not to be found elsewhere in a medicine all prepared and ready to take. No injurious drugs or opiates enter into its composition.

"Blood Wine" is certainly the most potent of any medicine ever used while training. It seems to correct the wrong activity of every organ of your system. I take it right along—wouldn't be without it—because I believe it as much a food as a tonic and I have yet to see the first day that it hasn't kept me feeling fine. I find that nearly all college men take it and meet with the same results. FRANK J. KERNS, Capt. Georgetown Varsity Crew.

If you have a cough, a cold, if your lungs are affected or you have kidney troubles, rheumatism, dyspepsia, lameness of your joints, pains in your back or chest, if you don't sleep well, can't relish a good meal or are pale or losing flesh, "Blood Wine," just as sure as gospel, will help you, because it begins at the bottom. It makes new blood of old. Investigate it for yourself, go to the drugstore and get a free sample, read the literature and bear in mind always that "Blood Wine" represents not an old but a new, modern method of treating disease. It contains no wine or opiates. Get it or your sample at Will Reed and Wadson's drug stores.

Providing For a Wayward Son.

Lord Chesterfield gave advice to his son in sundry letters, which might or might not be followed, but in his will he took good care that "my godson, Philip Stanhope," should have strong inducement to follow his advice on at least one point. All the bequests are subject to the condition that if Philip should keep race horses or hounds or stay one night at Newmarket, "that infamous seminary of iniquity and ill manners," during the course of the races there, or should lose on any one day by betting or gaming as much as $500, then in such case he shall forfeit $5,000 to the dean and chapter of Westminster for every such offense.—All the Year Round.

Know Your Own Capacity.

If the people about you are carrying on their business or their benevolence at a pace which draws the life out of you, resolutely take a slower pace; be called a laggard, make less money, accomplish less work than they, but be what you are meant to be and can be. You have your natural limit of power as much as an engine—ten horsepower or twenty or a hundred. You are fit to do certain kinds of work, and you need a certain kind and amount of fuel and a certain kind of handling.—George S. Merriam.

Cleaning Jewels.

With the exception of pearls jewels may be washed with warm water and pure soap. They should then be put in a boxwood sawdust to dry. If this is done, polishing will be unnecessary. As boxwood sawdust is very fine, it will not scratch, and as it absorbs moisture rapidly it helps to give jewels a high polish. It can be procured from any dealer in jeweler's supplies or ordered through a jeweler.

WIDOWS OF OUR... PRESIDENTS

Washington might well be called a city of famous widows. Whatever the attraction may be, certain it is that many a woman whose husband has shone at the capital as statesman or soldier, no matter where her home used to be, drifts back to Washington eventually to live in the city of her former glory. This desire is only natural enough, and it seems especially natural that widows of our presidents should make their homes in Washington, a city which must mean so much enza, and was obliged to leave Washington to recuperate along the Florida coast.

While in Washington Mrs. Garfield always spends her time with her daughter Mollie, now Mrs. Stanley Brown. She is in most congenial company, for the home life of the Stanley Browns carries out Mrs. Garfield's idea of what home should be. Her grandchildren are courteous and well behaved and were reared in accordance with the rules for the children in their grandmother's home.

Mrs. Garfield's entire life has been a lofty example of the American woman, wife and mother. The martyred president's repeated testimony to her love and affection for him given when he was dying forms one of the most pathetic yet beautiful chapters in the history of American presidents.

After the assassination of her husband it seemed for a time that she would make Cleveland her home, but she gave up her place of residence there when she went on a visit to Europe. When she returned to the United States, it was to go to the Garfield home at Mentor, O., where she still lives when not in Washington. But for the visits of her children Mrs. Garfield is almost alone in the great house at Mentor. She is too busy to be lonely, however, for the management of her large estate involves much labor. Charitable works, too, occupy her mind. Like Mrs. Grant, she was voted a pension. In addition, a popular subscription for her benefit was started which brought $363,000 in cash. Judicious investments of this have made her very wealthy, and from her large resources she contributes liberally to educational and philanthropic institutions.

She also gives much to the needy and to churches and takes a deep interest in missionary work. When she lived in Cleveland, she was president of the McCall Association Auxiliary in that city. Unostentatious in her private

MRS. U. S. GRANT.

to them. It will not be at all surprising should Mrs. McKinley follow the example of so many and some day take up her permanent residence there.

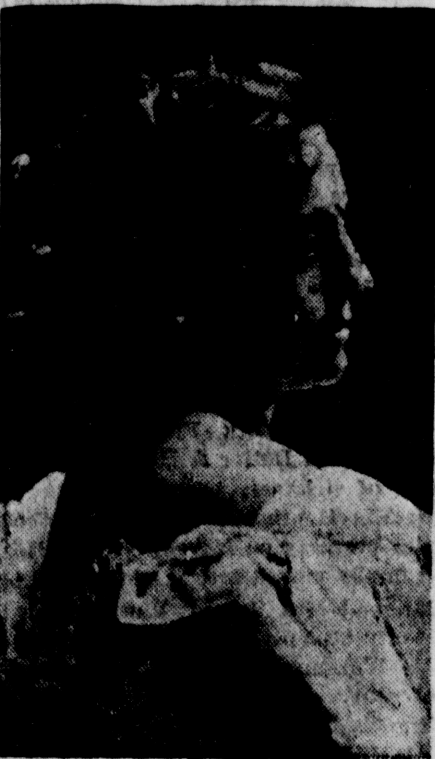

One of the most famous widows living in the capital is Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant. Her house on Massachusetts avenue is one of the handsomest as well as one of the best known residences in Washington. She purchased it from ex-Senator Edmunds, and it was the house that Richard Olney occupied when he entered official life. It is a structure of about fifteen rooms, is built of pressed brick and is trimmed in brownstone. The interior is as handsome as the exterior. The furnishings are mostly historic, and Mrs. Grant delights to recall the associations that belong to certain things, like rugs and vases, that are gifts from foreign personages.

President Grant's widow is now in her seventy-fifth year. Small in stature, she is bent with advancing years, but her interest in people and events has not been dimmed by age. Much of her personal supervision is given to the dinners and receptions held at her home. Every afternoon she rests a few hours, and when she comes down stairs to welcome visitors she looks fresh and attractive. She attributes her health largely to the restful way in which she spends her summers. Each year she leaves Washington at the approach of warm weather and goes to Coburg, a delightful little Canadian town on the north shore of Lake Ontario. There she and her daughter, Mrs. Sartoris, live together during the summer months, splendidly entertained by the Canadians, with whom both are very popular.

Mrs. Grant is devoted to her family, her children and her grandchildren and carefully cherishes her love for the dead president. In speaking of him she always refers to him as "the general." No married couple ever lived closer to each other than did the Grants. To her he was always the dashing young lieutenant who wooed and won her before the past century had attained its meridian. She was perhaps his only confidant. The two were one in almost everything. She was by his side through all the hardships of their early career, and when his fatal illness came those qualities which had at first endeared her to him became more and more nationally known, winning the unstinted admiration of the people.

Mrs. Grant draws an annual pension of $5,000, but her income is far more, for the royalties accruing from the sale of the general's memoirs are reported to have passed the half million mark. Although practically deprived of her sight, she is still devoted to writing, her secretary, an orphan girl, whom she calls "my eyes" and who is known to Mrs. Grant's friends as "Miss Mary," doing the manual part of the labor. The feminine world will be delighted to learn that she is rapidly nearing the conclusion of her own memoirs. She is an earnest, graceful writer, with a keen sense of humor and a happy knack of condensation.

Mrs. James A. Garfield is another president's widow who prefers Washington as a winter home. Indeed she is never so happy as when there and, with the exception of last winter, has enjoyed her best health in the District of Columbia. Last year she was attacked by the prevailing malady, influ-

MRS. BENJAMIN HARRISON.

life and disliking any publicity, she especially abhors any ostentatious giving.

There is but one other widow of a president, and that is Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, who was never the first lady of the land, as she was married after Mr. Harrison's term had expired and when he was simply a citizen of Indiana. While Mrs. Harrison does not as yet make Washington her home, there is a well defined rumor that she intends to buy a house in the capital in order that her little daughter Elizabeth may be educated in the city where her father lived while chief executive.

If Mrs. Harrison does go to Washington, it will not be as a stranger, for as niece of the president's first wife she used to be very prominent in society there. When the general was inaugurated president, she was a widow, living in Washington with her mother and grandfather, who was the first Mrs. Harrison's father. After her mother's death she went with her grandfather to the White House and lived there nearly as long as the Harrison family occupied it, acting as Mrs. Harrison's secretary.

General Harrison's second wedding, which took place in New York in 1896, was a very quiet one. After the honeymoon the general and Mrs. Harrison returned to his Indianapolis home, where they were living at the time of his death.

Like Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. Harrison is very fond of home life. The house in Indianapolis is one of the old fashioned square brick style, which makes it inconspicuous among the more elegant residences along that part of North Delaware avenue. The furnishings reflect Mrs. Harrison's subdued taste. The drawing room is even somber in its hues. The oiled floor has coverings of dull tinted rugs, and the tapestry hangings and upholstery are of the same tone. Teatimes, however, evidence the hostess' inclination for a cozy chat over the cup that cheers.

WE ARE GOING TO

THE SLEEPLESS SHOE CO.,

IN THE DIAMOND

To Get Our Christmas SHOES and SLIPPERS.

WORLD OF SPORT

One of the interesting and significant features in the arena of sport at the present time is the revival and development of dog coursing. The racing of specially bred and specially trained dogs is an attractive, soul stirring pastime. A few years ago Americans were enthusiastic patrons of the sport, and various racing courses proved very profitable to their owners. For some unknown reason, however, the fleet footed dogs dropped from a pinnacle of prominence, and not until very recently did prospects for a boom assume definite form.

Whippets are the favorite dogs for short distance speeding. The steel muscled, game but nervous little creatures cover the ground in marvelously rapid fashion, fighting fiercely for every inch of the course like a thoroughbred race horse. Indeed, a whippet of good blood has every bit as much of that undefinable something termed spirit as the champion of a great equine racing stable has.

Professional as well as amateur breeders are taking advantage of the rise of whippet stock in popularity and are securing control of all available dogs. Several well appointed courses are to be constructed in or near certain of the large cities, and all indications point to the establishment of the recreation on a flourishing basis.

The movement recently originated in New York to bring to the United States a team of representative English schoolboy athletes for the purpose of matching them against our youthful academic aspirants for fame is one that deserves the loyal support of every American sportsman. Contests of this nature have never yet been held, and the innovation would undoubtedly lead to decidedly beneficial results. Many valuable lessons were derived from the international intercollegiate athletic carnivals, and a similar exhibition by boys in the preparatory institutions would attract much attention.

RACING WHIPPETS HELD IN LEASH.

Terry McGovern's defeat at the hands of "Young Corbett" of Denver was the means of placing a thoroughly estimable family "on easy street." The westerner's family is not particularly blessed with the world's goods, and now that the plucky, stocky young son has placed himself in touch with thousands of dollars they will be enabled to derive more pleasure from living. Rothwell ("Young Corbett's" name when in private life) has been deluged with offers from managers in behalf of their ambitious charges. The Denverite is just beginning to realize what the world's featherweight championship means to its possessor, and if the press of attention continues "Terrible Terry's" conqueror will be forced to engage the services of a corps of private secretaries.

EAST LIVERPOOL BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

The Fryett Art Co.
5th and Broadway
Are making fine Platino Photographs, 12 on Mantello Cards, one extra one on 8x10 Mounts, all for $2.00. Gallery open every evening.

Oysters served in every style.
J. B. Rowe
RESTAURANT AND DINING PARLOR
QUICK LUNCH.
Cor. Third and Washington Sts.

BURNS & McQUILKIN,
LIVERY AND UNDERTAKING.
202 West Market Street.
Both Phones 10

C. N. MILLER,
176 West Sixth street,
Successor to J. D. West.
Livery and Undertaking.
Latest methods of Embalming. Lady Assistant.
Both Phones No. 38.

ABRAHAM BURLINGAME,
Wucherer's Addition,
Up-to-date Carpet Cleaning, latest improved machinery. Will take up, clean and relay carpet at reasonable rates.

JUMBO COAL
The Best Grade Furnished by the Pittsburgh Coal Co., for sale by
J. F. BILLINGSLEY,
Lincoln Ave. and East Market Street.
Col. Co. Phone 142. Bell 208-3.

FURNISHED Rooms For Rent with Use of Bath.
—THE—
ANDERSON HOUSE,
Cor. Walnut and Robinson Sts.

Try a News Review
"Want" Ad. if you want best results at once

Terry's anxiety to don the mitts in the ring again with "Corbett" is what might well be attributed to as affecting. The "Brooklyn Whirlwind" was the most independent piece of humanity that ever hit a punching bag during the happy days when he held the title. His arguments that the Denverite grant him a return match before even the smoke of the last and battle has cleared away shows the former champion up in rather an inconsistent light.

The annual meetings of the National and American leagues cleared the baseball atmosphere somewhat, but there is still considerable fog on the horizon. The National has before it a fight for its very existence. Ban Johnson is marshaling his forces into formidable battle array, and there will be "something doing all the while."

The capture of another bunch of National stars was a hard blow to the older organization. The places of Delahanty and Wolverton of Philadelphia, Heldrick, Burkett and Donovan of St. Louis, Green of Chicago and so on down the list cannot readily be filled. The public is fond of watching games in which top notch players appear, and the National will lose many hundreds of dollars from their receipts by reason of the American's action.

The Alps.
The Alps cover a space of 90,000 square miles. In them rivers have their source flowing into the North sea, Black sea and Mediterranean.

Tools in the House.
Expense, inconvenience and nervous irritation can be saved by having in the house a few tools such as are used in doing what may be called "small jobs," provided their possession is accompanied by some knowledge of how to use them.

Lemons.
Lemons should be kept in water until they are wanted for use, and the skin will not only be kept from hardening, but their flavor will be improved.

Tobacco.
The world's tobacco crop of 850,000 tons is grown on 2,250,000 acres of land.

It became necessary for an Emsworth papa to chastise mildly his small son the other evening. Some time later, wishing to negotiate for a favor, the chastised one stated his wishes and as an inducement added:

"Papa!"
"Well, James?"
"If you'll do this, papa, I'll excuse you for that whipping you gave me."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

LOTS FOR SALE

In the Thomas F. Starkey, 1st Addition.

Why climb hills when you can buy Lots within three squares of the Diamond on easy terms.

Inquire of
THOS. F. STARKEY,
137 Sheridan Ave.

Share Yourself By opening a "bank account." It will save you the necessity of keeping accounts, as every check which you issue is a receipt, as every check you every time your bank book is balanced.

Citizen's National Bank
East Liverpool, Ohio.

More new readers of the News Review every day. It is the favorite home paper.

STATEMENT OF FAITH.

Presbyterian Committee on the Revision of the Creed Finished It.

TO EXPLAIN DISPUTED POINTS.

Committee Working on a Second Instruction From the Assembly, the Preparation of a Declaratory Statement—One Point, Infant Salvation.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The Presbyterian committee on creed revision completed the brief statement of the reformed faith for the information of church members. It consists of 16 articles. The official statement given out, after saying the statement was tentatively adopted, adds:

"The committee is now engaged on the matter of the second instruction from the assembly, the preparation of a declaratory statement to explain certain disputed points in the confession of faith, such as the doctrines of election and of the salvation of all infants."

PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL.

Payne Measure Reported to House. Minority Report Made.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The house, after less than an hour's session, adjourned from yesterday until Tuesday. The bill to temporarily provide revenue for the Philippine islands was reported by Mr. Payne, and by unanimous consent an order for the consideration of this bill on Tuesday and Wednesday next was adopted, general debate to close at 4 o'clock on Wednesday, when the bill will be placed upon its passage.

The official announcement of the death of the late Representative Brosius, of Pennsylvania, which occurred last summer, was made by Mr. Cassell, his successor.

The Philippine tariff bill as finally reported is a substitute for the original Payne bill, which, however, it follows throughout except in a few minor particulars, and the addition of a proviso to section six, that all articles subject under the laws of the United States to internal revenue tax, or on which the internal revenue tax has been paid, and which may under existing laws and regulations be exported to a foreign country without the payment of such tax, or with the benefit of a drawback, as the case may be, may also be shipped to the Philippine islands with like privilege. Where imported materials on which duties have been paid, are used in the manufacture of articles manufactured or produced in the United States, there shall be allowed on the shipment of said articles to the Philippine archipelago a drawback equal in amount to the duties paid on the materials used, less 1 per cent of such duties.

Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, presented to the house the minority report signed by all the Democrats of the ways and means committee except Mr. Robertson, of Louisiana.

At the final meeting of the ways and means committee for the final consideration of the bill Representative Robertson (Dem., La.) announced that he would vote for the bill in the house, and Representative McCall (Rep., Mass.) announced that he would vote against it.

STRONG ANTI-MILITIA TALK.

But Federation Convention Tabled the Subject.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 14.—Among other proceedings in the American Federation of Labor convention the proposition to increase the number of vice presidents from six to eight was defeated. The increase was recommended by the committee on law, but many delegates made warm speeches against the increase. Charges were made that the executive council, of which the vice presidents are members, was back of the proposition, but this was vehemently denied. A resolution instructing unions to hold aloof from the militia of the several states was debated for a long time. Strong language against the use of the militia in times of strikes was used, but the whole subject was tabled. The convention decided to increase the per capita tax of national and international unions from one-third to one-half of 1 per cent per member per month, and also agreed to raise the per capita tax of federal and local trade unions from 5 to 10 cents a month for each member, the increase of 5 cents to go toward the raising of a defense fund for those unions. The committees reported many resolutions on other matters and favorable action was taken on many of them.

To Provide Employment For Convicts.

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 14.—The directors of the state penitentiary, acting upon the suggestion of the national prison congress, which met recently in Kansas City, has bought a farm of 65 acres, about a mile from the prison. It will be worked by short-term convicts and is expected to provide all the farm and garden products necessary for the institution. The directors also decided to build a new chapel and dining room, the present buildings to be converted into shops for contract labor.

MRS. BONINE

DECLARED NOT GUILTY.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The jury in the trial of Mrs. Ida Bonine, accused of the murder of James Seymour Ayres, Jr., the young census office clerk, killed in the Kenmore hotel last spring, returned a verdict last night of not guilty, after being out for about four hours.

ASK LEWIS BROS. ABOUT IT.

Pocket Book Importance.

The Slim Wallet Can Do Much On Our Floors.

We sell the

Morris Chairs

Which have the Automatic Ratchet which does not get out of order. See them before you buy.

China Closet

Makes a nice Christmas Present and it don't cost as much as you think. We have nice ones $17 and up. Also cheaper if you want them.

Reed Chair

Is not so bad. See them before they are picked over.

Music Cabinets

In all woods from $5.00 to $30.00. Bamboo $1.75 up.

ASK LEWIS BROS. ABOUT IT

DEER AND MOOSE, BIG GAME KINGS.

Denizens of the Forest That Supply Greatest of Sport For Hunters.

Now that the moose and deer hunting seasons in various parts of the United States are over it is in order to indulge in a short retrospect. Hunters have returned from their wooded haunts bringing tangible evidences of an unusual plenitude of the coveted quarry, and, as in former years, their accounts of personal exploits are suggestive of somewhat expanded imaginations, yet strong grounds exist for the statement that the fall of 1901 established many new records.

Probably no other game district in the country has become more popular during the last decade than the good old state of Maine. Thousands of aspiring nimrods and votaries of the clicking reel count that year lost which does not afford them an opportunity to renew their intimacy with the delights of the chase and stream. The pine tree region awards them unexcelled and in most cases unequalled field for conquest, and they are not slow to take advantage of it.

FULL-GROWN MOOSE STANDING AT BAY. (Taken from a photograph.)

Maine has always been known as the home of moose and deer. These monarchs of the forest provide the grandest sport to be had in America, and, despite the onslaughts of woodsmen and modern shooting irons, they continue to be found in imposing numbers. The recently closed moose hunting season will long be remembered by frequenters of the north woods. Records of a year ago were relegated far to the rear, and, although the laws restrict the shipping of more than one body from the state by a single person, the railroads touching prolific game districts were very busy supplying transportation for the trophies of the hunt. Statutes governing the killing of deer are less stringent. Three may be killed between Sept. 1 and Dec. 15. Not more than two deer may be shipped from the state by one person. By reason of this arrangement shipments of deer outnumber those of moose by about fifteen to one.

DO YOU SEE THE DOG THE BOYS ARE RUNNING FROM?

Owing to certain conditions of ownership of the wild lands in northern Maine nearly the whole upper half of the state, about 15,000 square miles, is practically one great preserve. The wild lands, once a property of the state, are now owned by men who wish to keep them as they are because of returns from the timber. The state assumes the right of eminent domain over these immense tracts in the matter of hunting and makes laws accordingly. This conserves the supply of game, making better sport as the years go on.

Game is so abundant in this enormous preserve that any man capable of carrying a gun and walking in the forest is sure of getting a shot at a deer, while men who go for moose seldom leave the thickets without having come up with the object of their quest. Whether they secure the much desired pair of antlers or not depends on their skill. The game is there.

It is impossible to estimate the number of deer in Maine. They increase very rapidly, notwithstanding the number killed every year. Not fewer than 10,000 sportsmen have visited the state this year, and competent judges estimate that at least 15,000 deer have fallen before their rifles. Of course more than 25 per cent have been shipped to other parts.

The deer in Maine are the common Virginia, or whitetail, deer. They are wild and quick to take alarm when being hunted, but are tame enough in summer when around the lakes and streams. Here they are seen feeding on lily pads, which are their favorite summer food. They also eat tender foliage of various kinds and are so fond of vegetables that in the clearings and around the towns gardens suffer much from their visitations.

In the fall after the water becomes cold the deer quit the edges of the streams and lakes and retire a little way inland, feeding in or near swamps and on ridges. In October and November the bucks range far in quest of does, as that is the rutting season. In December and January, after the snow comes, the deer form yards or roads in the snow, which they keep trodden down, and along these they feed from the browse afforded by cedar, hemlock and other trees. They are very fond of the ground hemlock, but as this generally grows low it is covered with snow early in the winter.

The Virginian deer is a soft brownish gray color. It is extremely fleet of foot and moves through the thickest growth with ease. It is a good swimmer and is frequently seen in the lakes in summer by canoeists. The bucks attain a weight of 275 pounds.

Ice and Steel.

The friction of steel on ice is exactly half that of ice on ice.

Those Foolish Questions!

Benevolent Old Lady—How old are you, sir?
The Youngster—Thirty-five.
Benevolent Old Lady—Bachelor?
The Youngster—Alas, yes.
Benevolent Old Lady—Ah, too bad.
How long?—New York Times.

Their Little Spat.

Boggs—I hear you have fallen out with your sweetheart.
Joggs—Yes. She got an idea into her head that I was angry at her, and it made me angry to have her think I was unreasonable enough to get angry at her.—Chicago News.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of East Liverpool Readers Are Learning the Duties of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

East Liverpool people endorse our

Mr. R. H. Hawkins, an employe at Sebring's pottery, who lives at 234 Second street, says: "I had been taking medicine for my kidneys right along and if I had found a cure I would have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled two years or more with distressing backache across the loins, a steady aching pain with a quick twinge now and then while stooping or lifting, that felt as if a sharp instrument had pierced my back, and the secretions of the kidneys were highly colored; feverish or slightly scalding. Work seemed to be a drag; I had no energy and I am more than thankful that I was induced to go to the W. & W. pharmacy and get Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking them there was no sign of my old complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Sold by W. & W. Pharmacy.

Home-Seekers' Excursion via Penna Lines.

Low rate Home-Seekers' excursion tickets to points in West and South will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines November 26th and 19th; also on December 2d and 17th. Particular information about fares, time of trains and other details will be furnished upon application to Passenger and Ticket Agents of the Penna Lines. 125-2-0-1

LEGAL.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS.

Office of City Clerk.

East Liverpool, O., Nov. 15, 1901.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock m., of Tuesday, Dec. 17, 1901, for the purchase of $50,000 bonds of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Said bonds will be dated January 1, 1902, and will bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of January and July of each year, and will be of the denomination of One Thousand dollars each. The bonds will be due and payable twenty years from the date thereof, but are redeemable at the option of said city, at any time after ten years from the date of issue, both principal and interest payable at the Chase National bank of the city of New York.

These bonds are issued for the purpose of paying outstanding indebtedness of said city, and by authority of Section 2701 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, and an ordinance passed by the council of said city, November 14, 1901.

Bidders will be required to state in writing and in figures the gross amount they will pay for the bonds bid for in addition to the accrued interest at the date of delivery, and no bid will be accepted for less than par and accrued interest at date of delivery.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check on some national bank for 5 per cent of the amount of the bid, check to be made payable to the order of the clerk of said city, as a guarantee that if the bid is accepted the bonds will be promptly paid for when delivered, otherwise said deposit to be forfeited to said city.

The city council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Proposals shall be addressed to

J. N. HANLEY, City Clerk.

Published in the Evening News Review Nov. 16, 23, 30, Dec. 7, 14.

HOLIDAY TRIPS

At Reduced Fares via Penna Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold December 24th, 25th and 31st, 1901, and January 1st, 1902, via Pennsylvania Lines, account Christmas and New Year's Holidays. Rate for adults will not be less than 30 cents, nor less than 15 cents for children. Tickets will be good returning until January 3d, 1902, inclusive. For details about fares, time of trains, etc., call on or address, Adam Hill, Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, Ohio. 154-200-11

More new readers of the News Review every day. It is the favorite home paper.

STATEMENT OF FAITH.

Presbyterian Committee on the Revision of the Creed Finished It.

TO EXPLAIN DISPUTED POINTS.

Committee Working on a Second Instruction From the Assembly, the Preparation of a Declaratory Statement—One Point, Infant Salvation.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The Presbyterian committee on creed revision completed the brief statement of the reformed faith for the information of church members. It consists of 16 articles. The official statement given out, after saying the statement was tentatively adopted, adds:

"The committee is now engaged on the matter of the second instruction from the assembly, the preparation of a declaratory statement to explain certain disputed points in the confession of faith, such as the doctrines of election and of the salvation of all infants."

PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL.

Payne Measure Reported to House. Minority Report Made.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The house, after less than an hour's session, adjourned from yesterday until Tuesday. The bill to temporarily provide revenue for the Philippine islands was reported by Mr. Payne, and by unanimous consent an order for the consideration of this bill on Tuesday and Wednesday next was adopted, general debate to close at 4 o'clock on Wednesday, when the bill will be placed upon its passage.

The official announcement of the death of the late Representative Brosius, of Pennsylvania, which occurred last summer, was made by Mr. Cassell, his successor.

The Philippine tariff bill as finally reported is a substitute for the original Payne bill, which, however, it follows throughout except in a few minor particulars, and the addition of a proviso to section six, that all articles subject under the laws of the United States to internal revenue tax, or on which the internal revenue tax has been paid, and which may under existing laws and regulations be exported to a foreign country without the payment of such tax or with the benefit of a drawback, as the case may be, may also be shipped to the Philippine islands with like privilege. Where imported materials on which duties have been paid, are used in the manufacture of articles manufactured or produced in the United States, there shall be allowed on the shipment of said articles to the Philippine archipelago a drawback equal in amount to the duties paid on the materials used, less 1 per cent of such duties.

Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, presented to the house the minority report signed by all the Democrats of the ways and means committee except Mr. Robertson, of Louisiana.

At the final meeting of the ways and means committee for the final consideration of the bill Representative Robertson (Dem., La.) announced that he would vote for the bill in the house, and Representative McCall (Rep., Mass.) announced that he would vote against it.

STRONG ANTI-MILITIA TALK.

But Federation Convention Tabled the Subject.

Seranton, Pa., Dec. 14.—Among other proceedings in the American Federation of Labor convention the proposition to increase the number of vice presidents from six to eight was defeated. The increase was recommended by the committee on law, but many delegates made warm speeches against the increase. Charges were made that the executive council, of which the vice presidents are members, was back of the proposition, but this was vehemently denied. A resolution instructing unions to hold aloof from the militia of the several states was debated for a long time. Strong language against the use of the militia in times of strikes was used, but the whole subject was tabled. The convention decided to increase the per capita tax of national and international unions from one-third to one-half of 1 per cent per member per month, and also agreed to raise the per capita tax of federal and local trade unions from 5 to 10 cents a month for each member, the increase of 5 cents to go toward the raising of a defense fund for those unions. The committees reported many resolutions on other matters and favorable action was taken on many of them.

To Provide Employment For Convicts.

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 14.—The directors of the state penitentiary, acting upon the suggestion of the national prison congress, which met recently in Kansas City, has bought a farm of 65 acres, about a mile from the prison. It will be worked by short-term convicts and is expected to provide all the farm and garden products necessary for the institution. The directors also decided to build a new chapel and dining room, the present buildings to be converted into shops for contract labor.

MRS. BONINE

DECLARED NOT GUILTY.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The jury in the trial of Mrs. Ida Bonine, accused of the murder of James Seymour Ayres, Jr., the young census office clerk, killed in the Kenmore hotel last spring, returned a verdict last night of not guilty, after being out for about four hours.

ASK LEWIS BROS. ABOUT IT.

Pocket Book Importance.

The Slim Wallet Can Do Much On Our Floors.

We sell the

Morris Chairs

Which have the Automatic Ratchet which does not get out of order. See them before you buy.

China Closet

Makes a nice Christmas Present and it don't cost as much as you think. We have nice ones $17 and up. Also cheaper if you want them.

Reed Chair

Is not so bad. See them before they are picked over.

Music Cabinets

In all woods from $5.00 to $30.00. Bamboo $1.75 up.

ASK LEWIS BROS. ABOUT IT

DEER AND MOOSE, BIG GAME KINGS.

Denizens of the Forest That Supply Greatest of Sport For Hunters.

Now that the moose and deer hunting seasons in various parts of the United States are over it is in order to indulge in a short retrospect. Hunters have returned from their wooded haunts bringing tangible evidences of an unusual plenitude of the coveted quarry, and, as in former years, their accounts of personal exploits are suggestive of somewhat expanded imaginations, yet strong grounds exist for the statement that the fall of 1901 established many new records.

Probably no other game district in the country has become more popular during the last decade than the good old state of Maine. Thousands of aspiring nimrods and votaries of the clicking reel count that year lost which does not afford them an opportunity to renew their intimacy with the delights of the chase and stream. The pine tree region awards them unexcelled and in most cases unequalled field for conquest, and they are not slow to take advantage of it.

FULL-GROWN MOOSE STANDING AT BAY. (Taken from a photograph.)

Maine has always been known as the home of moose and deer. These monarchs of the forest provide the grandest sport to be had in America, and, despite the onslaughts of woodsmen and modern shooting irons, they continue to be found in imposing numbers. The recently closed moose hunting season will long be remembered by frequenters of the north woods. Records of a year ago were relegated far to the rear, and, although the laws restrict the shipping of more than one body from the state by a single person, the railroads touching prolific game districts were very busy supplying transportation for the trophies of the hunt. Statutes governing the killing of deer are less stringent. Three may be killed between Sept. 1 and Dec. 15. Not more than two deer may be shipped from the state by one person. By reason of this arrangement shipments of deer outnumber those of moose by about fifteen to one.

DO YOU SEE THE DOG THE BOYS ARE RUNNING FROM?

Owing to certain conditions of ownership of the wild lands in northern Maine nearly the whole upper half of the state, about 15,000 square miles, is practically one great preserve. The wild lands, once a property of the state, are now owned by men who wish to keep them as they are because of returns from the timber. The state assumes the right of eminent domain over these immense tracts in the matter of hunting and makes laws accordingly. This conserves the supply of game, making better sport as the years go on.

Game is so abundant in this enormous preserve that any man capable of carrying a gun and walking in the forest is sure of getting a shot at a deer, while men who go for moose seldom leave the thickets without having come up with the object of their quest. Whether they secure the much desired pair of antlers or not depends on their skill. The game is there.

It is impossible to estimate the number of deer in Maine. They increase very rapidly, notwithstanding the number killed every year. Not fewer than 10,000 sportsmen have visited the state this year, and competent judges estimate that at least 15,000 deer have fallen before their rifles. Of course more than 25 per cent have been shipped to other parts.

The deer in Maine are the common Virginia, or whitetail, deer. They are wild and quick to take alarm when being hunted, but are tame enough in summer when around the lakes and streams. Here they are seen feeding on lily pads, which are their favorite summer food. They also eat tender foliage of various kinds and are so fond of vegetables that in the clearings and around the towns' gardens suffer much from their visitations.

In the fall after the water becomes cold the deer quit the edges of the streams and lakes and retire a little way inland, feeding in or near swamps and on ridges. In October and November the bucks range far in quest of does, as that is the rutting season. In December and January, after the snow comes, the deer form yards or roads in the snow, which they keep trodden down, and along these they feed from the browse afforded by cedar, hemlock and other trees. They are very fond of the ground hemlock, but as this generally grows low it is covered with snow early in the winter.

The Virginian deer is a soft brownish gray color. It is extremely fleet of foot and moves through the thickest growth with ease. It is a good swimmer and is frequently seen in the lakes in summer by canoeists. The bucks attain a weight of 275 pounds.

Ice and Steel.

The friction of steel on ice is exactly half that of ice on ice.

Those Foolish Questions!

Benevolent Old Lady—How old are you, sir?
The Youngster—Thirty-five.
Benevolent Old Lady—Bachelor?
The Youngster—Alas, yes.
Benevolent Old Lady—Ah, too bad.
How long?—New York Times.

Their Little Spat.

Boggs—I hear you have fallen out with your sweetheart.
Joggs—Yes. She got an idea into her head that I was angry at her, and it made me angry to have her think I was unreasonable enough to get angry at her.—Chicago News.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of East Liverpool Readers Are Learning the Duties of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

claim.

East Liverpool people endorse our Mr. R. H. Hawkins, an employe at Sebring's pottery, who lives at 234 Second street, says: "I had been taking medicine for my kidneys right along and if I had found a cure I would have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled two years or more with distressing backache across the loins, a steady aching pain with a quick twinge now and then while stooping or lifting, that felt as if a sharp instrument had pierced my back, and the secretions of the kidneys were highly colored; feverish of slightly scalding. Work seemed to be a drag; I had no energy and I am more than thankful that I was induced to go to the W. & W. pharmacy and get Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking them there was no sign of my old complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMurray Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute. Sold by W. & W. Pharmacy.

Home-Seekers' Excursion via Penna Lines.

Low rate Home-Seekers' excursion tickets to points in West and South will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines November 24th and 30th; also on December 2d and 17th. Particular information about fares, time of trains and other details will be furnished upon application to Passenger and Ticket Agents of the Penna Lines.

LEGAL.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS.

Office of City Clerk.

East Liverpool, O., Nov. 15, 1901. Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock m., of Tuesday, Dec. 17, 1901, for the purchase of $50,000 bonds of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Said bonds will be dated January 1, 1902, and will bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first days of January and July of each year, and will be of the denomination of One Thousand dollars each. The bonds will be due and payable twenty years from the date thereof, but are redeemable at the option of said city, at any time after ten years from the date of issue, both principal and interest payable at the Chase National bank of the city of New York.

These bonds are issued for the purpose of paying outstanding indebtedness of said city, and by authority of Section 2701 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, and an ordinance passed by the council of said city, November 14, 1901.

Bidders will be required to state in writing and in figures the gross amount they will pay for the bonds bid for in addition to the accrued interest at the date of delivery, and no bid will be accepted for less than par and accrued interest at date of delivery.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check on some national bank for 5 per cent of the amount of the bid, check to be made payable to the order of the clerk of said city, as a guarantee that if the bid is accepted the bonds will be promptly paid for when delivered, otherwise said deposit to be forfeited to said city.

The city council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Proposals shall be addressed to J. N. HANLEY, City Clerk. Published in the Evening News Review Nov. 16, 23, 30, Dec. 7, 14.

HOLIDAY TRIPS

At Reduced Fares via Penna Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold December 24th, 25th and 31st, 1901, and January 1st, 1902, via Pennsylvania Lines, account Christmas and New Year's Holidays. Rate for adults will not be less than 30 cents, nor less than 15 cents for children. Tickets will be good returning until January 3d, 1902, inclusive. For details about fares, time of trains, etc., call on or address, Adam Hill, Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, Ohio. 154-eod-tf

More new readers of the News Review every day. It is the favorite home paper.

ROSS MEADOWS

As laid out by us in 1900, consisted of 21 parcels of land from 2 1-2 to 10 acres each. These are all sold except 4 pieces. We now offer you

ALLOTMENTS

of 2 1-2 acres, five acres, ten acres, or more in the south part of this farm. It is good land; it lies well; it fronts on public roads.

PRICES

$75, $100, and $125 per acre.

CASH, OR EASY TERMS

Don't Delay. Only about 40 acres of the original 160 acres are left.

ROSS MEADOWS

Is located 2 1-2 miles from the East Liverpool Diamond; 2 1-2 miles from the Wellsville, O., Square, on the Lisbon and East Liverpool Road and is intersected by the Cannon's Mill and Calcutta Roads.

SEE PLATS AT OUR OFFICE

Horse and buggy to take you to see it at any time.

ELIJAH W. HILL

REAL ESTATE DEALER

Corner Sixth and Washington Streets,

EAST LIVERPOOL, - O.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

A New Lawyer Coming—W. E. Warren, who has been practicing law in Leetonia for several years, will locate in East Liverpool.

Postponed the Election—The C. M. B. A. decided to postpone the election of officers until Dec. 26. They will hold a smoker next Thursday evening.

Ladies' Social—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. P. church had a social gathering at the home of Mrs. Anna Bullock, College street, last evening. Refreshments were served and the affair was most enjoyable.

Addressed the Teachers—State Commissioner of Schools L. E. Bonebrake was in the city yesterday and at 3 p. m. made an impressive and able address to the teachers. Supt. Rayman accompanied him to Youngstown, where he is to visit the schools today. He was most favorably impressed with what he saw of East Liverpool schools.

Hall to Be Repaired—The ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. met in special session last evening and decided to have the hall repaired and papered and the stage fixed up. Mrs. J. Wilson and Mrs. J. C. Allison will superintend the former and Mrs. W. C. Lynch and Mrs. R. B. Stevenson the latter work. The auxiliary is proving of most practical benefit to the association.

Century Club Meeting—The Century club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. M. Nickle, Thompson avenue. The subject under discussion is music. The officers of the club are: Mrs. J. T. Laughlin, president; Mrs. Clements, vice president; Mrs. A. S. Young, secretary; Miss Kate Harker, treasurer. The club has had very interesting meetings and expects many more the coming winter.

BASKET BALL GAME

First Game at the Y. M. C. A. Aroused Much Interest.

The first game of the newly formed basket ball league at the Y. M. C. A. took place last evening and was interesting. There was a large crowd of spectators present, a number of ladies being among them. Rigby's and Green's teams played, the former winning.

The rule that boys under 16 are not admitted shut out a lot of youngsters who crowded the entrance and made considerable annoyance. Hereafter the rule will be strictly enforced—boys under 16, unless with their parents, will not be admitted.

Brakeman Fatally Hurt.

Steubenville, December 14.—William Criss, a well known young Steubenville man, is at the hospital suffering with terrible injuries about the head and brain that will likely result in his death. Criss is a brakeman on the C. & P. night shifter at Mingo, and got a fall by the jolting of cars that resulted in a fracture of the skull.

Fine pipes, and high grade cigars in small boxes for holiday trade, at Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-r Christmas Presents.

Any and everything in presents for young and old. See our line. Prices the lowest. HILL & YATES. 153-r

A PHOTOGRAPH BY EDMONSTON WILL MAKE A GOOD CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR YOUR FRIENDS. 150-rt

Electric Wiring—Electric wiring for special holiday displays promptly attended to by The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

Toy's Toys!

Largest, finest and cheapest assortment of toys in the city. HILL & YATES. 153-r

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—Girl for dining room. Apply to Mrs. Sadie Anderson, 163 Market street. 154-r

SCHLEGEL'S OYSTERS ARE BEST
Shell Bulk Canned
Market Street. Both Phones 230.

KILNMEN'S UNION

(Continued from First Page.)

ing took in 18 or 20 girls and six more men.

President Hughes visited the local last Thursday evening and told a News Review reporter this morning that the organization is in a flourishing condition. The gentleman arranged for a meeting of the girls for last night and the local was formed. The attendance was most gratifying. The ladies' local starts off with a membership of over 80, and this number will reach 130 by the first of the year. The organization is No. 58.

The News Review made a canvass of the local potteries today with reference to the holiday loaf, and the following was the result:

The Laughlin No. 2 will suspend December 21 and will not resume until the 28th.

East Liverpool Pottery company, comprising the East Liverpool pottery, the East End, Globe, United States, Geo. C. Murphy plants, Wallace & Chetwynd—Two weeks beginning Dec. 21.

C. C. Thompson—From Dec. 24 to Dec. 30.

Standard—No suspension excepting Christmas and New Year.

Cartwright Bros—From Dec. 24 to the Monday following New Years.

Potters' Supply—Christmas and New Years.

West End—Two days.

D. E. McNicol—One week beginning Dec. 24.

McNicol & Smith, Wellsville—One week from Dec. 24.

Taylor, Smith & Taylor—Two weeks from Christmas day.

E. M. Knowles—Not decided.

Union—No loaf if men can be persuaded to work.

Louthan Supply Co.—One week, during which a new clay press will be installed.

Harker Pottery Co.—Will close down Dec. 21 for 10 days.

Vodrey Co.—From Dec. 24 to Jan. 2.

National—Will loaf but two days.

Smith — Phillips Co.—Dec. 21 to Jan. 6.

William Brunt Co.—From Dec. 21 to Jan. 1.

Knowles, Taylor & Knowles—Ten days from Dec. 24.

Sevres China Co.—Two days.

Dresden—One week from Dec. 24.

Croxall Pottery Co.—No shut down if it is possible to work.

Goodwin Bros.—Will work up to holidays and there will be no shut down if it can be avoided.

President Hughes returned to the city this morning, having made a profitable trip to Niles and Ford City. At the former city he organized local union No. 57. The membership includes almost every employe of the shop, and the outlook is most encouraging.

The George F. Brunt Porcelain company, of this city, electrical supplies, are planning to greatly increase the size of their plant. A new warehouse and packing shed are being erected and at least one new kiln will be soon added.

At the Tiffin pottery, where there has been a pronounced shortage of coal, the plant again resumed in full, the firm having secured sufficient fuel to keep the plant on the move.

Try the Buckeye Harness shop for hand-made Harness, East Market street. 154-r-eod

The swell thing in fancy box papers for Christmas. Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-r

Notice of Meeting.

All members of Local Union No. 42, Plasterers, are urged to attend the regular meeting to be held at their hall, Citizens' National bank building, Tuesday evening, December 17, at 7:30. By order of PRESIDENT. 154-r

THE BOSTON STORE

...HOLIDAY SHOPPING...

Everybody doing more or less shopping these days. The questions to be decided are first, what to buy, and then where to buy. Perhaps we can help you solve these questions. Look over this partial list of what is being shown here in large assortments at popular selling prices and then call and make your selections.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| Black Silks-
Colored Silks
Satin
Velvets
Black Dress Goods
Colored Dress Goods
French Flannels
Fancy Waist Cloths
Fur Scarfs
Fur Jackets
Long Coats
3/4 Length Coats
Short Jackets
Tailor Made Suits
Separate Silk Skirts Separate Wool Skirts
Silk Waists Flannel Waists
Silk Petticoats
Mercerized Petticoats
Dressing Sacques Wrappers
Smoking Jackets
Fascinators
Circular Shawls
Golf Gloves
Kid Gloves
Kid Mittens | Fancy Neckwear
White Aprons
Men's Mufflers
Silk Handkerchiefs
Linen Handkerchiefs
Ribbons Fans
Umbrellas
Pocket Books
Chatelaine Bags
Leather Cases Suit Cases
Valises
Trunks
Telescopes
Blankets Comforts
Wool Underwear
Muslin Underwear
Lace Hosiery
Silk Hosiery
Towels
Napkins
Table Cloths
Linen Sets
Cloth and Napkins to Match
Art Linens | Renaissance Doilies
Mexican Drawn Work Doilies
Pillow Tops
Satin Cushions
Bronzes
Toilet Articles
Hudnot's Perfumeries
Haviland China
Rudolstadt Ware
Vases
Sterling Silver Novelties
Ebony Novelties
Toilet Cases
Fancy Stationery
Cups and Saucers
Plates Umbrella Stands
Photograph Frames
Medallions Pictures
Braided Chatelaines Brooches
Fancy Hat Pins
Belt Buckles Books
Bibles
Children's Books |
|---|---|---|

And should you not see what you want in this list, ask for it, more than likely we have it.

A. S. Young THE BOSTON STORE 5th & Market

BIBLE CLASS

To Aid Sunday School Teachers to Be Started at the Y. M. C. A.

At 4:30 tomorrow afternoon the Y. M. C. A. will organize a special bible study class under the leadership of Rev. O. L. Owens for the study of the "Life of Christ." The class is especially designed to train and help Sunday school teachers and will include both gentlemen and ladies. The course will be 15 or 16 lessons, the first lesson being taken December 22.

The class follows the regular gospel meeting, 3:30 to 4:20, which is for men only and ladies will therefore come at 4:30 p. m.

THE LATEST THINGS IN PHOTOGRAPHS AND MOUNTS AT EDMONSTON, THE PHOTOGRAPHER'S, FOURTH STREET. 150-rt

Electric Goods—Complete stock of electric supplies for sale at The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

WE DO THINK WE CAN SHOW YOU THE FINEST LINE OF BEST QUALITY PERFUMES TO BE HAD IN THE CITY AND AT VERY CHEAP PRICES. SEE THEM AT ALVIN BULGER'S. 150-rt

SHOOTERS' CONTEST

A Tournament Being Arranged By the Gun Club For Christmas Day.

The officers of the East Liverpool Gun club are arranging for a big tournament to be held on Christmas afternoon.

The events have not all been scheduled, but those in charge will be ready to announce the program by the first of next week. An especial effort is being made by the officers and members of the club to attract sufficient shooters to make the various events worth entering. The participants in the shoot will be restricted to members of the club and their friends.

Dr. J. M. Little, one of the most enthusiastic members of the local club, has just received a gun which was made to order by a Connecticut firm. It is especially adapted to blue rock and live bird shooting.

Elegant pocket cigar cases, fine Christmas presents "for yo' man." Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-r Incandescent Lamps—10,000 incandescent lamps carried in stock in 25 different voltages and candle power, T. H. Edison and Westinghouse cases, at the Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

MONEY!

to Loan. No delay other than to prepare the necessary papers

Paid up Stock is still being issued.

Running Stock or Special Deposits always received, which ever way suits you.

The Potters Building and Savings Company Cor. 8th and Washington Sts.

Safe? Yes. We have a $30,000 Surplus Fund.

EAST LIVERPOOL ACADEMY

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

INCORPORATED.

A High Grade Classical and scientific school for young men and young women.

Gives a splendid education; prepares for business or for advanced classes in the best colleges in the land.

TERMS MODERATE

Address, Rev. S. C. George, A. M., Principal, Fifth Street

Oysters

The season is now open. The best, properly cooked and served, at

The Stag, 125 and 127 Second St.

D. A. DEVINE, Prop.

Don't forget to Sleep

during the hurry and rush of preparing for Christmas. Don't stint yourself for sleep nor for covering while you sleep.

Remember we have a splendid line of

Blankets and Comforts for your selection

We have all prices from 65c up.

Cash or credit.

HARD'S.

THE BIG STORE.

ROSS MEADOWS

As laid out by us in 1900, consisted of 21 parcels of land from 1-2 to 10 acres each. These are all sold except 4 pieces. We now offer you of 2 1-2 acres, five acres, ten acres, or more in the south part of this farm. It is good land; it lies well; it fronts on public roads.

ALLOTMENTS

PRICES

$75, $100, and $125 per acre.

CASH, OR EASY TERMS

Don't Delay. Only about 40 acres of the original 160 acres are left.

ROSS MEADOWS

is located 2 1-2 miles from the East Liverpool Diamond; 2 1-2 miles from the Wellsville, O., Square, on the Lisbon and East Liverpool Road and is intersected by the Cannon's Mill and Calcutta Roads.

SEE PLATS AT OUR OFFICE

Horse and buggy to take you to see it at any time.

ELIJAH W. HILL

REAL ESTATE DEALER

Corner Sixth and Washington Streets,

EAST LIVERPOOL, - O.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

A New Lawyer Coming—W. E. Warren, who has been practicing law in Leetonia for several years, will locate in East Liverpool.

Postponed the Election—The C. M. B. A. decided to postpone the election of officers until Dec. 26. They will hold a smoker next Thursday evening.

Ladies' Social—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. P. church had a social gathering at the home of Mrs. Anna Bullock, Cottage street, last evening. Refreshments were served and the affair was most enjoyable.

Addressed the Teachers—State Commissioner of Schools L. E. Bonebrake was in the city yesterday and at 3 p. m. made an impressive and able address to the teachers. Supt. Rayman accompanied him to Youngstown, where he is to visit the schools today. He was most favorably impressed with what he saw of East Liverpool schools.

Hall to Be Repaired—The ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. met in special session last evening and decided to have the hall repaired and papered and the stage fixed up. Mrs. J. Wilson and Mrs. J. C. Allison will superintend the former and Mrs. W. C. Lynch and Mrs. R. B. Stevenson the latter work. The auxiliary is proving of most practical benefit to the association.

Century Club Meeting—The Century club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. M. Nickle, Thompson avenue. The subject under discussion is music. The officers of the club are: Mrs. J. T. Laughlin, president; Mrs. A. S. Young, secretary; Miss Kate Harker, treasurer. The club has had very interesting meetings and expects many more the coming winter.

BASKET BALL GAME

First Game at the Y. M. C. A. Aroused Much Interest.

The first game of the newly formed basket ball league at the Y. M. C. A. took place last evening and was interesting. There was a large crowd of spectators present, a number of ladies being among them. Rigby's and Green's teams played, the former winning.

The rule that boys under 16 are not admitted shut out a lot of youngsters who crowded the entrance and made considerable annoyance. Hereafter the rule will be strictly enforced—boys under 16, unless with their parents, will not be admitted.

Brakeman Fatally Hurt—Steubenville, December 14.—William Criss, a well known young Steubenville man, is at the hospital suffering with terrible injuries about the head and brain that will likely result in his death. Criss is a brakeman on the C. & P. night shift at Mingo, and got a fall by the jolting of cars that resulted in a fracture of the skull.

Fine pipes, and high grade cigars is small boxes for holiday trade, at Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-4

Christmas Presents. Any and everything in presents for young and old. See our line. Prices the lowest. HILL & YATES. 153-4

A PHOTOGRAPH BY EDMONSTON WILL MAKE A GOOD CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR YOUR FRIENDS. 150-4

Electric Wiring—Electric wiring for special holiday displays promptly attended to by The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

Toys! Toys! Largest, finest and cheapest assortment of toys in the city. HILL & YATES. 153-4

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—Girl for dining room. Apply to Mrs. Sadie Anderson, 163 Market street. 154-r

SCHLEGEL'S OYSTERS ARE BEST

Shell Bulk Canned

Market Street. Both Phones 230.

KILNMEN'S UNION

(Continued from First Page.)

ing took in 18 or 20 girls and six more men.

President Hughes visited the local last Thursday evening and told a News Review reporter this morning that the organization is in a flourishing condition. The gentleman arranged for a meeting of the girls for last night and the local was formed. The attendance was most gratifying. The ladies' local starts off with a membership of over 80, and this number will reach 130 by the first of the year. The organization is No. 58.

The News Review made a canvass of the local potteries today with reference to the holiday loaf, and the following was the result:

The Laughlin No. 2 will suspend December 21 and will not resume until the 28th.

East Liverpool Potteries company, comprising the East Liverpool pottery, the East End, Globe, United States, Geo. C. Murphy plants, Wallace & Chetwynd—Two weeks beginning Dec. 21.

C. C. Thompson—From Dec. 24 to Dec. 30.

Standard—No suspension excepting Christmas and New Year.

Cartwright Bros—From Dec. 24 to the Monday following New Years.

Potters' Supply—Christmas and New Years.

West End—Two days.

D. E. McNicol—One week beginning Dec. 24.

McNicol & Smith, Wellsville—One week from Dec. 24.

Taylor, Smith & Taylor—Two weeks from Christmas day.

E. M. Knowles—Not decided.

Union—No loaf if men can be persuaded to work.

Louthan Supply Co.—One week, during which a new clay press will be installed.

Harker Pottery Co.—Will close down Dec. 21 for 10 days.

Vodrey Co.—From Dec. 24 to Jan. 2.

National—Will loaf but two days.

Smith — Phillips Co.—Dec. 21 to Jan. 6.

William Brunt Co.—From Dec. 21 to Jan. 1.

Knowles, Taylor & Knowles—Ten days from Dec. 24.

Sevres China Co.—Two days, Dec. 24 and 25.

Dresden—One week from Dec. 24.

Croxall Pottery Co.—No shut down if it is possible to work.

Goodwin Bros.—Will work up to holidays and there will be no shut down if it can be avoided.

President Hughes returned to the city this morning, having made a profitable trip to Niles and Ford City. At the former city he organized local union No. 57. The membership includes almost every employe of the shop, and the outlook is most encouraging.

The George F. Brunt Porcelain company, of this city, electrical supplies, are planning to greatly increase the size of their plant. A new warehouse and packing shed are being erected and at least one new kiln will be soon added.

At the Tiffin pottery, where there has been a pronounced shortage of coal, the plant again resumed in full, the firm having secured sufficient fuel to keep the plant on the move.

Try the Buckeye Harness shop for hand-made Harness, East Market street. 154-4-5-b

The swell thing in fancy box papers for Christmas.

Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-4

Notice of Meeting.

All members of Local Union No. 42, Plasterers, are urged to attend the regular meeting to be held at their hall, Citizen's National bank building, Tuesday evening, December 17, at 7:30. By order of PRESIDENT. 154-4 during the hurry and rush of preparing for Christmas. Don't stint yourself for sleep nor for covering while you sleep.

Don't forget to Sleep

Remember we have a splendid line of

Blankets and Comforts for your selection

We have all prices from 65c up.

Cash or credit.

HARD'S.

THE BIG STORE.

THE BOSTON STORE

...HOLIDAY SHOPPING...

Everybody doing more or less shopping these days. The questions to be decided are first, what to buy, and then where to buy. Perhaps we can help you solve these questions. Look over this partial list of what is being shown here in large assortments at popular selling prices and then call and make your selection.

Black Silks - Colored Silks Satins Velvets Black Dress Goods Colored Dress Goods French Flannels Fancy Waist Cloths Fur Scarfs Fur Jackets Long Coats 3/4 Length Coats Short Jackets Tailor Made Suits Separate Silk Skirts Separate Wool Skirts Silk Waists Flannel Waists Silk Petticoats Mercerized Petticoats Dressing Sacques Wrappers Smoking Jackets Fascinators Circular Shawls Golf Gloves Kid Gloves Kid Mittens

Fancy Neckwear White Aprons Men's Mufflers Silk Handkerchiefs Linen Handkerchiefs Ribbons Fans Umbrellas Pocket Books Chatelaine Bags Leather Cases Suit Cases Valises Trunks Telescopes Blankets Comforts Wool Underwear Muslin Underwear Lace Hosiery Silk Hosiery Towels Napkins Table Cloths Linen Sets Cloth and Napkins to Match Art Linens

Renaissance Doilies Mexican Drawn Work Doilies Pillow Tops Satin Cushions Bronzes Toilet Articles Hudnot's Perfumeries Haviland China Rudolstadt Ware Vases Sterling Silver Novelties Ebony Novelties Toilet Cases Fancy Stationery Cups and Saucers Plates Umbrella Stands Photograph Frames Medallions Pictures Braided Chatelaines Brooches Fancy Hat Pins Belt Buckles Books Bibles Children's Books

And should you not see what you want in this list, ask for it, more than likely we have it.

A. S. Young THE BOSTON STORE 5th & Market

BIBLE CLASS

To Aid Sunday School Teachers to Be Started at the Y. M. C. A.

At 4:30 tomorrow afternoon the Y. M. C. A. will organize a special bible study class under the leadership of Rev. O. L. Owens for the study of the "Life of Christ." The class is especially designed to train and help Sunday school teachers and will include both gentlemen and ladies. The course will be 15 or 16 lessons, the first lesson being taken December 22.

The class follows the regular gospel meeting, 3:30 to 4:20, which is for men only and ladies will therefore come at 4:30 p. m.

THE LATEST THINGS IN PHOTOGRAPHS AND MOUNTS AT EDMONSTON, THE PHOTOGRAPHER'S, FOURTH STREET. 150-4

Electric Goods—Complete stock of electric supplies for sale at The Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

WE DO THINK WE CAN SHOW YOU THE FINEST LINE OF BEST QUALITY PERFUMES TO BE HAD IN THE CITY AND AT VERY CHEAP PRICES. SEE THEM AT ALVIN BULGER'S. 150-4

SHOOTERS' CONTEST

A Tournament Being Arranged By the Gun Club For Christmas Day.

The officers of the East Liverpool Gun club are arranging for a big tournament to be held on Christmas afternoon.

The events have not all been scheduled, but those in charge will be ready to announce the program by the first of next week. An especial effort is being made by the officers and members of the club to attract sufficient shooters to make the various events worth entering. The participants in the shoot will be restricted to members of the club and their friends.

Dr. J. M. Little, one of the most enthusiastic members of the local club, has just received a gun which was made to order by a Connecticut firm. It is especially adapted to blue rock and live bird shooting.

Elegant pocket cigar cases, fine Christmas presents "for yo' man." Anderson's Diamond Pharmacy. 154-4

Incandescent Lamps—10,000 incandescent lamps carried in stock in 25 different voltages and candle power. T. H. Edison and Westinghouse cases, at the Milligan Hardware & Supply Co. 154-r-eod

MONEY!

to Loan. No delay other than to prepare the necessary papers

Paid up Stock is still being issued. Running Stock or Special Deposits always received, when ever way suits you.

The Potters Building and Savings Company Cor. 5th and Washington Sts.

Safe? Yes! We have a $50,000 Surplus Fund.

EAST LIVERPOOL ACADEMY

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

INCORPORATED.

A High Grade Classical and scientific school for young men and young women.

Gives a splendid education; prepares for business or for advanced classes in the best colleges in the land.

TERMS MODERATE Address, Rev. S. C. George, A. M., Principal, Fifth Street

Oysters

The season is now open. The best, properly cooked and served, at

The Stag, 125 and 127 Second St. D. A. DEVINE, Prop.

BOSTON CANDY KITCHEN

Some CANDY is not CANDY!

Our candy is all candy, made fresh and pure for our own retail trade at following prices:

Cream Dates,
Cocoanut Bon Bons,
Chocolate Creams,
Almond Peanut and Cocoanut Mixed Taffy,

At 10¢

PER LB.

BOSTON CANDY KITCHEN

Amusements.

Every Tuesday.

PROF. McDOUGALL,
Classes in Dancing
and Deportment.Opening and first Lesson.
TUESDAY, DEC. 17, 1901
Oyster's Hall, Sixth Street.Children 4 to 6. Adults 8 to 11. Private 10 to 4 and 6 to 8.

Every Tuesday.

Jewelry
Worth
the PriceIt wears and gives pleasure for years, we have a large selection. Diamonds, Watches, Silverware, Clocks, Artistic Novelties. Anything in the Jewelry Line.
Visit us and see. Watch repairing and Engraving a specialty.

A. G. HOFMAN,

Stevenson Block,
Cor. 5th and Market st.

THE FIRST NATIONAL...

BANK

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

President—David Boyce.
Vice President—J. M. Kelly.
Cashier—N. G. Macrum.
Asst. Cashier—Thos. H. Fisher.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

David Boyce, W. L. Thompson;
J. M. Kelly, O. C. Vordrey;
B. C. Simms, Jno. C. Thompson;
Jas. N. Vordrey.CAPITAL - - $100,000
SURPLUS - - $100,000

General Banking Business.

Invites Business and Personal Accounts
SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT,
193 Washington Street.

Manzanella Cafe

Imported Beer, Ice Cold Beer,
Munichener, Base Ale on Draught.

DINING AND LUNCH ROOM,

The finest in the city. Everything in season.

Aaron R. Guthrie,

Diamond St.
Both Phones 68.

Amusements.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

JAMES A. NORRIS, Manager.

ELKS'
BENEFIT

Tuesday, January, 7

Frank Keenan in

Hon. John...
Grigsby"The Greatest American Play." Illinois in '49. A Complete Production. Scenery by Unitt. Costumes by Dazian. Properties by Seidle.

Ticket Sale Now On

Prices 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 12, 13, 14.WILLS' BROS.
COMEDY CO.Introducing the favorite Comedian, Frank M. Wills, and America's greatest Clown,
Geo. H. Adams.Thursday.....In Atlantic City
Friday.....Just One Girl
Saturday.....Two Old CroniesMatinee Friday and Saturday
PRICES 10c, 20c and 30c.

Seats on sale at Reed's.

Monday, December 16.

CHAS. L. DAVIS'
Celebrated Comedy DramaALVIN
JOSLINA home story of New England life, intermingled with pathos
and humor, portrayed by an excellent cast.

SPECIAL SCENERY.

Prices, 10c, 20c, 30c, 50c.

Tuesday, December 17.

THE AL. G. FIELD
GREATER
MINSTRELSThe leading Minstrel Organization of the world.A Review of the PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION
A Great Scenic Spectacle.

Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

COLUMBIAN PARK...
WEEK OF DECEMBER 9TH.

DANCING

Tuesday Evening.....Private
Thursday Evening.....Private
Saturday Evening.....PublicShankle's Orchestra.
Joseph Cassidy, Mgr.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For County Commissioner:

WILLIS GASTON,

St. Clair Township.
Subject to the decision of the Republican county primary. 149-4-td

ARGENTINE WARLIKE

But Chili Does Not Think the Dispute Is One Worth Fighting About.

UNCLE SAM'S MEDIATION

Is to Be Tendered at the Request of Chili—Argentine Army Reserves
Called Out—Feeling Very Strong
in Buenos Ayres.Paris, Dec. 14.—A dispatch received here from Santiago De Chili, under Thursday's date, says:"The alarm manifested in Argentine is declared in Chilian official circles to be unwarranted. In the opinion of the government the boundary dispute will never justify a rupture."A news agency here yesterday afternoon received a dispatch from its office at Buenos Ayres, dated 11 o'clock yesterday morning, confirming the dispatch of the Associated Press from Buenos Ayres Thursday night, announcing the calling out of the Argentine army reserves, and adding that at the request of the government
the chamber of deputies had sanctioned a bill setting aside the conversion fund to be used for the national defense. Continuing, the dispatch from Buenos Ayres says:"The report that the United States will offer its good offices is confirmed.
At Chili's request the American minister has sounded the intentions of the Argentine government. Brazil has also offered mediation.""It was announced here that Chili has called out 15,000 men, but the news is questioned, because, according to the officials here, Chili does not possess the means to equip and move
such a body of men.""Much anxiety prevails here in view of the fact that a decisive conference on the boundary dispute and other matters is to take place at Santiago today. Public feeling is very strong.""Senator Anchorena has offered to bear the expense of a regiment during the entire campaign, and patriotic offers of various descriptions are arriving from all parts of the country.
Nevertheless, in certain centers, the opinion is persistently held that war between Argentine and Chili is improbable."

SPALDING WAS ELECTED

New President of National League.
Previously Defied Freed-
man.New York, Dec. 14.—A. G. Spalding was elected president on the twenty-sixth ballot, which was taken after the Brush-Freedman faction had left the meeting. Those who remained declared that the others had "bolted"
the meeting and that they had a right to elect.Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Chicago and Philadelphia voted for Spalding for president and the names of the other four magnates were called, but there was no response.Last night Albert G. Spalding threw down the gauntlet. He announced positively that he would not withdraw his name as a candidate for the presidency, but that he would force the magnates to vote on it. And the vote must be taken before the magnates adjourn. Furthermore, Mr.
Spalding announced his position in the following words:"When the vote has been taken,
when my election shall be made unanimous, and when they shall come to me and ask me to be their president,
if I accept the honor, my one condition will be that Andrew Freedman must get out of baseball, absolutely and entirely. He must be wiped off the baseball map. On his record in baseball, and I speak only of his baseball record, I openly and publicly charge Andrew Freedman with being a traitor and marplot. He has done more to ruin baseball than any other four forces that have ever existed in the history of the game.""I will meet Mr. Freedman on any position he may take. My only stipulation is that the matter must be fought out in the meeting room of the National league. The man that loses must stipulate to get out of baseball
forever."It seemed to be the general impression that the Brush-Freedman conbination was beaten.
Just how Freedman was to be dropped was not made clear. It is said that a new national league may be organized and New York may be dropped from the circuit, the Brooklyn club becoming the New York representative.

Our First Glass.

The first glass made in this country was manufactured in Jamestown by the English colonists in 1609.

Inside a Shark.

A Vienna journal says that a shark was lately caught at Lukovo which measured five and a half meters and weighed 3,000 kilograms. In its stomach were found, among other things, a pair of trousers, a cow bell and a shoe.

Visitors to Italy.

Italy's income from foreign visitors is estimated at $40,000,000 a year.

Lime.

Lime is an excellent absorbent of moisture and is rapidly fatal to germ life. It has a wide range of usefulness both indoors and out. It is a valuable deodorizer as well as an antiseptic.

THE DISASTER A BLESSING.

Affairs in North China May Help Mission Work—Fears For Outrages in Armenia.Boston, Dec. 14.—The American board of foreign missions, in its ninety-second annual report, made public, says: "There is reason to fear a repetition of the wholesale massacres of Armenians in the Massachusetts districts in 1894, which were the prelude to the fearful scenes of 1895. It ought to be impossible for the sultan with impunity again to dip
his hands so deep in the blood of his innocent subjects.""There is good reason to think that the disastrous events in North China,
so far from being the destruction or even the permanent injury of the missionary work in China, will prove the overthrow of seemingly insurmountable obstacles to the opening of all doors of access to the Chinese people."The summary of donations shows a total of $677,861, including legacies, for current expenses off $317,072; donations for mission work for women, $211,971, and donations for school fund, $100,000.

NEW BUILDING FOR WOOSTER.

Canvass to Be Made For Funds.
Other Colleges in Field
For Aid.Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—The board of trustees of Wooster university, of Wooster, O., the main building of which was destroyed by fire several days ago, have decided to rebuild at once. The university is under the care of the Presbyterian synod of Ohio
and a canvass of the state will be made at once for additional funds.
The new building will be modern in all respects and a great improvement
on the one destroyed by fire and which was erected 30 years ago.An agent will be sent to Pittsburg soon to collect subscriptions, and the alumni association of this city is expected to render valuable assistance.
Several large gifts have been obtained in this city for the endowment.The Rev. Dr. Isaac C. Ketter, a graduate of Wooster, now president of Grove City college, is soliciting subscriptions for his college and is meeting with great success. He needs only $15,000 to complete his work and he expects to obtain this amount within another week.The Rev. Dr. James D. Moffat, president of Washington and Jefferson college, is engaged in raising $500,000
additional endowment for his institution. The Pennsylvania College for Women also is in the field. The recent Presbyterian banquet at the Hotel Schenley started the ball rolling,
and all the colleges are making an effort to increase their endowment
funds.TO PENSION ITS EMPLOYEES
AFTER 50 YEARS' SERVICE.Reading, Pa., Dec. 14.—The Reading Railway company has inaugurated a pension system for faithful employees.
All who have been continuously in the company's service for 50 years or more may retire on half pay. In case this does not amount to $30 a month
they will receive that amount. Seymour H. Garrigue, who has been a machinist here for 58 years, is the first on the list.

ISOLATION OF ACTORS.

Conditions Which Make the Profession a World by Itself.This condition, which from some important points of view is fortunate,
from others unfortunate and from nearly all inevitable, is unique indeed.
Here we have the only large class of workers which keeps the world at arm's length. Clergymen, physicians, lawyers, architects, merchants, tradesmen and laborers of all sorts, by the very terms of their toil are brought into constant personal contact with parishioners, patients, clients or customers. Even painters and sculptors must needs be in touch with their patrons.But that thin, impassable row of blazing lamps which rims the front of the stage accomplishes what the great wall of China was built to accomplish.
Behind them is the sole "profession."
In front of them the barbarous laity.
If the play desired to break down the partition, he would scarcely be able to do so.From the more important social gatherings which take place in the evening both actress and actor are necessarily absent. The actor may vote if he can acquire a residence and contrive to be in his own city on election day, but it is impossible that he should take any active part in politics or participate in preliminary meetings, caucuses and rallies which are held at night, and as to attendance at church, the player encounters, in the first place,
the difficulty, inseparable from his wandering life, of making a connection with a parish and, besides, in recent years, is almost constantly required to travel on Sunday, passing from a Saturday evening's performance in one town to a Monday morning's rehearsal
in another.—Atlantic Monthly.

School Lunches.

In packing the school lunch never put warm food in a tight pail or box.

Onions Under Water.

When preparing onions for cooking,
it will be found much more comfortable work if they are peeled or sliced
under water. Hold in the lap a large bowl filled with clear water, and work with the hands under the water. Onions handled in this way will not cause
tears or stained fingers.

SCALED THE WALLS

Bold Escape of a Convict From
the Riverside Prison,
Allegheny.

USED A ROPE AND A HOOK

And By Ingenuity And Daring Gained
His Liberty—The Man a Baker 28
Years Old, Who Was Serving Eight
Years.Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—James Jones,
aged 28 years, a convict in the Western penitentiary, escaped from that institution. Jones was employed in the prison as a baker. His long term prior to the present was one spent in the bake shop, and, as his baking suited the officials, when he went back the second time he returned to the bake shop.The bakers sleep in the bake shop.
They are not in cells like other inmates of the prison, but the doors and windows are barred and locked. About five minutes after 5 o'clock yesterday morning, when the night and day watch was being changed, Jones threw a rope over the grating on the top of the bake shop and pulled himself through a hole he had made. He left the rope he used in this portion of the escape dangling from the bars.After reaching the top of the bake shop Jones jumped to the ground, carrying with him a rope not much thicker than an ordinary clothes line,
which he had taken from the mat shop
some time before and concealed in the bake shop. To the end of this rope was fastened a big hook, which was wrapped with cloth, with an opening of about six inches.From the bake shop Jones hurried to the south tower of the prison on Sterling street, facing the river.
Standing back some distance from the wall, Jones whirled the big hook around. Luckily for him it caught on the iron railing which skirts the top of the entire prison wall.Hand over hand he climbed up this rope, a distance of 32 feet. Then, lifting the hook from the first rail, he placed it over the railing on the other side of the wall, and slid to the ground below, and was at liberty. No person is known to have seen him.Jones was sentenced for eight years, last May, on a charge of burglary. He had been out of the penitentiary about three weeks, after serving eight years.

MEN AS THEY PASS.

Seth Low has been made a doctor of laws seven times by various colleges.Captain John B. Ford of Pittsburg,
"the father of American tin plate making," has just celebrated his ninetieth birthday.Eugene Dupuy of Detroit is said to be the only man now living who assisted in organizing the American Pharmaceutical association in 1851.J. C. Siegfried, a wealthy spice merchant of Alameda, Cal., owns the finest collection of Philippine orchids in this country. He has 2,700 orchid plants, valued at $69,000.John Pierson of Swedesboro, N. J., who was elected to the state senate in 1861, on the same ticket with Lincoln, is ninety-six years old. Mr. Pierson is in good health and enjoys life as much as ever he did.Benjamin Hopkins, who has been justice of the peace of East Fishkill, N.
Y., for the last forty-nine years, met his Waterloo at the last election. He was defeated by Leonard V. Pierce, the strongest Republican in the district, by twenty-nine votes.Mr. James Anderson, a deputy sheriff of Springfield, Mass., has the unique distinction of being the only man who enjoys membership in the Grand Army of the Republic and in the corresponding organization of southern soldiers,
the Confederate Veterans.Phil May, the famous caricaturist, is going to appear on the stage in London in a play that has been written for
him. He began life as assistant to a scene painter, so he is only returning to a familiar land when attempting a higher flight than supernumerary.Eugen Sandow, the strong man, has just undergone a remarkable test of endurance. He has had a cast taken of his whole body, the work being done piecemeal, with his body under full muscular strain. The cast was taken for the South Kensington School of Art and also for the British museum authorities.Frank J. Schreiber, who is believed to be the oldest postmaster in the United States, has just resigned. He has decided that forty-three years' continuous service for Uncle Sam is enough.
He was appointed postmaster of Cru-ger, Woodford county, Ill., by Postmaster General Holt during President Buchanan's administration.

The Opal.

It is said that the opal was not considered unlucky in England until the notion was started there by the publication of "Anne of Gelestein." On the contrary, it was believed by the ancients to render its possessor lovable
and to bestow the gift of invisibility.

Wedding Dots.

The British government spends about $50,000 a year in presents to females who marry after having been in the postal or telegraph service.

BOSTON CANDY KITCHEN

Some CANDY is not CANDY!

Our candy is all candy, made fresh and pure for our own retail trade at following prices:

Cream Dates,
Cocoanut Bon Bons,
Chocolate Creams,
Almond Peanut and Cocoanut Mixed Taffy,

At 10¢

PER LB.

BOSTON CANDY KITCHEN

Amusements.

Every Tuesday.

PROF. McDOUGALL,
Classes in Dancing
and Deportment.Opening and first Lesson,
TUESDAY, DEC. 17, 1901
Oyster's Hall, Sixth Street.Children 4 to 6. Adults 8 to 11. Private 10 to 4 and 6 to 8.

Every Tuesday.

Jewelry
Worth
the PriceIt wears and gives pleasure for years, we have a
large selection, Diamonds, Watches, Sil-
verware, Clocks, Artistic Novelties. Anything in the Jewelry Line.
Visit us and see. Watch repairing and Engraving a specialty.

A. G. HOFMAN,

Stevenson Block,
Cor. 5th and Market st.THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

President—David Boyce.
Vice President—J. M. Kelly.
Cashier—N. G. Macrum.
Asst. Cashier—Thos. H. Fisher.BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
David Boyce, W. L. Thompson;
J. M. Kelly, O. C. Vodrey;
B. C. Simms, Jas. C. Thompson;
Jas. N. Vodrey.CAPITAL - - $100,000
SURPLUS - - $100,000

General Banking Business.

Invites Business and Personal Accounts
SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT.
193 Washington Street.

Manzanilla Cafe

Imported Beer, Ice Cold Beer,
Bunches of Eggs, etc. on Draught.DINING AND LUNCH ROOM,
The finest in the city. Everything in season.Aaron R. Guthrie, Diamond St.
Both Phones 68-

Amusements.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

JAMES A. MORRIS, Manager.

ELKS'
BENEFIT

Tuesday, January, 7

Frank Keenan in

Hon. John...
Grigsby"The Greatest American Play." Illinois in '49. A Complete Production. Scenery by Unitt. Costumes by Dazian. Properties by Soldie.

Ticket Sale Now On

Prices 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 12, 13, 14.WILLS' BROS.
COMEDY CO.Introducing the favorite Comedian, Frank M. Wills, and America's greatest Clown,
Geo. H. Adams.Thursday.....In Atlantic City
Friday.....Just One Girl
Saturday.....Two Old CroniesMatinee Friday and Saturday
PRICES 10c, 20c and 30c.
Seats on sale at Reed's.

Monday, December 16.

CHAS. L. DAVIS'
Celebrated Comedy DramaALVIN
JOSLINA home story of New England
life, intermingled with pathos
and humor, portrayed by
an excellent cast.

SPECIAL SCENERY.

Prices, 10c, 20c, 30c, 50c.

Tuesday, December 17.

THE AL. G. FIELD
GREATER
MINSTRELSThe leading Minstrel Organization of the world.A Review of the
PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION
A Great Scenic Spectacle.

Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

COLUMBIAN PARK...
WEEK OF DECEMBER 9th.

DANCING

Tuesday Evening.....Private
Thursday Evening.....Private
Saturday Evening.....PublicShankle's Orchestra.
Joseph Cassidy, Mgr.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For County Commissioner:
WILLIS GASTON,
St. Clair Township.
Subject to the decision of the Republican county primary. 149-4-td

ARGENTINE WARLIKE

But Chili Does Not Think the Dispute Is One Worth Fighting About.

UNCLE SAM'S MEDIATION

Is to Be Tendered at the Request of Chili—Argentine Army Reserves
Called Out—Feeling Very Strong
in Buenos Ayres.Paris, Dec. 14.—A dispatch received here from Santiago De Chili, under Thursday's date, says:"The alarm manifested in Argentine is declared in Chilian official circles to be unwarranted. In the opinion of the government the boundary
dispute will never justify a rupture."A news agency here yesterday afternoon received a dispatch from its office at Buenos Ayres, dated 11 o'clock
yesterday morning, confirming the dispatch of the Associated Press from Buenos Ayres Thursday night, announcing the calling out of the Argentine army reserves, and adding that at the request of the government
the chamber of deputies had sanctioned a bill setting aside the conversion
fund to be used for the national defense. Continuing, the dispatch from Buenos Ayres says:"The report that the United States
will offer its good offices is confirmed.
At Chili's request the American minister has sounded the 'intentions' of
the Argentine government. Brazil has also offered mediation.""It was announced here that Chili has called out 15,000 men, but the
news is questioned, because, according to the officials here, Chili does not possess the means to equip and move
such a body of men.""Much anxiety prevails here in view of the fact that a decisive conference on the boundary dispute and other matters is to take place at Santiago today. Public feeling is very strong.""Senior Anchorena has offered to bear the expense of a regiment during the entire campaign, and patriotic
offers of various descriptions are arriving from all parts of the country.
Nevertheless, in certain centers, the
opinion is persistently held that war between Argentine and Chili is improbable."

SPALDING WAS ELECTED

New President of National League.
Previously Defied Freed-
man.New York, Dec. 14.—A. G. Spalding was elected president on the twenty-sixth ballot, which was taken after the Brush-Freedman faction had left the meeting. Those who remained declared that the others had "bolted"
the meeting and that they had a right
to elect.Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Chicago and Philadelphia voted for Spalding for president and the names of the other four magnates were called, but there was no response.
Last night Albert G. Spalding threw down the gauntlet. He announced positively that he would not withdraw his name as a candidate for the presidency, but that he would force the magnates to vote on it. And the vote must be taken before the magnates adjourn. Furthermore, Mr.
Spalding announced his position in the following words:"When the vote has been taken,
when my election shall be made unanimous, and when they shall come to me and ask me to be their president,
if I accept the honor, my one condition will be that Andrew Freedman must get out of baseball, absolutely
and entirely. He must be wiped off
the baseball map. On his record in baseball, and I speak only of his baseball record, I openly and publicly charge Andrew Freedman with being a traitor and marplot. He has done more to ruin baseball than any other four forces that have ever existed in the history of the game.""I will meet Mr. Freedman on any position he may take. My only stipulation is that the matter must be fought out in the meeting room of the National league. The man that loses
must stipulate to get out of baseball
forever."It seemed to be the general impression that the Brush-Freedman combination was beaten.Just how Freedman was to be dropped was not made clear. It is said that a new national league may be organized and New York may be dropped from the circuit, the Brooklyn club becoming the New York representative.

Our First Glass.

The first glass made in this country
was manufactured in Jamestown by
the English colonists in 1609.

Inside a Shark.

A Vienna journal says that a shark was lately caught at Lukovo which measured five and a half meters and weighed 3,000 kilograms. In its stomach were found, among other things, a pair of trousers, a cow bell and a shoe.

Visitors to Italy.

Italy's income from foreign visitors
is estimated at $40,000,000 a year.

Lime.

Lime is an excellent absorbent of
moisture and is rapidly fatal to germ
life. It has a wide range of usefulness both indoors and out. It is a valuable deodorizer as well as an antiseptic.

THE DISASTER A BLESSING.

Affairs in North China May Help Mission Work—Fears For Outrages in Armenia.Boston, Dec. 14.—The American
board of foreign missions, in its ninety-second annual report, made public, says: "There is reason to fear a repetition of the wholesale
massacres of Armenians in the Massachusetts districts in 1894, which were
the prelude to the fearful scenes of 1895. It ought to be impossible for the sultan with impunity again to dip
his hands so deep in the blood of his innocent subjects."
"There is good reason to think that the disastrous events in North China,
so far from being the destruction or
even the permanent injury of the missionary work in China, will prove the overthrow of seemingly insurmountable obstacles to the opening of all
doors of access to the Chinese people."The summary of donations shows a
total of $677,861, including legacies, for current expenses of $317,072; donations for mission work for women, $211,971, and donations for school
fund, $100,000.

NEW BUILDING FOR WOOSTER.

Canvas to Be Made For Funds.
Other Colleges in Field
For Aid.Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—The board of trustees of Wooster university, of Wooster, O., the main building of which was destroyed by fire several days ago, have decided to rebuild at once. The university is under the care of the Presbyterian synod of Ohio
and a canvass of the state will be made at once for additional funds.
The new building will be modern in
all respects and a great improvement
on the one destroyed by fire and
which was erected 30 years ago.An agent will be sent to Pittsburg
soon to collect subscriptions, and the alumni association of this city is expected to render valuable assistance.
Several large gifts have been obtained
in this city for the endowment.The Rev. Dr. Isaac C. Ketter, a graduate of Wooster, now president
of Grove City college, is soliciting
subscriptions for his college and is meeting with great success. He needs only $15,000 to complete his work and he expects to obtain this amount within another week.The Rev. Dr. James D. Moffat, president of Washington and Jefferson college, is engaged in raising $500,000
additional endowment for his institution. The Pennsylvania College for Women also is in the field. The recent Presbyterian banquet at the Hotel Schenley started the ball rolling,
and all the colleges are making an effort to increase their endowment
funds.TO PENSION ITS EMPLOYEES
AFTER 50 YEARS' SERVICE.Reading, Pa., Dec. 14.—The Reading Railway company has inaugurated a pension system for faithful employees.
All who have been continuously in the company's service for 50 years or more may retire on half pay. In case
this does not amount to $30 a month
they will receive that amount. Seymour H. Garrigue, who has been a machinist here for 58 years, is the
first on the list.

ISOLATION OF ACTORS.

Conditions Which Make the Profession a World by Itself.This condition, which from some important points of view is fortunate,
from others unfortunate and from nearly all inevitable, is unique indeed.
Here we have the only large class of workers which keeps the world at arm's length. Clergymen, physicians,
lawyers, architects, merchants, trades-
men and laborers of all sorts, by the very terms of their toil are brought into constant personal contact with parishioners, patients, clients or customers. Even painters and sculptors must needs be in touch with their patrons.But that thin, impassable row of blazing lamps which rims the front of the stage accomplishes what the great wall of China was built to accomplish.
Behind them is the sole "profession,"
in front of them the barbarous laity.
If the play is desired to break down the partition, he would scarcely be able to do so.From the more important social gatherings which take place in the evening both actress and actor are necessarily absent. The actor may vote if he can acquire a residence and contrive to be
in his own city on election day, but
it is impossible that he should take any active part in politics or participate in preliminary meetings, caucuses and rallies which are held at night,
and as to attendance at church, the
player encounters, in the first place,
the difficulty, inseparable from his wandering life, of making a connection
with a parish and, besides, in recent years, is almost constantly required to travel on Sunday, passing from a Saturday evening's performance in one town to a Monday morning's rehearsal
in another.—Atlantic Monthly.

School Lunches.

In packing the school lunch never put warm food in a tight pail or box.

Onions Under Water.

When preparing onions for cooking,
it will be found much more comfortable work if they are peeled or sliced
under water. Hold in the lap a large bowl filled with clear water, and work with the hands under the water. Onions handled in this way will not cause
tears or stained fingers.

SCALED THE WALLS

Bold Escape of a Convict From
the Riverside Prison,
Allegheny.

USED A ROPE AND A HOOK

And By Ingenuity And Daring Gained
His Liberty—The Man a Baker 28
Years Old, Who Was Serving Eight
Years.Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—James Jones,
aged 28 years, a convict in the Western penitentiary, escaped from that institution. Jones was employed in the prison as a baker. His long term prior to the present was one spent in
the bake shop, and, as his baking suited the officials, when he went back the second time he returned to
the bake shop.The bakers sleep in the bake shop.
They are not in cells like other inmates of the prison, but the doors and windows are barred and locked. About five minutes after 5 o'clock yesterday morning, when the night and day
watch was being changed, Jones threw
a rope over the grating on the top of the bake shop and pulled himself
through a hole he had made. He left the rope he used in this portion of the escape dangling from the bars.After reaching the top of the bake shop Jones jumped to the ground, carrying with him a rope not much
thicker than an ordinary clothes line,
which he had taken from the mat shop
some time before and concealed in the
bake shop. To the end of this rope was fastened a big hook, which was wrapped with cloth, with an opening
of about six inches.From the bake shop Jones hurried
to the south tower of the prison on Sterling street, facing the river.
Standing back some distance from the wall, Jones whirled the big hook around. Luckily for him it caught on
the iron railing which skirts the top of the entire prison wall.Hand over hand he climbed up this rope, a distance of 32 feet. Then,
lifting the hook from the first rail, he placed it over the railing on the other side of the wall, and slid to the ground below, and was at liberty. No person is known to have seen him.
Jones was sentenced for eight years, last May, on a charge of burglary. He had been out of the penitentiary about three weeks, after serving eight years.

MEN AS THEY PASS.

Seth Low has been made a doctor of laws seven times by various colleges.Captain John B. Ford of Pittsburg,
"the father of American tin plate making," has just celebrated his ninetieth
birthday.Eugene Dupuy of Detroit is said to be the only man now living who assisted
in organizing the American Pharmaceutical association in 1851.J. C. Siegfried, a wealthy spice merchant of Alameda, Cal., owns the finest collection of Philippine orchids in this country. He has 2,700 orchid plants,
valued at $69,000.John Pierson of Swedesboro, N. J., who was elected to the state senate in 1861, on the same ticket with Lincoln, is ninety-six years old. Mr. Pierson is in good health and enjoys life as much as ever he did.Benjamin Hopkins, who has been justice of the peace of East Fishkill, N.
Y., for the last forty-nine years, met his Waterloo at the last election. He was defeated by Leonard V. Pierce, the strongest Republican in the district, by twenty-nine votes.Mr. James Anderson, a deputy sheriff of Springfield, Mass., has the unique distinction of being the only man who enjoys membership in the Grand Army
of the Republic and in the corresponding organization of southern soldiers,
the Confederate Veterans.Phil May, the famous caricaturist, is going to appear on the stage in London in a play that has been written for
him. He began life as assistant to a scene painter, so he is only returning to
a familiar land when attempting a higher flight than supernumerary.Eugen Sandow, the strong man, has just undergone a remarkable test of endurance. He has had a cast taken
of his whole body, the work being done
piecemeal, with his body under full muscular strain. The cast was taken for the South Kensington School of Art and also for the British museum authorities.Frank J. Schreiber, who is believed to be the oldest postmaster in the United States, has just resigned. He has decided that forty-three years' continuous service for Uncle Sam is enough.
He was appointed postmaster of Cru-
ger, Woodford county, Ill., by Postmaster General Holt during President
Buchanan's administration.

The Opal.

It is said that the opal was not considered unlucky in England until the notion was started there by the publication of "Anne of Geierstein." On the contrary, it was believed by the ancients to render its possessor lovable
and to bestow the gift of invisibility.

Wedding Dots.

The British government spends about $50,000 a year in presents to females
who marry after having been in the postal or telegraph service.

Queen's Diamond Necklace

Story of Famous Scandal of the Court Of Marie Antoinette

One of the most interesting bits of French history, which was the great scandal of the court of Marie Antoinette, is the strange affair of the diamond necklace, says B. F. Stevens in American Cultivator.

The conspiracy of the diamond necklace was got up by a woman named the Countess de la Motte, who appeared upon the stage of life more than 130 years ago, just when Mme. de Pompadour died and when the star of Mme. du Barry was gaining the ascendancy and when Louis XV., their royal lover, was growing too old to withstand the blandishments of the latter siren, for whom the diamond necklace was originally intended.

Jeanne de Valois, who became the celebrated Countess de la Motte, the chief actor in a plot to pretend to buy for Marie Antoinette the diamond necklace, was a descendant of an illegitimate son of Henry II. of Valois, king of France, and Diana of Poitiers.

The commission to make the diamond necklace, the execution of which was an affair of time, was given by Louis XV. to the crown jewelers. Every important city of Europe was ransacked for matchless gems, for the king's mistress must have the best and the costliest. The price agreed upon for these

ACTRESS AND CARDINAL MET.

Jewels was 2,000,000 francs, or $400,000, but before the magnificent bauble was finished King Louis XV. the Well Beloved died of smallpox, deserted by every living soul. The favorite for whom this necklace had been ordered was banished beyond the precincts of the court, to ultimately meet her fate by the guillotine in the reign of terror.

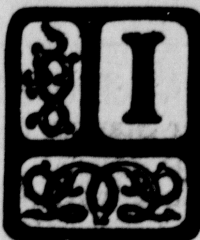

Le roi est mort! Vive le roi! And so the grandson of the dead king, now Louis XVI., ascends the throne of France, with his beautiful wife, Marie Antoinette of Austria, to lay their heads finally on the block. The crown jewelers were in despair. They had an elephant on their hands. How could they foresee that their royal customer, full of health in November, 1773, when he gave the order, would die of smallpox within the following six months? They tried every means in their power to sell this necklace by sending engraved copies of it to every court in Europe, but no one wanted it.

Marie Antoinette owed these crown jewelers 348,000 francs for a pair of diamond earrings, of which amount she had paid on account 48,000 francs, leaving due from her at the date of her supposed connection with the affair 300,000 francs. Here was a chance for the crown jewelers to dispose of the necklace which had been morally hanging about their necks like a leaden weight. But France being then at war with England, the crown jewelers were repulsed by Marie Antoinette with the remark, "Messieurs, we have more need of men of war now than of diamonds."

In the meantime Jeanne de Valois, after undergoing trouble and vicissitudes, married a Count de la Motte, and this precious couple, living on a fifth floor in Paris, with only the gains of the green cloth or gaming table for a precarious living, turned their attention to this diamond necklace and to Marie Antoinette. The first thing to do was to ensnare the grand almoner of France, the Cardinal Prince Louis de Rohan, then a tall, portly, handsome looking man, in his forty-eighth year, but weak and vain, any and every thing but devout, and mad after a pretty

Value of Versatility ...To the Actor

By WILTON LACKAYE

It is undoubtedly successful stars are ex artists. But even in ten discover that if we they have deserted of versatility to prose has met with unusual think there is any such part. If there isn't a character, it isn't

I SAW A PROMINENT ACTOR PLAY IN THREE WEEKS IN NEW YORK A JOCKEY, A POET AND—ROMEO. THEY WERE ALL "LEADING PARTS"—STRAIGHT PARTS, IN THE LANGUAGE OF THE THEATER—AND HE PLAYED THEM ALL ALIKE.

He entertained his audience, too, but he was not "in the skin" of his characters; HE HAD ONLY STOLEN THEIR CLOTHES. The value of versatility in broadening one's art is incalculable. Any one can play Romeo better for having played a negro or an Irishman.

You will find in nearly every case of a sudden hit by an unknown actor that he has been working for years in road companies in some out of the way place storing up a "bit of business" here, an idea of "makeup" there, a trick of elocution in another part, until he has a fund of experience from which to draw when a metropolitan opportunity offers.

woman. The Countess de la Motte was a frequent visitor to the cardinal's palace, and their relations may be guessed at. The snares thus being set for the Cardinal de Rohan, Jeanne looked about for some one to help her in her designs upon Marie Antoinette, whose persecution by the crown jewelers had begun in 1774 and did not end for about ten years, when she peremptorily gave them their final answer, and thus the diamond necklace passed into oblivion for the time, ending in the failure of the makers, until Jeanne de la Motte got the Cardinal de Rohan in her toils, and the subject was revived.

The cardinal had an inordinate ambition to be upon friendly terms with Marie Antoinette. She did not actually shun him, but rather avoided him, and he felt the coldness of the queen toward him. At last he received letters purporting to be from Marie Antoinette in which the diamond necklace was spoken of, and the silly man passed out to Jeanne de la Motte from time to time various sums of money wherewith to purchase the necklace, she acting as agent for the queen apparently, or a go between, with royalty on the one hand and religion on the other. And the cardinal finally paid out to his ladylove, Jeanne de la Motte, the full value of the necklace, which she obtained from the crown jewelers and passed over to her husband, who hurried with it to London, where he sold many of the stones, by which he and his wife escaped starvation.

But it must be made clear to the cardinal that Marie Antoinette had the necklace, so Jeanne employed an acrie Antoinette denied in the strongest terms having ever seen the Countess de la Motte.

But the cardinal could not be made to believe that he had been imposed upon and that the famous necklace he had paid for was not in possession of the queen. He perhaps would scarcely have been heard of in history but for his unenviable notoriety with the Countess de la Motte. Mme. Campan in her memories of Marie Antoinette speaks of him as among the most immoral men of the day. All the facts recorded here occurred in the year 1784, when the adventures De la Motte had completed her fabrication of lies and when her dupe, the cardinal, was upon the most intimate terms with her. His knowledge of her character was not manifested until after one of the crown jewelers had told Mme. Campan of the cardinal's connection with the whole affair. She, like a good woman, went to Marie Antoinette and disclosed the truth.

Then came the arrest of De Rohan, followed by that of the arch conspirator, the Countess de la Motte. Retaux de Villette fled to foreign parts, and the actress D'Olivia sought refuge in Brussels, but she was extradited and put into the Bastille, which now held all the guilty persons except the husband of Jeanne de la Motte, who had fled to England, taking with him the famous gems. On the value of those he dared to sell he subsisted. So great was the hatred of the people for Marie Antoinette that at the trial the cardinal was looked upon in no other light than a person deluded by an adventuress, a

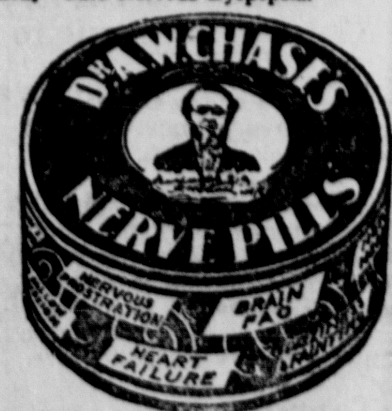

A Name Twice Made Famous, Now a Shining Mark for Imitators.

The name "Chase," twice made famous, is a shining mark for the unscrupulous to pounce upon and appropriate in order to foist upon the public their worthless preparations. These birds of prey, by using the name Chase, expect the public to be fooled into believing they are the medicines of Dr. A. W. Chase, who first became noted as the author of the world-famed Dr. Chase's recipe book and family physician, and whose fame is now doubly increased by the wonderful success of his Nerve Pills, with Nerve, Brain and Blood troubles. They play upon the name Chase, but dare not use the initials "A. W."

They imitate, but dare not counterfeit the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, which identifies the Nerve Pills now recognized as infallible for building up pale, weak, thin-blooded, nerve exhausted sufferers.

Who are nerve-tired and brain-weary. Who are easily exhausted. Who are wakeful—cannot sleep. Who have nervous headache. They remove the cause of blood impurities, securing refreshing sleep and impart strength.

They build up people who find their strength and vigor waning. They settle irritated nerves, replace lost vigor and lassitude with energy and animation. Cure Nervous Dyspepsia.

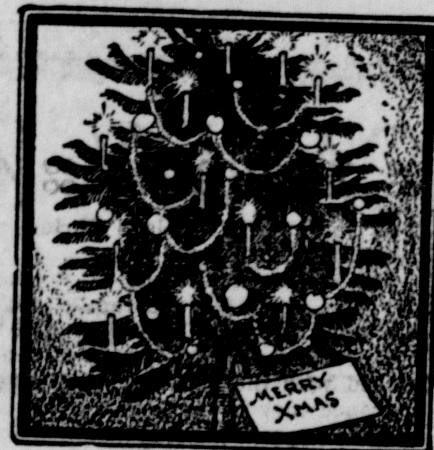

The above is the right kind prepared by the Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y., 50 cents per box. All others are imitations. Sold in East Liverpool by Charles T. Larkins.

G. R. PATTISON

DIAMONDS

WATCHES

ON'T wait until it's time to trim the CHRISTMAS TREE before selecting your Gifts. If you do you will not find the best to select from. We now have an exceptionally fine line of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry of every description.

Also a fine selection of Umbrellas, Toilet Cases, Manicure Sets, Cut Glass and Silverware.

We engrave all goods purchased at our store free of charge. Open every evening until Christmas.

G. R. PATTISON

The Diamond Merchant.

thing which might occur to any man, and he walked out of the courtroom with head erect, but with an empty pocket. The Count de la Motte (on the other side of the channel) was sentenced to the galleys for life; Retaux Villette, who forged the letters, was sentenced to banishment, and the Countess de la Motte, the woman who contrived and carried out the whole affair, was sentenced to appear naked with a rope around her neck, to be beaten and branded with the letter V on her two shoulders by the public executioner and then to be taken to the prison Saltpetriere and to be imprisoned for life. Her punishment began in 1786, the details of which are too horrible to write. Cagliostro, the charlatan, who had become an inmate of the house of Cardinal de Rohan, was supposed to have known all about the conspiracy, and he was banished.

In 1793 Marie Antoinette was brought to trial before the revolutionary tribunal and in consequence suffered the penalty of the guillotine. As the public executioner held up her head by her beautiful hair before the clamoring mob, exclaiming, "Behold the head of a traitress!" it was as sure as fate that history would do her justice, as it has done. Thus perished the queen of France, "done to death" by such ridiculous charges as a knowledge of the pretended purchase of the diamond necklace.

Blunders That Convict Criminals

The theory that crime is a disease receives strong confirmation from the extraordinary blunders of which almost every criminal is guilty and which invariably end by setting the dogs of law on the right track. A murderous burglar will display the greatest craftiness in the actual commission of crime, get away unrecognized and then fling the results of his toil to the winds by a piece of rank carelessness which is almost beyond the conception of the average man of business.

Take the recent jewel robbery at one of the big London hotels. The thief, a valet, secured gems to the value of £10,000, got off safely and, having purchased a most expensive outfit, calmly enjoyed himself under the very eyes of Scotland Yard, whose emissaries were searching for him in his native country. What must the man do but leave one of the stolen jewel cases, with the initials of its owner upon it in gold letters, upon his dressing table at his hotel. Of course a servant saw it and informed the police.

Another instance that came recently to the knowledge of the writer was that of a burglar, an ex-convict, who broke into a Herefordshire rectory and stole therefrom a quantity of gold coin, including several old fashioned guineas kept in the same drawer as the more modern cash. The man carefully left alone a gold medal and other valuables, the possession of which he evidently thought would be dangerous. He then escaped undetected, made his way through a heavy rainstorm to a town fourteen miles away and stopped there to buy a coat before taking train for London. Will it be believed that he offered the shopkeeper guineas in payment for his purchase? Such an obvious clue could hardly be neglected even by country police, and the man was caught.

Citizenship.

A person born in this country of alien parents may follow the nationality of his birthplace and call himself an American without naturalization or he may follow that of his parents and be a foreigner.

Dr. FENNER'S GOLDEN RELIEF
Old Sores, Wounds, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Erysipelas, etc.
INFLAMMATION
Sore throat, Hoarseness (3 minutes), Toothache (1 minute), Cold Sores, Fingers, etc., etc.
"Colds," Forming Fevers, GRIP.
CURES ANY PAIN INSIDE OR OUT
In one to thirty minutes.
By Dealers. The 50c. size by mail 1.00c. Freehold, N. Y.
FOR SALE AT HODSON'S DRUG STORE

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're ill or will be. Keep your bowels open, and the well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take

EAT 'EM LIKE CANDY
Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Grip, 10, 25, and 50 cents per box. Write for free sample, and booklet on health. Address: STEELING KENEDY COMPANY, CHICAGO or NEW YORK.

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

Pennsylvania Lines
Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Tie
In Effect May 26, 1901.
From East Liverpool.
Cleveland and Pittsburgh Division.

EASTBOUND.
No. 1230..... 8:50 a. m.
1232..... 9:51 a. m.
1234..... 11:21 a. m.
1236..... 3:00 p. m.
1238..... 5:40 p. m.
1240..... 7:30 a. m.
1242..... 8:35 p. m.

WESTBOUND.
No. 1231..... 12:30 a. m.
1233..... 9:05 a. m.
1235..... 2:40 p. m.
1237..... 5:35 p. m.
1239..... 8:45 p. m.

From Chester.
Pittsburgh (Pan Handle) Division.

EASTBOUND.
No. 1230..... 8:50 a. m.
1232..... 9:51 a. m.
1234..... 11:21 a. m.
1236..... 3:00 p. m.
1238..... 5:40 p. m.
1240..... 7:30 a. m.
1242..... 8:35 p. m.

WESTBOUND.
No. 1231..... 12:30 a. m.
1233..... 9:05 a. m.
1235..... 2:40 p. m.
1237..... 5:35 p. m.
1239..... 8:45 p. m.

*Runs Daily. *Daily, except Sunday
Sunday only.
Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 303 and 302 and Parlor Cars on Nos. 305 and 304 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek, id Alliance. No. 306 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 349 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 351 for Youngstown, Niles, Jamestown, Erie and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 308 connect at Bayard to New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch.
For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to ADAM HILL, Passenger and Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Better Than Money.

We issue demand certificates of deposit, which, when properly endorsed, may be transferred from one person to another. These certificates often take the place of money, and, owing to their safety and convenience, are used in the purchase of property, in the payment of debts, taxes, etc.

The Potters National Bank.

MAKE KNOWN YOUR WANTS

Inform the public of what you have For Sale, For Rent or For Exchange; what you have Lost or found. The cheapest and Best Way is to place a small ad. in the Favorite Home Newspaper.

The Evening News Review

Real Estate Offices, Drug Stores and News Stands throughout the city will supply you with cards on which to write your ad. Pay 25 cents for a card, write it and mail it, and

You Will Get What You Want

There's no reflection so dainty, no light so charming as the mellow glow that comes from CORDOVA Wax Candles Prepared in many color tints to harmonize with surroundings in dining room, drawing room, bed room or hall. Sold everywhere. Made by STANDARD OIL CO.

Page's Climax Salve

A Family Blessing for 25 Cts.

Recommended and prescribed by our most eminent physicians and guaranteed to cure the most obstinate cases of old sores and wounds or money refunded.

Old Sores, Ulcers, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Eczema, Corns, Bunions, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Sore Nipples, Caked Breasts, Fistula, Piles, &c.

For sale by all Druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price. 25c. a Box or 5 boxes for $1.00. J. P. MILLS, Sole Proprietor, New York.

Queen's Diamond Necklace

Story of Famous Scandal of the Court of Marie Antoinette

One of the most interesting bits of French history, which was the great scandal of the court of Marie Antoinette, is the strange affair of the diamond necklace, says B. F. Stevens in American Cultivator.

The conspiracy of the diamond necklace was got up by a woman named the Countess de la Motte, who appeared upon the stage of life more than 130 years ago, just when Mme. de Pompadour died and when the star of Mme. du Barry was gaining the ascendant and when Louis XV., their royal lover, was growing too old to withstand the blandishments of the latter siren, for whom the diamond necklace was originally intended.

Jeanne de Valois, who became the celebrated Countess de la Motte, the chief actor in a plot to pretend to buy for Marie Antoinette the diamond necklace, was a descendant of an illegitimate son of Henry II. of Valois, king of France, and Diana of Poitiers.

The commission to make the diamond necklace, the execution of which was an affair of time, was given by Louis XV. to the crown jewelers. Every important city of Europe was ransacked for matchless gems, for the king's mistress must have the best and the costliest. The price agreed upon for these

ACTRESS AND CARDINAL MET.

Jewels was 2,000,000 francs, or $400,000, but before the magnificent bauble was finished King Louis XV. the Well Beloved died of smallpox, deserted by every living soul. The favorite for whom this necklace had been ordered was banished beyond the precincts of the court, to ultimately meet her fate by the guillotine in the reign of terror.

Le roi est mort! Vive le roi! And so the grandson of the dead king, now Louis XVI., ascends the throne of France, with his beautiful wife, Marie Antoinette of Austria, to lay their heads finally on the block. The crown jewelers were in despair. They had an elephant on their hands. How could they foresee that their royal customer, full of health in November, 1773, when he gave the order, would die of smallpox within the following six months? They tried every means in their power to sell this necklace by sending engraved copies of it to every court in Europe, but no one wanted it.

Marie Antoinette owed these crown jewelers 348,000 francs for a pair of diamond earrings, of which amount she had paid on account 48,000 francs, leaving due from her at the date of her supposed connection with the affair 300,000 francs. Here was a chance for the crown jewelers to dispose of the necklace which had been morally hanging about their necks like a leaden weight. But France being then at war with England, the crown jewelers were repulsed by Marie Antoinette with the remark, "Messieurs, we have more need of men of war now than of diamonds."

In the meantime Jeanne de Valois, after undergoing trouble and vicissitudes, married a Count de la Motte, and this precious couple, living on a fifth floor in Paris, with only the gains of the green cloth or gaming table for a precarious living, turned their attention to this diamond necklace and to Marie Antoinette. The first thing to do was to ensure the grand almoner of France, the Cardinal Prince Louis de Rohan, then a tall, portly, handsome looking man, in his forty-eighth year, but weak and vain, any and every thing but devout, and mad after a pro-

Value of Versatility ...To the Actor

By WILTON LACKAYE

It is a very curious thing that while American actors are constantly reproached by foreign critics with a lack of versatility, which is alleged to constitute the main difference between foreign and American artists, American writers do not seem to remember the exhibitions of versatility furnished by artists of their own country.

It is undoubtedly successful stars are ex artists. But even in ten discover that if we they have deserted of versatility to prose has met with unusual think there is any such part. If there isn't a character, it isn't true that many of our hibitors rather than their case we will of trace them back a little their natural quality cute a specialty which public favor. I don't thing as a "straight" some salient point in worth playing.

I SAW A PROMINENT ACTOR PLAY IN THREE WEEKS IN NEW YORK A JOCKEY, A POET AND—ROMEO. THEY WERE ALL "LEADING PARTS"—STRAIGHT PARTS, IN THE LANGUAGE OF THE THEATER—AND HE PLAYED THEM ALL ALIKE.

He entertained his audience, too, but he was not "in the skin" of his characters; HE HAD ONLY STOLEN THEIR CLOTHES. The value of versatility in broadening one's art is incalculable. Any one can play Romeo better for having played a negro or an Irishman.

You will find in nearly every case of a sudden hit by an unknown actor that he has been working for years in road companies in some out of the way place storing up a "bit of business" here, an idea of "makeup" there, a trick of elocution in another part, until he has a fund of experience from which to draw when a metropolitan opportunity offers.

woman. The Countess de la Motte was a frequent visitor to the cardinal's palace, and their relations may be guessed at. The snares thus being set for the Cardinal de Rohan, Jeanne looked about for some one to help her in her designs upon Marie Antoinette, whose persecution by the crown jewelers had begun in 1774 and did not end for about ten years, when she peremptorily gave them their final answer, and thus the diamond necklace passed into oblivion for the time, ending in the failure of the makers, until Jeanne de la Motte got the Cardinal de Rohan in her toils, and the subject was revived.

The cardinal had an inordinate ambition to be upon friendly terms with Marie Antoinette. She did not actually shun him, but rather avoided him, and he felt the coldness of the queen toward him. At last he received letters purporting to be from Marie Antoinette in which the diamond necklace was spoken of, and the silly man passed out to Jeanne de la Motte from time to time various sums of money where-with to purchase the necklace, she acting as agent for the queen apparently, or a go between, with royalty on the one hand and religion on the other. And the cardinal finally paid out to his ladylove, Jeanne de la Motte, the full value of the necklace, which she obtained from the crown jewelers and passed over to her husband, who hurried with it to London, where he sold many of the stones, by which he and his wife escaped starvation.

But it must be made clear to the cardinal that Marie Antoinette had the necklace, so Jeanne employed an ac-

trix Antoinette denied in the strongest terms having ever seen the Countess de la Motte.

But the cardinal could not be made to believe that he had been imposed upon and that the famous necklace he had paid for was not in possession of the queen. He perhaps would scarcely have been heard of in history but for his unenviable notoriety with the Countess de la Motte. Mme. Campan in her memories of Marie Antoinette speaks of him as among the most important men of the day. All the facts recorded here occurred in the year 1784, when the adventuress De la Motte had completed her fabrication of lies and when her dupe, the cardinal, was upon the most intimate terms with her. His knowledge of her character was not manifested until after one of the crown jewelers had told Mme. Campan of the cardinal's connection with the whole affair. She, like a good woman, went to Marie Antoinette and disclosed the truth.

Then came the arrest of De Rohan, followed by that of the arch conspirator, the Countess de la Motte. Retaux de Villette fled to foreign parts, and the actress D'Olivia sought refuge in Brussels, but she was extradited and put into the Bastille, which now held all the guilty persons except the husband of Jeanne de la Motte, who had fled to England, taking with him the famous gems. On the value of those he dared to sell he subsisted. So great was the hatred of the people for Marie Antoinette that at the trial the cardinal was looked upon in no other light than a person deluded by an adventuress, a

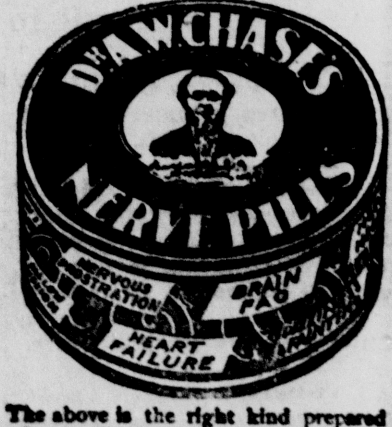

A Name Twice Made Famous, Now a Shining Mark for Imitators.

The name "Chase," twice made famous, is a shining mark for the unscrupulous to pounce upon and appropriate in order to foist upon the public their worthless preparations. These birds of prey, by using the name Chase, expect the public to be fooled into believing they are the medicines of Dr. A. W. Chase, who first became noted as the author of the world-famed Dr. Chase's recipe book and family physician, and whose name is now doubly increased by the wonderful success of his Nerve Pills, with Nerve, Brain and Blood troubles. They play upon the name Chase, but dare not use the initials "A. W."

They imitate, but dare not counterfeit the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, which identifies the Nerve Pills now recognized as infallible for building up pale, weak, thin-blooded, nerve exhausted sufferers.

Who are nerve-tired and brain-weary. Who are easily exhausted. Who are wakeful—cannot sleep. Who have nervous headache. They remove the cause of blood impurities, securing refreshing sleep and impart strength.

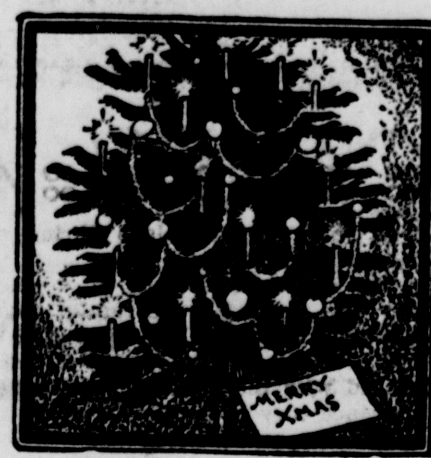

They build up people who find their strength and vigor waning. They settle irritated nerves, replace lost vigor and lassitude with energy and animation. Cure Nervous Dyspepsia.

The above is the right kind prepared by the Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y., 50 cents per box. All others are imitations. Sold in East Liverpool by Charles F. Larkins.

G. R. PATTISON

DIAMONDS

WATCHES

DON'T wait until it's time to trim the CHRISTMAS TREE before selecting your Gifts. If you do you will not find the best to select from. We now have an exceptionally fine line of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry of every description.

Also a fine selection of Umbrellas, Toilet Cases, Manicure Sets, Cut Glass and Silverware.

We engrave all goods purchased at our store free of charge.

Open every evening until Christmas.

G. R. PATTISON

The Diamond Merchant.

thing which might occur to any man, and he walked out of the courtroom with head erect, but with an empty pocket. The Count de la Motte (on the other side of the channel) was sentenced to the galleys for life; Retaux Villette, who forged the letters, was sentenced to banishment, and the Countess de la Motte, the woman who contrived and carried out the whole affair, was sentenced to appear naked with a rope around her neck, to be beaten and branded with the letter V on her two shoulders by the public executioner and then to be taken to the prison Salpêtrière and to be imprisoned for life. Her punishment began in 1786, the details of which are too horrible to write. Cagliostro, the charlatan, who had become an inmate of the house of Cardinal de Rohan, was supposed to have known all about the conspiracy, and he was banished.

In 1793 Marie Antoinette was brought to trial before the revolutionary tribunal and in consequence suffered the penalty of the guillotine. As the public executioner held up her head by her beautiful hair before the clamoring mob, exclaiming, "Behold the head of a traitress!" it was as sure as fate that history would do her justice, as it has done. Thus perished the queen of France, "done to death" by such ridiculous charges as a knowledge of the pretended purchase of the diamond necklace.

Blunders That Convict Criminals

The theory that crime is a disease receives strong confirmation from the extraordinary blunders of which almost every criminal is guilty and which invariably end by setting the dogs of law on the right track. A murderous burglar will display the greatest craftiness in the actual commission of crime, get away unrecognized and then fling the results of his toil to the winds by a piece of rank carelessness which is almost beyond the conception of the average man of business.

Take the recent jewel robbery at one of the big London hotels. The thief, a valet, secured gems to the value of £10,000, got off safely and, having purchased a most expensive outfit, calmly enjoyed himself under the very eyes of Scotland Yard, whose emissaries were searching for him in his native country. What must the man do but leave one of the stolen jewel cases, with the initials of its owner upon it in gold letters, upon his dressing table at his hotel. Of course a servant saw it and informed the police.

Another instance that came recently to the knowledge of the writer was that of a burglar, an convict, who broke into a Herefordshire rectory and stole therefrom a quantity of gold coin, including several old fashioned guineas kept in the same drawer as the more modern cash. The man carefully left alone a gold medal and other valuables, the possession of which he evidently thought would be dangerous. He then escaped undetected, made his way through a heavy rainstorm to a town fourteen miles away and stopped there to buy a coat before taking train for London. Will it be believed that he offered the shopkeeper guineas in payment for his purchase? Such an obvious clue could hardly be neglected even by country police, and the man was caught.

Citizenship.

A person born in this country of alien parents may follow the nationality of his birthplace and call himself an American without naturalization or he may follow that of his parents and be a foreigner.

Dr. FENNER'S GOLDEN RELIEF!
OLD SORES, WOUNDS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, NEURALGIC SCIATICA, BRUISES, BURNS, SCALDS, ETC.
INFLAMMATION
Sorethroat, Headache (5 minutes), Toothache (1 minute), Cold Sores, Felons, etc., etc.
"Golds," Forming Fevers, GRIP.
CURES ANY PAIN INSIDE OR OUT in one to thirty minutes.
By Dealers. The 10c. size by mail 15c. Fredonia, N.Y.
FOR SALE AT HODSON'S DRUG STORE

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're ill or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take

EAT 'EM LIKE CANDY
Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, No Dose, Never Sicken, Weakens, or Gripe, 10, 25, and 50 cents per box. Write for free sample, and booklet on Health. Address: STEARNS REMEDY COMPANY, CHICAGO or NEW YORK.
KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

Pennsylvania Lines
Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time in Effect May 26, 1901.
From East Liverpool.
Cleveland and Pittsburgh Division.

EASTBOUND.		WESTBOUND.
No.	Time	No.	Time
*302	2:56 a. m.	*301	12:56 a. m.
*340	6:51 a. m.	*339	7:56 a. m.
*358	11:21 a. m.	*357	9:06 a. m.
*380	3:06 p. m.	*379	2:40 p. m.
*316	5:40 p. m.	*315	6:38 p. m.
*264	7:30 p. m.	*263	8:26 p. m.
*202	9:52 p. m.	*201	9:48 p. m.

From Chester.
Pittsburgh (Pan Handle) Division.

EASTBOUND.		WESTBOUND.
No.	Time	No.	Time
*358	5:58 a. m.	*357	4:57 a. m.
*340	8:40 a. m.	*339	11:55 a. m.
*324	2:37 p. m.	*323	2:45 p. m.

*Runs Daily. †Daily, except Sunday
*Sunday only.

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 32 and 302 and Parlor Cars on Nos. 306 and 32 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 344 for Youngstown, Niles, Jamestown, Erie and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 305 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch.
For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to ADAM HILL, Passenger and Ticket Agent, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Better Than Money.

We issue demand certificates of deposit, which, when properly endorsed, may be transferred from one person to another. These certificates often take the place of money, and, owing to their safety and convenience, are used in the purchase of property, in the payment of debts, taxes, etc.

The Potters National Bank.

MAKE KNOWN YOUR WANTS

Inform the public of what you have For Sale, For Rent or For Exchange; what you have Lost or found. The cheapest and Best Way is to place a small ad. in the Favorite Home Newspaper.

The Evening News Review

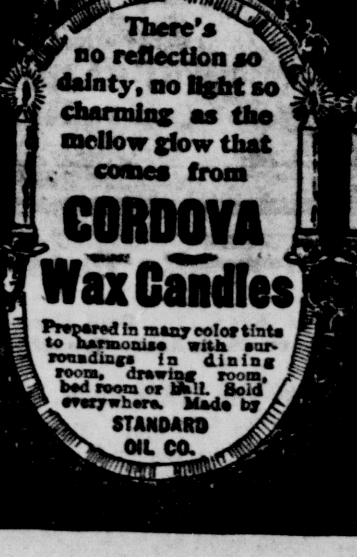

Real Estate Offices, Drug Stores and News Stands throughout the city will supply you with cards on which to write your ad. Pay 25 cents for a card, write it and mail it, and

You Will Get What You Want

Page's Climax Salve

A Family Blessing for 25 Cts.

Recommended and prescribed by some of the most eminent physicians and guaranteed to cure the most obstinate cases of old sores and wounds of money refunded.
Old Sores, Ulcers, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Eczema, Corns, Bunions, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Scalds, Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Boils, Fistula, Piles, etc.
For sale by all Druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 25c. a Box or 5 boxes for $1.00.
S. P. MILLS, Sole Proprietor, New York.

Christmas Work OF THE Salvation Army

EACH 25th of December the Salvation Army in various parts of the United States feeds all together more than 150,000 persons. In New York city the feast is spread in Madison Square Garden.

That Salvation Army Christmas dinner is a spectacle well worth seeing. The manner of it is the same year by year. For weeks before the event at street corners in all parts of the city iron pots are hung from gypsy tripods. Above each is a large lettered sign bearing the words "Keep the Pot Boiling." It means you are to put into that iron pot your nickel, dime, quarter or even the generous bank note—what ever you can spare—knowing it will be devoted literally, every cent, to feeding the hungry. Beside the pot stands an army lass with her scowp bonnet and red ribbon or a stalwart army man with his red banded blue cap. The pot is wide open, like the hearts of the people who put money into it.

SALVATION SOLDIER AND CHRISTMAS POT.

Besides the street collections generous private individuals of all theological sects and of none send money, with their best wishes, to the army headquarters. Grocers, poultry dealers and fish, game and fruit and vegetable marketmen donate of their wares great heaps and parcels.

Food both cooked and uncooked is given away. One feature is the Christmas dinner basket. About 4,000 baskets are given away, each containing a holiday dinner for four to five persons. A fowl, potatoes and other vegetables, some tea or coffee, several apples, also some spices and pepper and salt, with occasionally little sugar cakes, constitute the batch. Now, that is a good enough dinner for King Edward himself. All that has to be done to it is to cook it, yet among the motley throng who get this bounty are those who complain because the food is not cooked. Human nature gets tolerably low down when it once lets itself start that way.

The distribution of uncooked food begins Christmas morning and lasts till afternoon. Those who come for it are mostly women and children. In the evening there is spread upon tables in the Garden a high feast of cooked food to which thousands may sit down and be served by men and women Salvation Army waiters. Those who come thus to have a grand feed in the evening are mostly men. Formerly for this feast the army people furnished good plated forks and spoons and knives. Now they provide the very cheapest, for the feeders not only swallowed the turkey and ham, but some also pocketed the forks and spoons. Again, human nature can let itself tolerably low down when it slumps.

COMMANDER BOOTH-TUCKER.

The evening diners, spoon thieves and all, sit down like grand folk to their feast to the accompaniment of music by a brass band. The band is the finely trained one of the Salvation Army. It plays the most stirring, appealing tunes known to congregational music.

How Dinners and Good Cheer Are Brought to the Submerged Tenth

The band likewise plays during the morning distribution.

The innumerable army of the hungry who apply for the family dinner are admitted at one side of the Garden and are passed out at the opposite door loaded with the baskets. Outside the entrance they cover the sidewalk and overflow into the street for a block and a half north and south. Under the eyes of policemen and Salvation Army guards the two streams mingle and pass in regularly.

A decent looking woman upon the sidewalk shows a friendly spectator that she has no shoes except ragged ones, which let her feet upon the ground. Her husband has been ill three years, and she goes out to day's work when she gets it. This Christmas morning she has only 10 cents in her pocket.

"But look there!" she exclaims, pointing to a dark browed woman near. "That's one of them Eye-talians. She's got money in bank and plenty to eat. I heard her say she has a turkey at home now, but she's going to get all she can."

In the center of the auditorium stand Commander and Mrs. Booth-Tucker, with their own hands giving the baskets, one by one, to each applicant. Before them passes the line of this Christmas detachment from the eternal procession of the submerged—the poor, the halt, the blind, the sick, the lazy and the dirty. Some of the women are very old; many of them wear dingy woolen scarfs over their heads. A newspaper reporter standing near recognizes several of them as wives of men who are in jail—poor mothers who are getting Christmas dinners for their children. Again, different members of the same family have each a ticket for a basket of food, thus getting two or three times the allotted ration, enough food to last a week. But this is Christmas morning, and much is overlooked. The quality of mercy is not strained. Here and there a blind man or woman is pushed forward by friends to receive the coveted portion.

Some bring bushel baskets to carry away the food and are chaffed for their greediness. One facetious army private puts up a joke on his own comrades. He has taken off his uniform, put on plain clothes, got a ticket and endeavors to pass inspection and have a basket given to him. Already his mind has pictured the glee with which he will tell his friends how he deceived them and got a basket from under their very noses. But, no! Just at the critical point when he receives the basket and is moving on a sharp eyed brother recognizes him and cries out, at the same time seizing the basket. At that other comrades look up and recognize him, too, and in an instant all is over with his merry plot. The basket is taken away from him, he is dragged out of the procession and well thumped in good natured horseplay. When his laughing comrades are done with him, the joke is certainly not on them.

MRS. BOOTH-TUCKER.

The average portrait of Mrs. Booth-Tucker gives no adequate idea of the way she looks as she stands there on Christmas morning, with her illuminated face like the face of an angel. She is without her bonnet, and her head is covered with its own beautiful, thick, golden hair. For almost every one who receives from her a basket she has a sweet, bright, cheering word, to all seemingly a different word, as if the Spirit told her what to say to each. "God bless you, mother," she murmurs to a feeble old woman, so weak she totters under the weight of her dinner basket. As she passes on a uniformed aid slips into the old one's hand a nickel to pay her car fare. To aged women and to children Mrs. Booth-Tucker is especially tender.

The sweet, cultured, thrilling voice goes on. "Merry Christmas!" to this one. "Happy New Year!" to that one. One poor old hopeless looking, degraded wreck of a man she touched softly upon the shoulder in benediction and said, "God loves you!" It was like the voice and touch of an angel to the battered wretch, whom one may hope God does indeed love, for it is tolerably certain nobody else does.

FOURNIER ON RUNNING AN AUTO BACKWARD.

Eminent French Chauffeur Places Great Stress on This Feature of Motor Work.

Henri Fournier in his instructions to chauffeurs states that the utmost care should be taken to learn thoroughly the art of running automobiles backward. The eminent French expert is the best authority in the world on the subject of motor vehicle operating, and his views are therefore of especial interest. He says:

"If I wanted to get a fair idea of the skill of a chauffeur from one performance with his auto, I think I should select as a test that he go a few rods backward and let me watch how he did it."

"Watch any automobilist get in a crush of vehicles which forces him to run for a little way backward. How does he do it? He will nearly always reverse, glance once, maybe twice, over his right or his left shoulder, indifferent which shoulder he selects, and then he will look back to the front again.

REVERSING THE LEVER.

"And that is the mistake, for in going backward in an automobile the attention of the chauffeur should be taken off the road in front of him as if no such road existed. His business is with what lies behind him and nothing besides."

"In regard to the management of the steering wheel I insist on the need to keep the eye off the lever, off the brake, off the indicator and, almost always, off the wheel and to have it fixed undeviatingly on the road the auto is to traverse. When the action of the machine is reversed, this caution is not to be considered less important."

"Of course the mere reversal of the machine is a simple matter. The speed lever indicates eight or sixty miles an hour, as one will, and the longer lever, instead of being pushed forward, is pulled back to its farthest position. The brake on the wheels and the motor brake naturally act quite the same as when the direction is forward, and so does the steering wheel, but they may all combine to throw you into a ditch if you divide your attention between them and the road back of you."

"The hands and feet must be trained to find their way unerringly—the feet to the two brakes, the right hand to either of the levers, the left hand to the indicator of the steam or the button which controls the motor and both hands to the steering wheel quite without the aid of the eye. When the course is forward, the eye, even when it is fixed on the road, can in a way assist the movement of the hands to the necessary instruments, but with the head over the shoulder one's sense of the location of levers and button and indicator and brakes, which, by the way, gets to be quite a special sense in itself, is all one has with which to run the machine. This, however, becomes a mere matter of habit, and the only difficult detail is in learning to adjust the indicator to a nicety without looking at it. There is nothing upon this to mark the modifying or accelerating of the speed, as I have said, so the control of this is purely one of the sense of touch while the head is so turned.

FOURNIER RUNNING HIS MACHINE BACKWARD.

"The sense of being the master of the machine in every possible situation is a very important one and does much to give the automobilist confidence and so to insure his safety. Only so is he secure in an emergency, and in an automobile it is only in an emergency that he need bother about his security."

Princeton's Football Captain.

Ralph Tipton Davis of Blossburg, Pa., has been elected captain of the Princeton football team for 1902. Davis is a sophomore and played end on the 1901 team. Last year he played right tackle. He prepared at Phillips academy, Andover, Mass., where he captained the team in 1899. He is twenty-one years old, weighs 168 pounds and measures 5 feet 8 inches.

Ed Geers' Big Winnings.

During the last trotting season Ed Geers won a total of $56,425. With the Abbot he corralled $15,000, with Onward Silver, $14,475; Lord Derby, $11,875; Silver Chimes, $9,525; Iva Dee, $4,050, and Walter Keim, $1,500.

Don't let flattering advertisements deceive you, but go to

JOHN SCHLEITER, 128 SECOND STREET

For your Furniture and Stoves. Center Stands 60c and up; Iron Beds $2.50 and up; prices and styles on chairs and rockers that will surprise you.

P. S. New goods arriving daily. Big Stock to select from.

"Before all, you will enjoy good health."

Wright's Celery Tea

Is sold by all druggists or sent by mail. Price 25c. and 50c. WRIGHT MEDICAL CO., Columbus, O.

THIS BEAUTIFUL DECANTER FREE.

A handsome Decanter, cut glass pattern, filled with the choicest of old 1895 Port Wine. With every Dollar Purchase of Wines and Liquors between December 15 and January 15—you get a Decanter free. Mail orders promptly filled. Get up clubs and save expressage, which we prepay on $10 orders. With $5 orders 6 bottles of Whiskey and 2 Decanters; or, 5 bottles of Whiskey and 5 Decanters. Remember FLEMING never cuts quality or raises prices to even-up on his Holiday Gift. We are leaders but have lots of imitators. Send us your orders—we'll treat you right.

JOS. FLEMING & SON,
410-412 Market St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Cleveland World
EIGHT PAGES, DAILY, 312 ISSUES.

THE OHIO FARMER,
—and—
The Saturday Review

To all new subscribers to the SATURDAY REVIEW the three above papers will be furnished for $2. Renewals to the SATURDAY REVIEW the three papers will be furnished for $2.40.

"A Combination the Greatest That Ever Was."

But a combination made in the interests of the people, not against them. It is the kind of combination that will appeal to our newspaper readers.

A Daily Metropolitan Paper
A Reliable and Popular Farm Paper
And a Weekly Home Paper,
all one year for only $2 to new subscribers or $2.40 for renewals to the Saturday Review.

Now is the time to subscribe. Send your order direct to

The Saturday Review.
East Liverpool, Ohio.

Trochet's Colchicine Salicylate Capsules.
A standard and infallible cure for RHEUMATISM and GOUT, endorsed by the highest medical authorities of Europe and America. Dispensed only in spherical capsules, which dissolve in liquids of the stomach without causing irritation or disagreeable symptoms. Price, $1 per bottle. Sold by druggists. Be sure and get the genuine.
WILLIAMS MFG. CO., CLEVELAND, OHIO, Sole Proprietors
Sold at Bert Ansley's Pharmacy, East Liverpool, O.

LEGAL!

Notice of Estimated Assessment for the Improvement of Calcutta Road.

NOTICE is hereby given that an estimated assessment of the cost and expenses of the improvement of Calcutta road, from Wall street to the Riverview cemetery, has been made upon the lots and lands benefited thereby and set forth in the ordinance to improve said street, passed the 26th day of June, 1900, and now on file in the office of the Clerk of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, for the inspection and examination of persons interested therein.

By Order of Council,
J. N. HANLEY, City Clerk.
East Liverpool, O., Nov. 30, 1901.
Published in the Evening News Review for three consecutive weeks, beginning November 30, 1901.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING.

Wanted, For Sale, To Rent, Financial, Exchange, personals not exceeding 30 words, daily, three insertions, 25 cents; 50 cents the week; $1.50 the month. Weekly, 25 cents, one time; 75 cents the month. Cash in advance, otherwise we will charge double price to cover bookkeeping and collection.

WANTED.

WANTED—Ladies of ordinary education for business position; salary $1 to $2 per day. Write or call between 1 and 8 p. m. at 247 Fifth street. 153-r

WANTED—A rubber. Apply at Decorating Department Vredy Pottery company. 153-r

WANTED—A girl to care for two children, 5 and 8 years old; good wages. Apply at 150 Third street. 152-r

WANTED—500 men to come and hear L. C. Wells' lecture at K. of P. hall at 8 o'clock Friday evening. Come one, come all. Admission free. 151-j

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Four good rooms at 282 Second street. Inquire of J. N. Rose, Ikirt building. 149-ct

FOR RENT—Nice furnished room, with use of gas, for gentlemen; not 3 minutes' walk from Diamond. Inquire at Hedderston Bros. grocery Market street. 150-j

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—One gas range, four heating stoves and three tables. Call at 207 Walnut street, either Saturday or Monday afternoon. 153-r

FOR SALE—Coal cook stove and small heating stove; cheap for cash, at 158 Chester avenue. 153-r

FOR SALE—Mandolin, with case; good tone; will sell cheap. Address "C," News Review office. 139-a

FOR SALE—A coal mine in operation, fully equipped with electric mining machinery and all the modern equipments; it has only been in operation about 6 months, 4 acres of coal worked out; capacity of 8,000 tons per month; located in the celebrated Beadling district, 11 miles from Pittsburgh; sidings for 50 railroad cars; reasons for selling due to closing up an estate. For further information address "W," care News Review. 128-ct

FOR SALE—Fine limestone land farm, 180 acres in Belmont county, one-half mile from county seat, all underlaid with high grade coal. One vein under 125 estimated about 500,000 tons, another vein under entire 180 acres estimated over 1,000,000 tons. A total of about 1,500,000 tons. Railroad within one-half mile. Can be had at farm price, settling estate. This is an investment which will bring positive and profitable return. For further information address "W," care Evening News Review. 190-47-4t

FOUND.

FOUND—On Broadway Tuesday afternoon a lady's chatelaine. Owner can have same by calling on Frank Johnston at the opera house and paying for the advertisement. 153-r

MISCELLANEOUS.

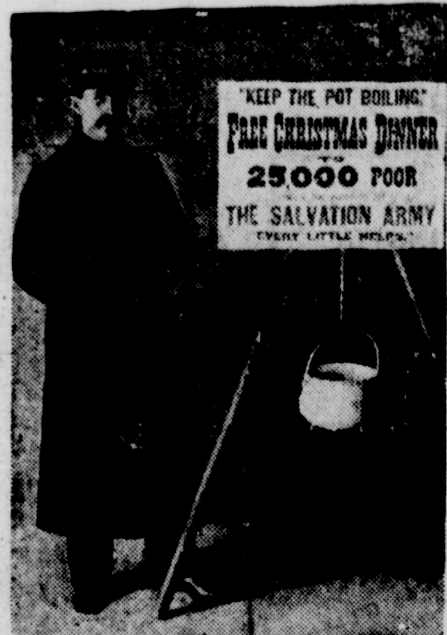

LOCAL AGENTS—Ladies or gentlemen. Address Box 318, Wellsville, O., for pleasant employment. 151 2wks*

Ir will Driscoll and Dick Chadwick are in town, they are requested to call at 315 Lincoln avenue and redeem their trunk and two sets of spurs within five days, or same will be sold. 152-r

THE Moler Barber College, 61 Terrace, Buffalo, N. Y., wants more men to learn the barber trade; eight weeks completes; full set of tools presented each student; diplomas awarded; positions waiting graduates in Soldiers' Homes and City Hospitals, as well as country and city shops; we control many good jobs; can earn scholarship, board, tools and transportation if desired; write for catalogue today. 149-ct

Christmas Work OF THE Salvation Army

EACH 25th of December the Salvation Army in various parts of the United States feeds altogether more than 150,000 persons. In New York city the feast is spread in Madison Square Garden. That Salvation Army Christmas dinner is a spectacle well worth seeing. The manner of it is the same year by year. For weeks before the event at street corners in all parts of the city iron pots are hung from gypsy tripods. Above each is a large lettered sign bearing the words "Keep the Pot Boiling." It means you are to put into that iron pot your nickel, dime, quarter

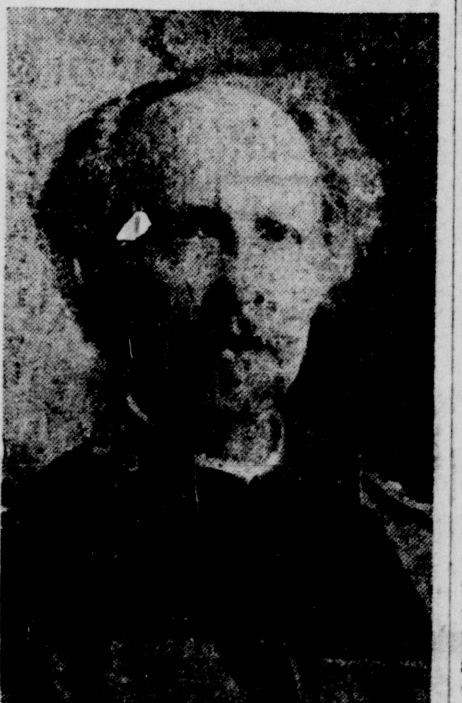

SALVATION SOLDIER AND CHRISTMAS POT. or even the generous bank note—what ever you can spare—knowing it will be devoted literally, every cent, to feeding the hungry. Beside the pot stands an army lass with her scowp bonnet and red ribbon or a stalwart army man with his red banded blue cap. The pot is wide open, like the hearts of the people who put money into it.

Besides the street collections generous private individuals of all theological sects and of none send money, with their best wishes, to the army headquarters. Grocers, poultry dealers and fish, game and fruit and vegetable marketmen donate of their wares great heaps and parcels.

Food both cooked and uncooked is given away. One feature is the Christmas dinner basket. About 4,000 baskets are given away, each containing a holiday dinner for four to five persons. A fowl, potatoes and other vegetables, some tea or coffee, several apples, also some spices and pepper and salt, with occasionally little sugar cakes, constitute the batch. Now, that is a good enough dinner for King Edward himself. All that has to be done to it is to cook it, yet among the motley throng who get this bounty are those who complain because the food is not cooked. Human nature gets tolerably low down when it once lets itself start that way.

The distribution of uncooked food begins Christmas morning and lasts till afternoon. Those who come for it are mostly women and children. In the evening there is spread upon tables in the Garden a high feast of cooked food to which thousands may sit down and be served by men and women Salvation Army waiters. Those who come thus to have a grand feed in the evening are mostly men. Formerly for this feast the army people furnished good plated forks and spoons and knives. Now they provide the very cheapest, for the feeders not only swallowed the turkey and ham, but some also pocketed the forks and spoons. Again, human nature can let itself tolerably low down when it slumps. The evening diners, spoon thieves and all, sit down like grand folk to their feast to the accompaniment of music by a brass band. The band is the finely trained one of the Salvation Army. It plays the most stirring, appealing tunes known to congregational music.

COMMANDER BOOTH-TUCKER.

How Dinners and Good Cheer Are Brought to the Submerged Tenth

The band likewise plays during the morning distribution.

The innumerable army of the hungry who apply for the family dinner are admitted at one side of the Garden and are passed out at the opposite door loaded with the baskets. Outside the entrance they cover the sidewalk and overflow into the street for a block and a half north and south. Under the eyes of policemen and Salvation Army guards the two streams mingle and pass in regularly.

A decent looking woman upon the sidewalk shows a friendly spectator that she has no shoes except ragged ones, which let her feet upon the ground. Her husband has been ill three years, and she goes out to day's work when she gets it. This Christmas morning she has only 10 cents in her pocket.

"But look there!" she exclaims, pointing to a dark browed woman near. "That's one of them Eye-tallans. She's got money in bank and plenty to eat. I heard her say she has a turkey at home now, but she's going to get all she can!"

In the center of the auditorium stand Commander and Mrs. Booth-Tucker, with their own hands giving the baskets, one by one, to each applicant. Before them passes the line of this Christmas detachment from the eternal procession of the submerged—the poor, the halt, the blind, the sick, the lazy and the dirty. Some of the women are very old; many of them wear dingy woolen scarfs over their heads. A newspaper reporter standing near recognizes several of them as wives of men who are in jail—poor mothers who are getting Christmas dinners for their children. Again, different members of the same family have each a ticket for a basket of food, thus getting two or three times the allotted ration, enough food to last a week. But this is Christmas morning, and much is overlooked. The quality of mercy is not strained. Here and there a blind man or woman is pushed forward by friends to receive the coveted portion.

Some bring bushel baskets to carry away the food and are chaffed for their greediness. One facetious army private puts up a joke on his own comrades. He has taken off his uniform, put on plain clothes, got a ticket and endeavors to pass inspection and have a basket given to him. Already his mind has pictured the glee with which he will tell his friends how he deceived them and got a basket from under their very noses. But, not just at the critical point when he receives the basket and is moving on a sharp eyed brother recognizes him and cries out, at the same time seizing the basket. At that other comrades look up and recognize him, too, and in an instant all is over with his merry plot. The basket is taken away from him, he is dragged out of the procession and well thumped in good natured horseplay. When his laughing comrades are done with him, the joke is certainly not on them.

MRS. BOOTH-TUCKER.

The average portrait of Mrs. Booth-Tucker gives no adequate idea of the way she looks as she stands there on Christmas morning, with her illuminated face like the face of an angel. She is without her bonnet, and her head is covered with its own beautiful, thick, golden hair. For almost every one who receives from her a basket she has a sweet, bright, cheering word, to all seemingly a different word, as if the Spirit told her what to say to each. "God bless you, mother," she murmurs to a feeble old woman, so weak she totters under the weight of her dinner basket. As she passes on a uniformed aid slips into the old one's hand a nickel to pay her car fare. To aged women and to children Mrs. Booth-Tucker is especially tender.

The sweet, cultured, thrilling voice goes on. "Merry Christmas!" to this one, "Happy New Year!" to that one. One poor old hopeless looking, degraded wreck of a man she touched softly upon the shoulder in benediction and said, "God loves you!" It was like the voice and touch of an angel to the battered wretch, whom one may hope God does indeed love, for it is tolerably certain nobody else does.

FOURNIER ON RUNNING AN AUTO BACKWARD.

Eminent French Chauffeur Places Great Stress on This Feature of Motor Work.

Henri Fournier in his instructions to chauffeurs states that the utmost care should be taken to learn thoroughly the art of running automobiles backward. The eminent French expert is the best authority in the world on the subject of motor vehicle operating, and his views are therefore of especial interest. He says:

"If I wanted to get a fair idea of the skill of a chauffeur from one performance with his auto, I think I should select as a test that he go a few rods backward and let me watch how he did it."

"Watch any automobilist get in a crush of vehicles which forces him to run for a little way backward. How does he do it? He will nearly always reverse, glance once, maybe twice, over his right or his left shoulder, indifferent which shoulder he selects, and then he will look back to the front again.

REVERSING THE LEVER.

"And that is the mistake, for in going backward in an automobile the attention of the chauffeur should be taken off the road in front of him as if no such road existed. His business is with what lies behind him and nothing besides."

"In regard to the management of the steering wheel I insist on the need to keep the eye off the lever, off the brake, off the indicator and, almost always, off the wheel and to have it fixed undeviatingly on the road the auto is to traverse. When the action of the machine is reversed, this caution is not to be considered less important."

"Of course the mere reversal of the machine is a simple matter. The speed lever indicates either or sixty miles an hour, as one will, and the longer lever, instead of being pushed forward, is pulled back to its farthest position. The brake on the wheels and the motor brake naturally act quite the same as when the direction is forward, and so does the steering wheel, but they may all combine to throw you into a ditch if you divide your attention between them and the road back of you."

"The hands and feet must be trained to find their way unerringly—the feet to the two brakes, the right hand to either of the levers, the left hand to the indicator of the steam or the button which controls the motor and both hands to the steering wheel quite without the aid of the eye. When the course is forward, the eye, even when it is fixed on the road, can in a way assist the movement of the hands to the necessary instruments, but with the head over the shoulder one's sense of the location of levers and button and indicator and brakes, which, by the way, gets to be quite a special sense in itself, is all one has with which to run the machine. This, however, becomes a mere matter of habit, and the only difficult detail is in learning to adjust the indicator to a needy without looking at it. There is nothing upon this to mark the modifying or accelerating of the speed, as I have said, so the control of this is purely one of the sense of touch while the head is so turned.

FOURNIER RUNNING HIS MACHINE BACKWARD.

"The sense of being the master of the machine in every possible situation is a very important one and does much to give the automobilist confidence and so to insure his safety. Only so is he secure in an emergency, and in an automobile it is only in an emergency that he need bother about his security."

Princeton's Football Captain.

Ralph Tipton Davis of Blossburg, Pa., has been elected captain of the Princeton football team for 1902. Davis is a sophomore and played end on the 1901 team. Last year he played right tackle. He prepared at Phillips academy, Andover, Mass., where he captained the team in 1899. He is twenty-one years old, weighs 168 pounds and measures 5 feet 8 inches.

Ed Geers' Big Winnings.

During the last trotting season Ed Geers won a total of $56,425. With the Abbot he corralled $15,000, with Onward Silver, $14,475; Lord Derby, $11,875; Silver Chimes, $9,525; Iva Dee, $4,050, and Walter Kelm, $1,500.

Don't let flattering advertisements deceive you, but go to

JOHN SCHLEITER, 128 SECOND STREET

For your Furniture and Stoves. Center Stands 60c and up; Iron Beds $2.50 and up; prices and styles on chairs and rockers that will surprise you.

P. S. New goods arriving daily. Big Stock to select from.

"Before all, you will enjoy good health."

Wright's Celery Tea

Wright's Celery Tea soothes the nerves, promotes healthful sleep, creates appetite, helps digestion, renews vigor. The surest remedy for chronic constipation, rheumatism and all nervous and stomach troubles.

Is sold by all druggists or sent by mail. Price 25c. and 50c. WRIGHT MEDICAL CO., Columbus, O.

THIS BEAUTIFUL DECANTER FREE.

A handsome Decanter, cut glass pattern, filled with the choicest of old 1893 Port Wine. With every Dollar Purchase of Wines and Liquors between December 15 and January 15—you get a Decanter free. Mail orders promptly filled. Get up clubs and save expressage, which we prepay on $10 orders. With $5 orders 6 bottles of Whiskey and 2 Decanters; or, 5 bottles of Whiskey and 5 Decanters. Remember FLEMING never cuts quality or raises prices to even-up on his Holiday Gift. We are leaders but have lots of imitators. Send us your orders—we'll treat you right.

JOS. FLEMING & SON,
410-412 Market St., - Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Cleveland World

EIGHT PAGES, DAILY, 312 ISSUES.

THE OHIO FARMER,

—and—

The Saturday Review

To all new subscribers to the SATURDAY REVIEW the three above papers will be furnished for $2. Renewals to the SATURDAY REVIEW the three papers will be furnished for $2.40.

"A Combination the Greatest That Ever Was."

But a combination made in the interests of the people, not against them. It is the kind of combination that will appeal to our newspaper readers.

A Daily Metropolitan Paper
A Reliable and Popular Farm Paper
And a Weekly Home Paper,
all one year for only $2 to new subscribers or $2.40 for renewals to the Saturday Review.

Now is the time to subscribe. Send your order direct to

The Saturday Review.

East Liverpool, Ohio.

Trochet's Colchicine Salicylate Capsules.

A standard and infallible cure for RHEUMATISM and GOUT, endorsed by the highest medical authorities of Europe and America. Dispensed only in spherical capsules, which dissolve in liquids of the stomach without causing irritation or disagreeable symptoms. Price, $1 per bottle. Sold by druggists. Be sure and get the genuine.

WILLIAMS MFG. CO., CLEVELAND, OHIO, Sole Proprietors.
Sold at Bert Ansel's Pharmacy, East Liverpool, O.

LEGAL

Notice of Estimated Assessment for the Improvement of Calcutta Road.

NOTICE is hereby given that an estimated assessment of the cost and expenses of the Improvement of Calcutta road, from Wall street to the Riverview cemetery, has been made upon the lots and lands benefited thereby and set forth in the ordinance to improve said street, passed the 26th day of June, 1900, and now on file in the office of the Clerk of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, for the inspection and examination of persons interested therein.

By Order of Council,
J. N. HANLEY, City Clerk.
East Liverpool, O., Nov. 30, 1901.
Published in the Evening News Review for three consecutive weeks, beginning November 30, 1901.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING.

Wanted, For Sale, To Rent, Financial, Exchange, personals not exceeding 30 words, daily, three insertions, 25 cents; 50 cents the week; $1.50 the month. Weekly, 25 cents, one time; 75 cents the month. Cash in advance, otherwise we will charge double price to cover bookkeeping and collection.

WANTED.

WANTED—Ladies of ordinary education for business position; salary $1 to $2 per day. Write or call between 1 and 8 p. m. at 247 Fifth street.

153-r

WANTED—A rubber. Apply at Decorating Department Vodyre Pottery company.

153-r

WANTED—A girl to care for two children, 5 and 8 years old; good wages. Apply at 150 Third street.

152-r

WANTED—500 men to come and hear L. C. Wells' lecture at K. of P. hall at 8 o'clock Friday evening. Come one, come all. Admission free.

151-j

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Four good rooms at 282 Second street. Inquire of J. N. Rose, Ikirt building.

149-cf

FOR RENT—Nice furnished room, with use of gas, for gentlemen; not 3 minutes' walk from Diamond. Inquire at Heddleston Bros' grocery Market street.

150-j

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—One gas range, four heating stoves and three tables. Call at 207 Walnut street, either Saturday or Monday afternoon.

153-r

FOR SALE—Coal cook stove and small heating stove; cheap for cash, at 158 Chester avenue.

153-r

FOR SALE—Mandolin, with case; good tone; will sell cheap. Address "C," News Review office.

139..

FOR SALE—A coal mine in operation, fully equipped with electric mining machinery and all the modern equipments; it has only been in operation about 6 months, 4 acres of coal worked out; capacity of 8,000 tons per month; located in the celebrated Beadling district, 11 miles from Pittsburgh; sidings for 50 railroad cars; reasons for selling due to closing up an estate. For further information address "W," care News Review.

128-47

FOR SALE—Fine limestone land farm, 180 acres in Belmont county, one-half mile from county seat, all underlaid with high grade coal. One vein under 125 estimated about 500,000 tons, another vein under entire 180 acres estimated over 1,000,000 tons. A total of about 1,500,000 tons. Railroad within one-half mile. Can be had at farm price, settling estate. This is an investment which will bring positive and profitable return. For further information address "W," care Evening News Review.

190-47-47

FOUND.

FOUND—On Broadway Tuesday afternoon a lady's chatelaine. Owner can have same by calling on Frank Johnston at the opera house and paying for the advertisement.

153-r

MISCELLANEOUS.

LOCAL AGENTS—Ladies or gentlemen. Address Box 318, Wellsville, O., for pleasant employment.

151 2wks*

Mr. Will Driscoll and Dick Chadwick are in town, they are requested to call at 315 Lincoln avenue and redeem their trunk and two sets of spurs within five days, or same will be sold.

152-r

THE Moler Barber College, 61 Terrace, Buffalo, N. Y., wants more men to learn the barber trade; eight weeks completes; full set of tools presented each student; diplomas awarded; positions waiting graduates in Soldiers' Homes and City Hospitals, as well as country and city shops; we control many good jobs; can earn scholarship; board, tools and transportation if desired; write for catalogue today.

150-12

SOUTH SIDE PLAN OF LOTS, CHESTER, WEST VIRGINIA.

The Tin Mill is Now Making Plate and the Potteries are in Full Operation.

THE industries now located in Chester when placed in full operation will employ more than 1000 wage earners. THREE HUNDRED houses required at once for employees and trades people. There is a demand for trades of all kinds:—Furniture, Hardware, Plumbers, Painters, Carpenters, Jewelers, Druggist, etc., etc., in fact all kinds of people that go to make up a FIRST CLASS community such as Chester is sure to be. City Water, Natural Gas, Paved Streets and Flag Side Walks. Lots 22 1-2 to 50 feet front. 100 to 150 feet in depth.

Why pay rent

Small Cash Payment.

such an opportunity

Lots $100 Upwards Dwellings $1650 Upwards

when you have

Balance Weekly and Monthly.

to own your home?

We also have property of every description in all parts of East Liverpool, Ohio, and Chester, W. Va., which we will be pleased at all times to show you. If you have something you wish to exchange we can no doubt arrange same for you.

GEORGE H. OWEN & CO.,

General Insurance and Real Estate Agents.

OFFICES:—1st National Bank Building, East Liverpool, Ohio. Opposite Rock Springs Park, Chester, W. Va.

SOUTH SIDE PLAN OF LOTS, CHESTER, WEST VIRGINIA.

CANTON MEMORIAL.

President Day, of the Association, Issues a Statement to the Public.

FITTING MONUMENT PURPOSED.

To Rise Over the Grave, Where the Late President's Remains Will Rest, According to His Own Wish—Where to Send Contributions.

Cleveland, Dec. 14.—Judge William R. Day, ex-secretary of state and president of the McKinley National Memorial association, has issued a statement to the public, adopted by the trustees at their recent meeting at Washington, saying in part: "Resolved, That it is the sense of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association that the field of popular subscription should be left to it for raising the sum necessary to provide a suitable memorial to the late president at Canton, where his body lies; and that this association should join with the William McKinley Memorial Arch association, of Washington, in memorializing congress to erect a national memorial at the capitol of our country to commemorate his services to the nation." The arch association acquiesced in this resolution and has properly ceased to solicit popular subscriptions.

MRS. MCKINLEY AFFECTED

Friends Are Making Earnest Efforts to Draw Her Attention From Her Grief.

Akron, O., Dec. 14.—Information received by Akron friends of Mrs. Ida McKinley, the widow of President McKinley, is to the effect that her condition is much more serious than is admitted in her home city. Mrs. McKinley, it is said, will receive no callers on Christmas and intends to spend the day alone. It is said that her melancholia grows deeper each day, and that she speaks of nothing but her grief even to close friends. Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Dawes are Mrs. McKinley's guests, and are endeavoring to draw her attention from her consuming grief and get her to take an interest in current events. When Mr. and Mrs. Dawes leave, it is said, someone else will take their place, and efforts will be made to dissuade Mrs. McKinley from her intention to spend the holiday season in brooding over her sorrow.

Alabama Financiers Arrested.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 14.—On warrants charging embezzlement, George Morgan, president, and George Blinn, Jr., treasurer of the Continental Security Redemption company, for which concern a receiver was recently appointed, have been arrested. Morgan is charged with embezzling checks and money aggregating $58,000 and Blinn with embezzling $25,000. Both have given bonds.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm. WEST & TRAUX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. WALKING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials sent free. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

The Spirit of Christmas.
All hail the genial time of year
When every heart is kind,
When far and near there is good cheer
And care is left behind.

Old feuds forgot, old hates aside,
Now hearty clasps of hand,
While far and wide at Christmastide
Love reigns throughout the land.

Forgive, forget, a truce to pride;
Healed are all friendship's rifts.
At gay Yuletide on every side
We're "worked" for Christmas gifts.
—New York Journal.

Queer.

"It's mighty hard to judge by appearances," said Uncle Eben. "When you see a man with a new suit o' clothes, you nubber kin tell whether he's got a whole lot o' money or whether he's jes' done spent it all."—Washington Star.

Retribution.

He wrote some lines on time
When the gas was burning dim,
But that was many years ago;
Now time is writing lines on him.
—New York World.

Sweet Charity.

"Look here, boss," said the beggar. "You've given me a counterfeit." "Is that so?" replied the good man. "Well, keep it for your honesty."—Philadelphia Press.

Skating Song.

Oh, little children, now we fear
It is about that time of year
When on the ice you darling creatures
Will fall and bust your little features!
—Denver Times.

A Great Need.

Sandy Pikes—Dis medicine is guaranteed to keep away every kind of grip. Billy Coalgate (anxiously)—Will it keep away de bulldog's grip, pard?—Chicago News.

A Holiday Reflection.

You know 'twill soon be Christmas
By the frost, the song, the joke,
By your strongly generous impulse,
By the fact that you are broke.
—Washington Star.

The Way Some Clubwomen Act.

Mrs. Whyte—Does she belong to the Improvement club?
Mrs. Browne—No. The Improvement club belongs to her.—Somerville Journal.

Don't Do It.

Do not take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin unless you have Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache or some form of Stomach Trouble, such as Dyspepsia, Biliousness or Heartburn, for these are what it is guaranteed to cure. Sold by W. & W. Pharmacy.

Page's Climax Salve will cure corns, chilblains, frosted feet, chapped hands and lips quicker than any other application. Try it and be convinced.

NEW CHIEF OF ORDNANCE.

Brigadier General Crozier, Who Succeeds General Buffington.

In Brigadier General Crozier, who was recently appointed chief of ordnance, Uncle Sam has an officer who for years has been demonstrating his ability in nearly every department of ordnance and showing himself an expert in affairs pertaining to his profession. The president and Secretary Root have long been favorably impressed with his ability, and twenty-seven of his senior officers were passed by in making the appointment.

The new chief of ordnance is one of the most energetic men in the army.

BRIGADIER GENERAL CROZIER.

He has a wide reputation in this and other countries as an ordnance expert. He is full of nervous force notwithstanding he has a frail physical constitution, which has kept him on sick leave to some extent within recent years.

Brigadier General Crozier is a native of Ohio, but was appointed to the Military academy from Kansas in 1872. When he graduated in 1876, he entered the artillery and was transferred to the ordnance in 1881. He became a captain in 1890, after fourteen years' service. During the Spanish war he served as a major and inspector general of volunteers. In his career as ordnance officer he has given strictest attention to guns and gun carriages and was a joint inventor with General Buffington of the Buffington-Crozier disappearing carriage.

The father of General Crozier was the late Judge Crozier, at one time a United States senator from Kansas. General Crozier was the American military delegate to the peace conference at The Hague, where his fame as the inventor of the disappearing gun carriage had preceded him. While attending the conference he made a notable address against the use of the explosive bullet in warfare.

At Cavite during the Spanish-American war General Crozier's services were commended by Generals Schwan and Bates, and for conspicuous gallantry at the battle of Yangtsun, China, General Chaffee recommended him for brevet.

It Certainly Does.

It may seem paradoxical,
But it really beats the band
How debts, when contracted,
Are quite likely to expand.
—Chicago News.

The Obvious Reason.

"Ardup says he's just got to raise the wind. What's the occasion?" "I think he wants to blow himself."—Chicago Tribune.

A Capitulation.

We blame the constant kicker
And chide him with a will,
And yet the world oft gives him
His wish to keep him still.
—Washington Star.

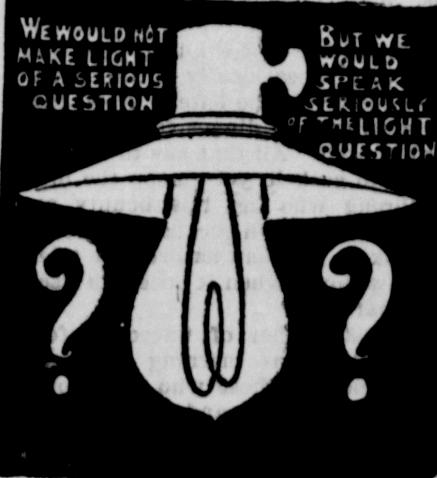

Bon Ami

Contains no coarse grit to scour and wear out surfaces.

Sagine
WILL CURE ABSOLUTELY
Diseases of Skin and Scalp, eruptions, eczema, old sores, itching, dandruff, scalds, burns, quick relief in Piles. Clean and cooling. Vegetable antiseptic. 50 cts. Guaranteed.

If your druggist does not keep it, address SAGINE COMPANY, COLUMBUS, O. For sale by Chas. F. Craig, East Liverpool, O.

Makes It Bright.

You want a light to make it bright? Then why not have the light that makes it the brightest—the electric light.

IT COSTS LESS, IS LESS TROUBLE, GIVES BEST LIGHT

It's an improvement over all other lights, which is why it is so popular.

Estimates on lighting furnished by

The Ceramic City Light Co.

When

You want any job in the

BUILDING LINE

done well and quick. Come to us as our reputation is established.

J. C. CAIN & CO.,

Telephone "Bell" 23 and 25.

ADVERTISE in the NEW REVIEW. Best results.

SOUTH SIDE PLAN OF LOTS, CHESTER, WEST VIRGINIA.

The Tin Mill is Now Making Plate and the Potteries are in Full Operation.

THE industries now located in Chester when placed in full operation will employ more than 1000 wage earners. THREE HUNDRED houses required at once for employees and trades people. There is a demand for trades of all kinds:-- Furniture, Hardware, Plumbers, Painters, Carpenters, Jewelers, Druggist, etc., etc., in fact all kinds of people that go to make up a FIRST CLASS community such as Chester is sure to be. City Water, Natural Gas, Paved Streets and Flag Side Walks. Lots 22 1-2 to 50 feet front. 100 to 150 feet in depth.

Why pay rent

Small Cash Payment.

such an opportunity

Lots $100 Upwards Dwellings $1650 Upwards

when you have

Balance Weekly and Monthly.

to own your home?

We also have property of every description in all parts of East Liverpool, Ohio, and Chester, W. Va., which we will be pleased at all times to show you. If you have something you wish to exchange we can no doubt arrange same for you.

GEORGE H. OWEN & CO.,

General Insurance and Real Estate Agents.

OFFICES:—1st National Bank Building, East Liverpool, Ohio. Opposite Rock Springs Park, Chester, W. Va.

SOUTH SIDE PLAN OF LOTS, CHESTER, WEST VIRGINIA.

CANTON MEMORIAL.

President Day, of the Association, Issues a Statement to the Public.

FITTING MONUMENT PURPOSED.

To Rise Over the Grave, Where the Late President's Remains Will Rest, According to His Own Wish—Where to Send Contributions.

Cleveland, Dec. 14.—Judge William R. Day, ex-secretary of state and president of the McKinley National Memorial association, has issued a statement to the public, adopted by the trustees at their recent meeting at Washington, saying in part:

The McKinley National Memorial association was organized by the immediate personal friends of President McKinley to afford an opportunity to the people of the United States to express their personal love and devotion to the late president by the erection of a fitting memorial at his grave. The trustees were appointed by the president of the United States, the first meeting for organization having been held at Cleveland, Oct. 10. It is the distinct purpose of the association to erect such a memorial as will fittingly typify those exalted qualities of character, simplicity, dignity, devotion to duty and high ideals that were so eminently exemplified in his life and purposes. This memorial is to rise above the grave at Canton, O., where he will finally rest in accord with his own expressed wish.

By a resolution passed by the American Bankers' association, all banks have been designated depositories for subscriptions. All postmasters will receive and forward monies and all express companies will issue money orders free of charge, and, when necessary, forward money free.

In foreign countries, the ambassadors, ministers and consuls of the United States will receive and forward subscriptions.

Memorial Souvenirs.

In every case the name and address of the subscriber should be forwarded to the treasurer, Myron T. Herrick, Cleveland, O., for preservation in the permanent archives of the association, and in order that souvenir certificates may be sent to each. The souvenir certificate adopted by the trustees will be worthy of preservation as a work of art and as evidence of the holder's participation in the erection of the national memorial. It has engraved upon it a portrait of President McKinley and in shadow pictures of the president's home at Canton, the Capitol and White House. After a conference at this meeting with representatives of the William McKinley Memorial Arch association, of Washington, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association that the field of popular subscription should be left to it for raising the sum necessary to provide a suitable memorial to the late president at Canton, where his body lies; and that this association should join with the William McKinley Memorial Arch association, of Washington, in memorializing congress to erect a national memorial at the capitol of our country to commemorate his services to the nation."

The arch association acquiesced in this resolution and has properly ceased to solicit popular subscriptions.

MRS. MCKINLEY AFFECTED

Friends Are Making Earnest Efforts to Draw Her Attention From Her Grief.

Akron, O., Dec. 14.—Information received by Akron friends of Mrs. Ida McKinley, the widow of President McKinley, is to the effect that her condition is much more serious than is admitted in her home city. Mrs. McKinley, it is said, will receive no callers on Christmas and intends to spend the day alone. It is said that her melancholia grows deeper each day, and that she speaks of nothing but her grief even to close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Dawes are Mrs. McKinley's guests, and are endeavoring to draw her attention from her consuming grief and get her to take an interest in current events. When Mr. and Mrs. Dawes leave, it is said, someone else will take their place, and efforts will be made to dissuade Mrs. McKinley from her intention to spend the holiday season in brooding over her sorrow.

Alabama Financiers Arrested.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 14.—On warrants charging embezzlement, George Morgan, president, and George Blinn, Jr., treasurer of the Continental Security Redemption company, for which concern a receiver was recently appointed, have been arrested. Morgan is charged with embezzling checks and money aggregating $58,000 and Blinn with embezzling $25,000. Both have given bonds.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

WEST & TRAU, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 50c per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials sent free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

The Spirit of Christmas.
All hail the genial time of year
When every heart is kind,
When far and near there is good cheer
And care is left behind.

Old feuds forgot, old hates aside,
Now hearty claps of hand,
While far and wide at Christmastide
Love reigns throughout the land.

Forgive, forget, a truce to pride;
Healed are all friendship's rifts.
At gay Yuletide on every side
We're "worked" for Christmas gifts.

—New York Journal.

Queer.

"It's mighty hard to judge by appearances," said Uncle Eben. "When you see a man with a new suit of clothes, you never know whether he's got a whole lot of money or whether he's just done spent it all."—Washington Star.

Retribution.

He wrote some lines on time
When the gas was burning dim,
But that was many years ago;
Now time is writing lines on him.

—New York World.

Sweet Charity.

"Look here, boss," said the beggar. "You've given me a counterfeit." "Is that so?" replied the good man. "Well, keep it for your honesty."—Philadelphia Press.

Skating Song.

Oh, little children, now we fear
It is about that time of year
When on the ice you darling creatures
Will fall and suffer little fears.

—Denver Times.

A Great Need.

Sandy Pikes—Dis medicine is guaranteed to keep away every kind of grip. Billy Coalgate (anxiously)—Will it keep away de bulldog's grip, pard?—Chicago News.

A Holiday Reflection.

You know 'twill soon be Christmas
By the frost, the song, the joke,
By your strongly generous impulse,
By the fact that you are broke.

—Washington Star.

The Way Some Clubwomen Act.

Mrs. Whyte—Does she belong to the Improvement club?
Mrs. Browne—No. The Improvement club belongs to her.—Somerville Journal.

Don't Do It.

Do not take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin unless you have Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache or some form of Stomach Trouble, such as Dyspepsia, Biliousness or Heartburn, for these are what it is guaranteed to cure. Sold by W. & W. Pharmacy.

Page's Climax Salve will cure corns, chilblains, frosted feet, chapped hands and lips quicker than any other application. Try it and be convinced.

NEW CHIEF OF ORDNANCE.

Brigadier General Crozier, Who Succeeds General Duffington.

In Brigadier General Crozier, who was recently appointed chief of ordnance, Uncle Sam has an officer who for years has been demonstrating his ability in nearly every department of ordnance and showing himself an expert in affairs pertaining to his profession. The president and Secretary Root have long been favorably impressed with his ability, and twenty-seven of his senior officers were passed by in making the appointment.

The new chief of ordnance is one of the most energetic men in the army.

BRIGADIER GENERAL CROZIER.

He has a wide reputation in this and other countries as an ordnance expert. He is full of nervous force notwithstanding he has a frail physical constitution, which has kept him on sick leave to some extent within recent years.

Brigadier General Crozier is a native of Ohio, but was appointed to the Military academy from Kansas in 1872. When he graduated in 1876, he entered the artillery and was transferred to the ordnance in 1881. He became a captain in 1890, after fourteen years' service. During the Spanish war he served as a major and inspector general of volunteers. In his career as ordnance officer he has given strictest attention to guns and gun carriages and was a joint inventor with General Buffington of the Buffington-Crozier disappearing carriage.

The father of General Crozier was the late Judge Crozier, at one time a United States senator from Kansas. General Crozier was the American military delegate to the peace conference at The Hague, where his fame as the inventor of the disappearing gun carriage had preceded him. While attending the conference he made a notably address against the use of the explosive bullet in warfare.

At Cavite during the Spanish-American war General Crozier's services were commended by Generals Schwan and Bates, and for conspicuous gallantry at the battle of Yangtsun, China, General Chaffee recommended him for brevet.

It Certainly Does.

It may seem paradoxical,
But it really beats the band
How debts, when contracted,
Are quite likely to expand.

—Chicago News.

The Obvious Reason.

"Ardup says he's just got to raise the wind. What's the occasion?" "I think he wants to blow himself."—Chicago Tribune.

A Capitulation.

We blame the constant kicker
And chide him with a will,
And yet the world oft gives him
His wish to keep him still.

—Washington Star.

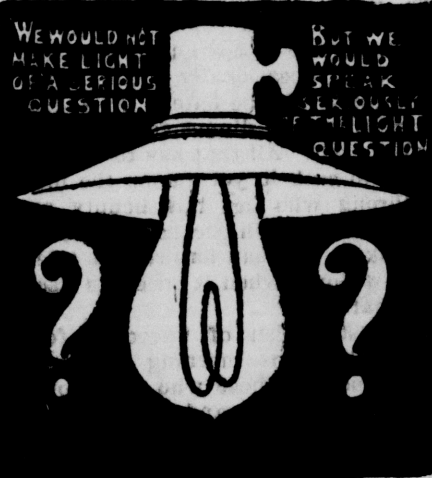

Bon Ami

Contains no coarse grit to scour and wear out surfaces.

Diseases of Skin and Scalp, eruptions, eczema, old sores, itching, dandruff, scalds, burns, quick relief in Piles. Clean and cooling. Vegetable antiseptic. 50 cts. Guaranteed.

If your druggist does not keep it, address SAGINE COMPANY, COLUMBUS, O. For sale by Chas. F. Craig, East Liverpool, O.

Makes It Bright.

You want a light to make it bright? Then why not have the light that makes it the brightest—the electric light.

IT COSTS LESS, IS LESS TROUBLE, GIVES BEST LIGHT

It's an improvement over all other lights, which is why it is so popular.

Estimates on lighting furnished by

The Ceramic City Light Co.

When

You want any job in the

BUILDING LINE

done well and quick. Come to us as our reputation is established.

J. C. CAIN & CO.,

Telephone "Bell" 23 and 25.

ADVERTISE in the NEW REVIEW. Best results.